

Braves' Buhl Chalks Up Seventh Verdict Over Brooklyn Dodgers

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

Bob Buhl ranks alongside Sal Maglie, Bucky Walters and Ed Reulbach as a "Brooklyn Dodger killer" today with a 7-0 season slate that explains the Milwaukee Braves' three-game National league lead.

The 28-year-old righthander scored the most important of those seven wins Sunday when he beat the Dodgers, 6-2, in the opener of a key two-game series. In his seven victories over the Dodgers, Buhl has pitched 59 innings, yielding 48 hits and 15 runs for a glittering 2.28 earned run average.

Buhl's performance against the Dodgers this year tops any single season mark compiled by Maglie when he was public enemy No. 1 in Brooklyn. He is the first pitcher to beat the Dodgers seven times in a campaign since Bucky Walters did it for the Cincinnati Redlegs in 1939.

It's ironic that Buhl comes from Saginaw, Mich., only 85 miles from the birthplace of the original "Dodger killer"—Reulbach. Back in 1908, Detroit-born Reulbach whipped the Dodgers nine times.

Buhl will get one more crack at the Dodgers next month.

Bob, who is 16-5 against the league, pitched a seven-inning Sunday and had a shutout until the ninth when Sandy Amoros hit a two-run homer. The Braves backed him with a 10-hit attack that included home runs by Hank Aaron and Johnny Logan to hand Roger Craig his ninth loss. It was Milwaukee's 11th win in 19 meetings with the defending world champions.

The Redlegs fell 4½ games behind the Braves when they split a doubleheader with the Philadelphia Phillies. The Redlegs pounded out 15 hits, including Ted Kluszewski's 33rd homer to win the opener, 10-5, but the Phillies came back with a 16-hit assault behind Harvey Haddix to take the nightcap, 11-4.

Bob Friend won his 15th game and Ronnie Kline his 11th as the Pittsburgh Pirates scored 2-0 and 2-1 victories over the Chicago Cubs. Friend fired a four-hitter in the first game and then pitched 1 1/3 innings of hitless relief to preserve Kline's triumph in the nightcap.

The St. Louis Cardinals and New York Giants split a doubleheader by identical 4-3 scores.

Rose Winner In Hardtop Main Event

Bob Rose drove his M45 to victory Saturday night in the hardtop auto main event which sent Wayman Core to the hospital as the results of the worst roll recorded on the Valley View speedway.

Rose beat a 16-car field in the 25 lapper and was followed by Bob Wilcox and Bob Jenkins in that order.

Core's car went 10 to 15 feet in the air and made a complete turn. His condition at Ashland General hospital is serious.

Wayne Lemley in 57 won the hardtop semi-main. Ted Sletten was second and Joe Ellison third. Frank Woods in a 1949 Ford took the stock main which sent another driver to the hospital. Jim Ervin rolled on the second lap he suffered a sprained foot. Cecil James was second in the chase which was marked by numerous spin-outs.

Jenkins grabbed the A trophy dash and Chuck Davis the B event.

Joe Ellison won the first heat with Lemley second and Cliff McGilvery third. Wilcox took the second heat. Lou Kurz finished in the "place" position and Al Hammonds skipped the "show" car. Rusty Phillips, Fred Arnerberg and Core finished in that order in the third heat race.

Trapshoot Meet Ends

Vandalia, O. — (U.P.) — The traditional shooting and shouting ended another "roar in" grand American trapshoot here Saturday with minor awards going to a flock of "deadeyes" from all over the nation.

Only two events were listed for the last of the nine-day meet, but awards were passed out to other shooters for their overall performances. Carl Buchanan, 28, of Lawrenceburg, Ind., took handicap honors Saturday with 99 out of 100 birds at 22 yards. Five tied for the runnerup spot with 98 in the regulation firing.

In the final day's only other event, Ned Lilly of Stanton, Mich., won the doubles firing with a 98.

In overall competition, Joe Iestand of Hillsboro, Ohio, won his seventh title with a score of 963 out of 1,000. High overall among the women was Iva Pemberton of Phillipsburg, Kan., with 933.

Hank Sauer's three-run homer sparking the Redlegs in the first game and Johnny Antonelli coming to Dick Littlefield's rescue in the last two innings of the Giants' win.

The Detroit Tigers scored five runs in the third inning for a 5-4 triumph after Tom Sturdivant's six-hitter gave the American league-leading New York Yankees a 7-0 decision.

Rocky Colavito hit a two-run homer and a two-run double to account for all the Cleveland Indians' runs in a 4-1 triumph over the Washington Senators. Early Wynn struck out six to win his 15th game and the 216th of his career.

