

Pickin' Pears

News and Notes
From Camp White

By BILL HURNE
Ashland Elks lodge 944, on behalf of the Oregon State BPOE association, sponsored a party last week at Camp White. Emil Kroeger, state hospital chairman, was in charge of the event. Committee members included Mr. and Mrs. Ken Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Grubb, John Grubb and Roy Hartley. Refreshments were served after the game session.

The theater was the setting Monday evening for a VFW auxiliary dance, arranged by Lella Birch of Shady Cove, department of Oregon representative. Music was provided by Chapman's orchestra of the musicians' union local 597 of Medford. Coffee and cookies were served by auxiliary members.

The weekly decoration of the Camp White chapel is a featured project of VAVS and is being done by member garden clubs of the area. Howard Garden club of Medford had charge for this week, with Mrs. L. C. McCay and Mrs. J. C. Crocker arranging the display.

The Zaccar Muzzioli accordion band is being honored on the VAVS plaque display this week for the group's participation in entertainment for domiciliary members.

Twenty-nine members of the domiciliary made the final Crater Lake tour of the season Wednesday, with the American Legion post and auxiliary of Ashland in charge. Accompanying the members were Bob Doran, bus driver, Bill Bryan, of the special services department, and Mrs. L. C. Wolf, Mrs. J. P. Lohr and Mrs. Ken Lewis of the auxiliary. Auxiliary members acted as escorts and comprised the luncheon committee.

A special guest on the trip was Miss Dixie Myers of Kennebec, S.D., niece of Mrs. Lohr.

A varied schedule of events is planned for the special services second annual field day on Labor Day, Sept. 3. The festivities are sponsored by VFW posts and auxiliaries. Planned for the day are individual rec-

BLM Asks Bids for New Land Records

Portland — (UP) — Portland Area Administrator James F. Doyle has announced that the Bureau of Land Management has issued invitations to bid on a contract to construct new land records for the states of Oregon and Utah.

The invitation provides for the construction of new master title and use township plats and relating historical indexes for a townships in Utah, and, insofar as funds are available, for those in Oregon. The amount of the successful bid will determine how many township plats can be constructed for the Oregon Land office at Portland, Doyle said.

Copies of the bid invitation may be obtained at the Oregon State Supervisor's office in Portland, or the office of the Utah state supervisor at Salt Lake City.

Portland Would Feel Meat Packer Strike

Portland — (UP) — Officials of the nation's two largest meat workers unions have ordered a strike vote among 85,000 workers. The strike action would affect about 650 workers in Portland.

Members of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher workmen and the United Packinghouse workers are covered by the disputed agreements.

William Siefert, secretary of the Portland local of the butcher workmen, said the Portland workmen concerned are employed by Swift and Co. and Armour and Co.

Siefert said the unions are seeking wage increases and other contract improvements. The current pact expires Sept. 1.

Elkins-Clark Wiretap Hearings Postponed

Portland — (UP) — Hearing of a motion to quash wire tapping indictments against James B. Elkins, Portland nightlife figure, and Raymond F. Clark, his employee, was delayed here Friday. Friction between the office of Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton and the Multnomah county district attorney's office was blamed for the delay. Assistant Attorney General Francis Wade asked for the postponement until Sept. 11, stating the district attorney has "questioned my integrity," as reason for seeking the delay.

POODLES WEDDING GUESTS
London — (UP) — Twelve poodles festooned with ribbons and wearing bright red toenail polish formed a guard of honor Saturday at the wedding of Anne Seymour and John Cox.

BROTHER ACT

Knoxville, Tenn. — (UP) — When Howard Seay failed to return from a trip to a neighborhood grocery, his brother, James, jumped into his car to hunt for him. A few blocks from home, James whizzed through a speed trap, was arrested and taken to jail. There he found his brother who had been arrested in the same speed trap.

