Gleason-Powell Rites Held In Central Point Church

Central Point — Miss Ruth Louise Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll W. Powell, 162 North Pacific highway, became the bride of Jimmie M. Gleason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Gleason, 2684 Crater Lake highway, in a ceremony held August 10 at 8 o'clock in the evening at Community Bible church.

The Rev. Paul Kroon officiated at the service attended by some 300 relatives and guests. The church was decorated with baskets of pink gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown fashioned with a lace bodice and skirt of nylon tulle over satin which formed a chapel length train. She wore fingertip length veil and carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

A sister of the bride, Mrs. Birch Scribner, was matron of honor. Her dress was of orchid silk crystalline and she carried a bouquet of deep lavender gladioli.

Candlelighters were Miss Colleen Arthur, Eagle Point, cousin of the bride, and Miss Marlene

Service Weds Miss Edwards, Ray Driskell

Jacksonville — Miss Annette Louise Edwards became the bride of Ray Lee Driskell in a ceremony held Saturday, August 4, at 1 o'clock in Zion Lutheran church. The Rev. G. H. Hillerman officiated at the double ring service before 25 relatives and guests.

Miss Edwards is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards, 400 Fourth street, Jacksonville. Mr. Driskell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Driskell of Jacksonville.

For her wedding the bride wore a white satin dress fashioned with nylon overskirt in ballerina length. Her fingertip veil fell from a halo crown and she carried a pink rosebud nosegay bouquet. She was given in marriage by her father.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Delbert Walker, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Minnis, Miss Patricia Rushton, and Miss Marie Johnson, cousin of the bride. They wore ballerina length frocks in pastel colored cotton and carried pink rosebuds.

Ronald Kear, a friend of the bridegroom, stationed with the U.S. Army at Norfolk, Va., served as best man. Ushers were Richard Kear, Delbert Walker, brother-in-law of the bride, and Charles Driskell, brother of the bridegroom.

The church was decorated with pink and white gladioli. Following the ceremony a reception was given by Mrs. Cora Johnson at 508 Bessie street, Medford. Miss Marie Johnson was in charge of the guest book and gifts.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Edwards wore a pink nylon dress with white accessories. Mrs. Driskell, the bridegroom's mother, chose a navy blue nylon dress with white accessories. They both wore pink rosebud corsages.

After a trip to Diamond lake, the couple are now at home at 403 West Ninth street, Medford. The bride is a graduate of Jacksonville schools and was employed by the Stage Coach orchards. The bridegroom is a graduate of Jacksonville High school and is working for the Timber Products company.

Senior is a graduate of Medford Senior High school and is employed by the California Oregon Power Company in Crescent City where they will make their home.

Presbyterian Service Weds Miss Collins, Kent Bonney

An event of Sunday, August 19, was the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Collins to Kent Wiley Bonney, the rites taking place at First Presbyterian church here. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Collins, 224 East Main street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bonney, Grants Pass.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated for the ceremony, held at four o'clock in the afternoon. Mrs. H. E. Marsh was at the church organ, playing prelude music and Bach's "Arioso" for the professional Mrs. Harvey Field was soloist.

Arrangements of Mother Fischer white gladioli decorated the church.

The bride's wedding gown of white nylon net was fashioned with a full floor-length skirt and bodice designed with cap sleeves and insets of lace around the neckline. Her waist-length veil was trimmed with Brussels roses and the locket she wore was given by her maternal grandfather to his bride as a wedding gift. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis.

Miss Loretta Mason, sorority sister of the bride from Anacortes, Wash., was honor attendant. Her gown was of pastel pink dotted nylon and she carried rose-pink Burma gladioli. Bridesmaids were Miss Priscilla West and Mrs. Charles R. Bonney, Lakeview, Ore., sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Miss West wore a pastel yellow frock and carried Elizabeth the Queen orchid gladioli, and Mrs. Bonney, who wore a pale green gown, carried coral lace gladioli.