Gerry Staley's six-hitter enabled the Chicago White Sox to gain a 5-1 win after the Baltimore Orioles snapped Billy Pierce's string of 13 straight victories over them with an 8-1 triumph. Bill Wright struck out five and yielded five hits in winning the opener.

Al Pilarcik's 10th-inning double drove in the winning run as the Kansas City Athletics beat the Boston Red Sox, 7-6, after a 2-1 defeat. Gus Zernial hit two homers to bring the Athletics from behind in the second game.

Lakers Sweep Series Against Cheney Studs

The Klamath Falls Lakers combined heavy slugging with their more familiarity with the home park club the Medford Cheney Studs 16 to 8 in a marathon game Saturday night and then used some more heavy hitting and strong pitching on Sunday afternoon to blank Medford 7 to 0 as the two aggregations closed out their 1936 semi-pro baseball seasons.

Klamath's victories over the Southern Oregon league champs brought the Laker's season record as an independent crew to 30 wins against five losses. Medford finished its year with 21 and 12.

Stan Johnson was the big gun for the Lakers Saturday as the host crew pounded Studs' hurler Derald Wooton for 17 hits and as Medford fielders encountered trouble under the odd lighting of Gem stadium. Johnson smashed out six hits in six times up including a home run and a triple.

Leopold Three-Hitter

On Sunday Bob Leopold, on the mound for Klamath, held the Studs to three hits, all singles, while the home gang was collecting 12 bingles off Bob Selsor. Johnson, Ron Owings and Len Farrell all socked three for five. Farrell's hits were all for extra bases, a double, a triple and a homer. Owings and Johnson recorded a triple each.

Leopold whiffed four Stud batters and walked only one in the Sunday game.

On Saturday night the Studs did some heavy hitting of their own but it didn't prove enough. They got 10 safe raps off Walt Payne and Jack Henkel. Jerry Bettendorf slapped two three-baggers in four times up. Frank Roelandt hit two for four including a double and Jack Cooney counted up a three for four mark with one two-baser.

The Lakers took advantage of nine walks off Wooton and five errors in compiling their runs in the series opener. Their big inning was the first with seven runs on a single and triple by shortstop Johnson, a three-baser by Dino Restelli and a single by Gambee, along with

West Trims East Shrine Team 12-7

Pendleton — (U.P.) — George Thompson, a hard hitting half-back from Siletz, powered the West to a 12-7 win over the East here Saturday night in the annual Shriners' hospital Class B football game.

Thompson scooted into the end zone from 25 yards out for the first West touchdown and the first score of the game with 3:48 remaining in the third period.

Key Block

Thompson keynoted another West drive in the fourth period. This time the 185-pound half-back who was voted the game's outstanding player, picked up a key block from Dean Starr of Nehalem and sprinted for 72 yards into the end zone.

The East got its only score of the game in the final period with but 2:20 to play in the game. Gene McKinney of Union carried it across for the East after they had marched to the West 16 in 8 plays.

Ladd McGowan, Pilot Rock, was named as the East's outstanding back and Norm Oliva, Malin, the outstanding lineman on the squad. For the West, Art Gregory of Siletz was named the outstanding back and Jerry Strong of Mill City the outstanding lineman.

Jerry Luedee Choice

Tonight Over Provizzi

New York — (U.P.) — Middleweight Jerry Luedee of New Haven, Conn., a good puncher, is favored at 9-5 to best clever but light-hitting Bob Provizzi of Jamaica, N.Y., tonight in their 10-rounder at St. Nicholas arena.

Marlene Hage Establishes Mark At Denver; Kabler Low Amateur

Denver — (U.P.) — Carole Jo Kabler, the port teenage golfer from Sutherlin, Ore., won the amateur championship of the Mile High Women's Open golf tournament here yesterday with a total score of 304.

Miss Kabler fired an even par 75 in the final round of play yesterday to top a field of 18 amateurs entered in the tourney.

Denver — (U.P.) — Marlene Bauer Hage, the seasons leading money winner among professional women golfers, set a world's record 284 Sunday as she added to her earnings, win-

Forty Niners Win by 20-0 Over 'Skins

Based on their early pre-season form, the San Francisco Forty-Niners, Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears will be stepping on a lot of toes in the National Football league this year.

The Forty-Niners, who knocked off the defending champion Cleveland Browns last week, looked just as strong Sunday in blanking the Washington Redskins, 20-0, at San Francisco.

Green Bay also posted its second straight victory by downing the New York Giants, 17-13, Saturday night at Green Bay, while the Bears turned back the Philadelphia Eagles, 28-21, at Philadelphia.

