Ceremony Weds
Barbara Baker,
Kenneth Chokie,

Miss Barbara Louise Baker became the bride of Kenneth John Chokie in a ceremony held Sunday, August 19, at Sacred Heart Catholic church in Medford. The Rev. Nicholas Deis officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Eva Baker, 517 South Grape street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jay Hamilton, Route 2, Box 393B, Medford.

Bouquets of white gladiolus decorated the church for the ceremony. Bruno Pellegrini played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Junior E. Baker, wore a ballerina gown of white lace and nylon tulle with a finger-tip length veil of illusion held by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis centered with sweet peas.

Miss Ruth Stegall, niece of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a blue silk taffeta ballerina frock with headdress of nylon and pearls and carried pink asters. The other attendants, dressed in pastel frocks like that worn by the maid-of-honor, were Miss Georgia Ann Baker and Mrs. Junior E. Baker, sister and sister-in-law of the bride. Their bouquets were asters.

DeAnna Smelser, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white floor-length frock of eyelet organdy with a coronet of flowers.

Timothy Jay Hamilton, Ashland, was best man for his brother and ushers were Lynn Knight, Kenneth Nelson and Clayton Taylor.

The wedding reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a silk print dress with corsage of pink roses and white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue two-piece suit with corsage of pink roses and white carnations.

Mr. Chokie and his bride are spending a honeymoon on the Oregon coast and will live in Medford after their return. For traveling the bride wore a suit of Eleanor blue with white accessories and corsage of sweet peas.

The bride attended Medford schools and the bridegroom attended school in Rock Spring, Wyo. He is a salesman for Barneburg and Andrews.

Coffee Series
To End Tuesday

The final coffee in a series of seven held this summer by women of First Presbyterian church is set for Tuesday, August 28, at the home of Mrs. Berthold Barnum, South Pacific highway. The events have been given to benefit the Ming Quong mission in California.

Tuesday's coffee is sponsored by Grace circle and will be from 10 a.m. until 12 noon. Assisting Mrs. Barnum will be Mrs. Frances Flinn and Mrs. Kenneth Cook. It is stated that the swimming pool will be available for those who wish to swim.

Those unable to attend the coffee given by their own circles are cordially invited to attend the last one, the committee announces.

Rickrode-Thomas
Marriage Rites
Held in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Rickrode Jr., whose wedding was an event of August 10, are now living in San Francisco. Mrs. Rickrode is the former Claire Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thomas, 708 West Tenth street, Medford.

The service took place in Meeker Memorial chapel, First Methodist church, with only family members attending. Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb read the singling ceremony at five o'clock in the afternoon, with Mr. Thomas giving his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a dress of champagne colored lace with matching accessories and a corsage of cymbidium orchids. She was attended by Miss Phyllis Whitlock wearing a navy blue dress with white accessories. Her flowers were red gladiolus.

William Eatherton served as best man for the bridegroom. The bride, who attended Medford Senior High school and Oregon State college, is with the North American Securities company in San Francisco. Mr. Rickrode, graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, is AAA representative in San Francisco.