Catherine Collins, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Her frock was of yellow nylon and her flowers were Tyrone orchid gladioli. Sarah and Mary Collins, also nieces of the bride, were flower girls. They wore long frocks of pink nylon net.

Mr. Collins gave his daughter in marriage, and Charles R. Bonney, Lakeview, was best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Roger Hannum, Grants Pass; Sidney Frank, Springfield, Ore.; and Peter Wick, Bend, Ore.

The reception, attended by 200 guests, was held in the garden of the Collins' home. Arrangements of pale pink traveler gladioli decorated the refreshment tables and the rooms of the home.

Pouring were Miss Helen Bullis, Mrs. Rawles Moore, Mrs. Louis Humphrys, formerly of Medford and now of Santa Rosa, Calif., Miss Jean Merker, Eugene, Ore., and Miss Ann Hill, Cottage Grove, sorority sisters of the bride, Mrs. E. R. Adams, Richmond Heights, Mo., cousin of the bride's mother, and Mrs. C. D. Collins, San Diego, Calif., aunt of the bride.

Mrs. Robert Browne cut the wedding cake, using Mrs. W. J. Warner's heirloom knife, and Miss Linda Horton and Miss Judy Christensen passed the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Roger Han-

Miss Wintermote Visits in Medford; To Live in Albany

Miss Eula Wintermote, who took leave of absence from her work as Jackson county home demonstration agent this past year to undertake graduate studies at Colorado Agricultural and Mechanical college, paid a brief visit to Medford last week. Miss Wintermote's new assignment in the Oregon State Extension service is at Albany, where she will assist in the training of young extension workers.

While in Medford the visitor was the house guest of Mrs. Virginia Wait, 220 Vancouver avenue. Among the events arranged to give some of her Medford friends an opportunity to visit with Miss Wintermote was a small dinner party at Mon Desir on Wednesday evening. The hostess for this occasion was Miss Laura York.

Traveler Home From Trip Abroad

Mrs. C. G. Van Valzah returned home last week after having spent the past two months traveling in the United States and Europe. She went in the company of a sister, Mrs. J. P. King, Springfield, Ore., and the trip was by air.

Leaving in mid-July, the two women visited Scotland, England, France, Switzerland, Italy and Austria. Returning to this country they visited relatives and friends in Delaware, Alabama, Texas, Colorado and San Francisco before returning to Oregon.

During Mrs. Van Valzah's absence, another sister, Mrs. D. C. England of Springfield, was with the Van Valzah family here. Mrs. Van Valzah made the trip as a guest of Mrs. King.

Elizabeth Scott, and the hostesses Mrs. Benston and Mrs. Gordon.

Miss Noel was also honored at a shower given Thursday evening by Miss Sally Elden, Route 1, with Miss Earlene South and Miss Marla Abbott as co-hostesses. Games were played and a scrapbook made for the bride-to-be.

Decorations were in pink and white, and a pink umbrella covered with pink rosebuds centered the refreshment table. A nosegay was made from the ribbons on the gifts which will be carried by Miss Noel for the wedding rehearsal. During the evening the honored guest was also presented a basket filled with spices for her kitchen.

Guests were the Misses Norrene Davis, Joan von der Heilen, Nadra Moore, Joanne Potter, Linda Warren, Kay Askwith, Jackie Cameron, Lana Bishop, Kathryn Coe, Judy Davis, Karen Johnson, Betty McCann, Sherrill von Buskirk, Leone Lawrence, Gay David, Dixie Walker, Phoebe Lull, Pat Snook, Linda Obenchain, Joyce Hobbs and Billie Conner and Mrs. Dick Dean, Mrs. Robert Hopkins, Mrs. Douglas Smith and Mrs. Kay Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lee Driskell were married Saturday, August 4, in Zion Lutheran church, Medford. The bride is the former Annette Louise Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards, Jacksonville, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ben Driskell, Jacksonville.