In other week end games, the Baltimore Colts whipped the Pittsburgh Steelers, 37-16, at Cincinnati; the Chicago Cardinals edged the Detroit Lions, 20-17, at Mobile, Ala., and the Los Angeles Rams whipped Cleveland, 17-6, at Los Angeles.

Thus, after only 13 exhibition games, the Forty-Niners, the Packers and the Bears remain as the only unbeaten teams.

M. Souchak Golf Victor

St. Paul, Minn. — (U.P.) — Jerry Barber, Los Angeles, Calif., is the latest in a long line who will testify there is no such thing as a "sure shot" in the unpredictable game of golf.

The little guy of golf, who is known as one of the best putters in the game, missed a five footer Sunday which he thought was "a sure thing" on the last hole of the St. Paul Open that cost him the title for the second straight year.

If Barber had made it, he would have tied Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N.Y. Souchak blazed past 17 golfers who were ahead of him, going into the final 18 holes with a 10-under par 62 to tie the Keller course record. He finished with a burst of six straight birdies to wind up with a 271, seventeen under par.

It was the second straight year Barber lost the St. Paul Open after he appeared to have it in the bag. Tommy Bolt of Houston, Tex., passed Barber on the last three holes last year to come home in front.

Bolt, the defending champ, and Bob Rosburg of San Francisco, tied for third place with 273, fifteen strokes under par.

PROS GET BACK HUDSON CUP; AL WILLIAMS HOT

Portland — (U.P.) — The Northwest professionals scored an 8 to 7 win over a 10-man amateur team here yesterday to regain possession of the Hudson cup.

Yesterday's singles matches determined the title after the two teams ended in a 2½ to 2½ deadlock after Saturday's initial round of match play.

The key match of the cup play was yesterday's singles match between Bunny Mason, Salem, and Dick Price, Longview, Wash. Mason laid a 20-foot putt within two inches of the cup on the 18th green while Price missed a five-footer that would have given him an even break in the match.

Medford's Al Williams fired the hottest single round of the matches yesterday, scoring a six-under-par 66 morning round. Despite his sub par morning round, Williams did not have the low score for the day's 36 holes of play. Joe Greer, Yakima, and Dick Price, Longview, shared that honor with even par for the 36 holes.

Williams and Jim Russell, Walla-Walla, Wash., broke even with amateurs Harry Givan, Seattle, and Harold Weston, Portland, in their Scotch foursome. The two pros were seven down after 16 holes and made a stirring comeback to go 1 up. The ams took the 36th hole with a par to break even.

The teams of Bunny Mason, Salem, and Ray Honsberger, Seattle, and Joe Greer, Yakima, Wash. and Chuck Congdon, Tacoma, def. Dick Yost, Columbia, 3 and 1; Bunny Mason, Salem, def. Dick Price, Longview, 1 up.

Seattle Gains Softball Toga

Seattle — (U.P.) — Seattle's Federal Old Line Insurance softball team won the Northwest regional tourney yesterday by defeating Hyster Company of Portland 1-0 and 4-1.

PRAGUE SENDS BIRDS

San Diego — (U.P.) — A group of European finches has arrived at the San Diego Zoo as a gift from the Prague, Czechoslovakia, zoo. The birds were sent to the United States in exchange for native California birds shipped to Prague last spring.

Qualifying For SO Golf Continuing

PHIL GETHCELL Defends Medal Honors

Last of the local high handicappers entered in the Southern Oregon Golf tourney were to play their pre-qualifying rounds today at Rogue Valley Country club.

Forty-two men and eight women members of RVCC had made their 18-hole rounds through Sunday. Jack Sanborn and William McAllister Sr., the new Oregon supreme court justice, were low with 81.

Low handicap men and women of Rogue Valley, aiming for the championship flight will qualify Tuesday and will make their tries for the medalist spots won last year by Phil Gethcell, Medford, and Shirley Siegmund, Eugene.

Out-of-town entrants will qualify on Wednesday and match play starts on Thursday. Finals in the 28th annual tournament are billed for Monday, Sept. 3, Labor Day.

Roseburg 9 Tops Phoenix With Rally

Billings — (U.P.) — Roseburg, the Oregon and Northwest regional American Legion junior baseball titlist, meets Hastings, Neb., tonight in the sectional tourney here.

Roseburg staged a come-from-behind performance Saturday night to win the opening game of the three-team sectional tourney from Phoenix, Ariz.

Trailing 6-4 going into the ninth, Roseburg tallied three runs in its half of the final canto to overcome Phoenix.

Last night Phoenix edged Hastings 8-7 in the double-elimination tourney.

SATURDAY'S LINESCORE: Roseburg — 604 000 003 — 7 16 2 Phoenix — 240 000 000 — 4 9 3 D. Smith and Rudack, Crittendon and Davis.