Use Tribune Want Ads

Two Medford Library Staff Members to Attend Confab

Miss Helen Webster and Mrs. Joyce Fuller of the Medford Public Library staff will attend the annual conference of the Pacific Northwest Library association in Pullman, Wash., Aug. 29-31. This 46th conference of the association will be the first to be attended by librarians from Alberta, Canada. That province just recently became a part of the organization by action of last year's conference. Libraries of British Columbia, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon are also expected to be represented since Pullman is located near the geographical center of the Pacific Northwest region. One highlight of this year's conference will be the report on the Pacific Northwest Library survey and plans of its directors for using the $60,000 grant of the Ford Foundation toward improvement of library service in the northwest. There will also be intensive consideration of the Library Services bill recently passed by Congress and its significance for rural residents of this region. With funds for some increase in the number of bookmobiles in this region being provided by this bill, the library trustees round table will discuss "Bookmobiles and the Trustee." General sessions will be held on library buildings, in-service training programs, and the preservation and duplication of library materials as well as on new developments in cataloging, reference work, extension service and publicity. Among the principal speakers at the conference will be the president, of the American Library association, Ralph R. Shaw, of the Rutgers university library school faculty. His topic is "The Library of Tomorrow." Professor Raymond Muse, head of the Washington State college history department, will give an address on "Civil Liberties and the Library." Another guest will be N. Orwin Rush of the University of Wyoming, who will speak at a luncheon meeting.

Teen-Agers Battle Police in Germany

Braunschweig, Germany — (UP) — Hundreds of teen-agers battled police for the second night in a row here Friday night. The trouble started when police arrested two youths who knocked over a bicycle stand and rode off on a couple of the bikes. A jeering crowd of about 400 teen-agers followed the officers and their captives to police headquarters, where a fight broke out in the street.

the best part of going back to school.

See Mann's sweater collection by such famous names as Jantzen, Darlene, Helen Harper and Miracle.

See our skirt spectacular . . . starring superb new Pendletons of finest virgin wool! Choose your whole skirt wardrobe from this wonderful array . . . in singing colors and new Pendleton plaids and tartans; in pin-slim silhouettes and the famed turn-about reversible, pleated style; sizes 10-18; priced from 12.95.

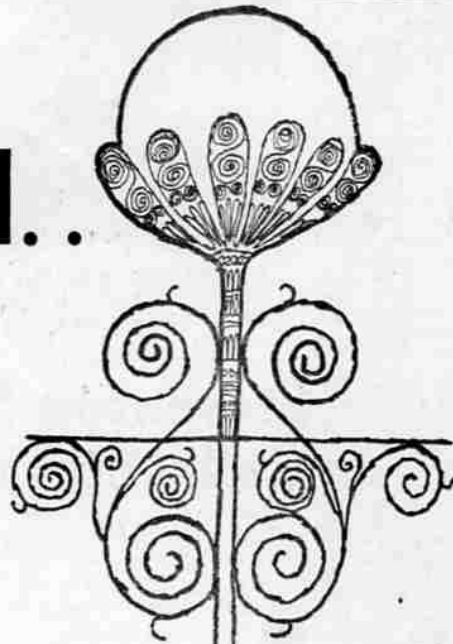

Pendleton
color-coordinated fabrics
100% virgin wool

What pleasure for you . . . Pendleton's fine idea of completely color-coordinating its luxurious woolens! Now, you've only to pick your favorite solid shade from rich new colors . . . then pick the plaid, check or tartan which automatically coordinates with it. No more guess work . . . Pendleton does the whole job for you, perfectly!

Reg. plaids — 60" wide4.98 yd.
tartan plaids — 60" wide5.98 yd.
co-ordinating flannels — 60" wide6.98 yd.

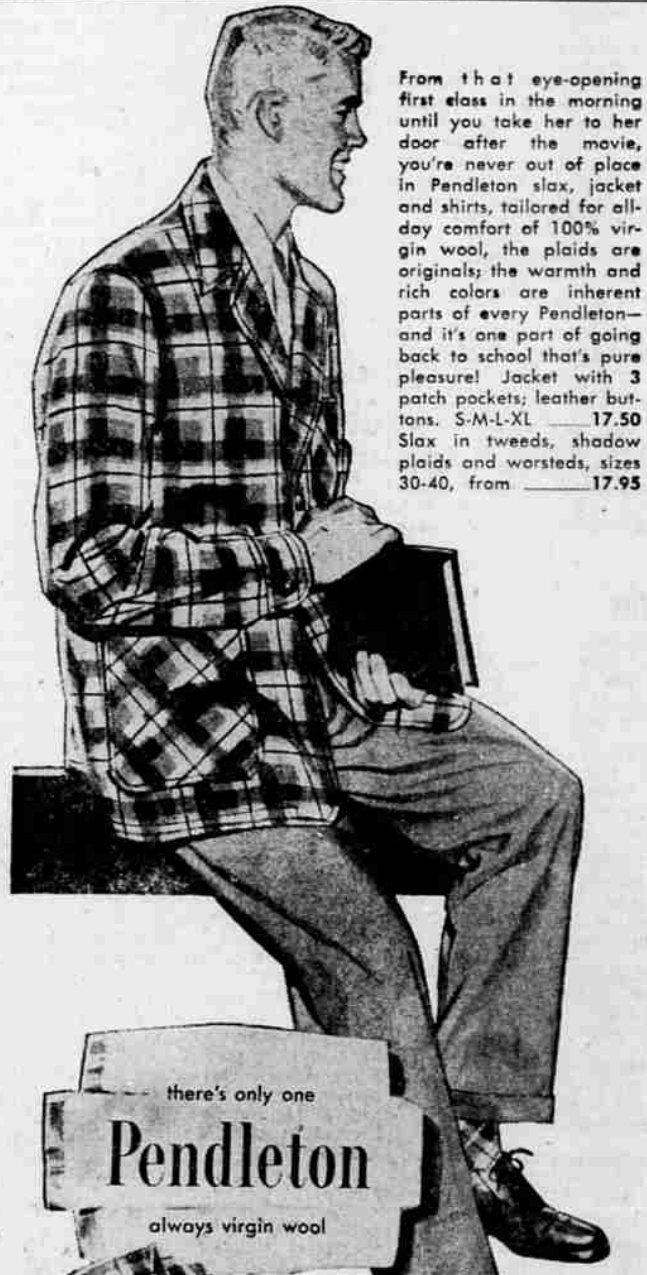

new Pendleton

for WOMEN

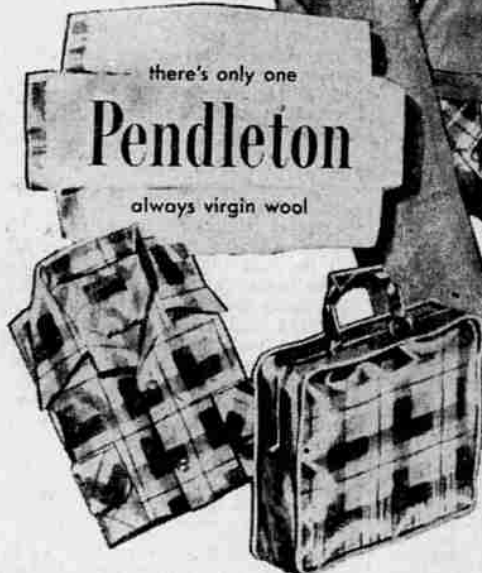

for MEN

Sport shirts in matching plaids or contrasting plains start 11.95

for SEWING

From that eye-opening first class in the morning until you take her to her door after the movie, you're never out of place in Pendleton slax, jacket and shirts, tailored for all-day comfort of 100% virgin wool, the plaids are originals; the warmth and rich colors are inherent parts of every Pendleton—and it's one part of going back to school that's pure pleasure! Jacket with 3 patch pockets; leather buttons. S-M-L-XL 17.50 Slax in tweeds, shadow plaids and worsteds, sizes 30-40, from 17.95

there's only one Pendleton
always virgin wool

Robe-in-a-bag, bag of nylon, robe of rayon and nylon — specially priced at just 3.98 (not by Pendleton).

Just in—the 49'er jacket in stripes. Dyed spun, woven and tailored of 100% virgin wool—same as the famous Partner plaid that matches the men's jacket (above) exactly. Comes in many lush fall shades to mix or match with your Pendleton skirt. Sizes 10-20—... 19.95