

Southern Oregon Links Tournament Will Open Here on Wednesday

Comittees Make Final Preparations for Annual Rivalry at Rogue Valley

The Southern Oregon golf tournament received a shot in the arm today with the entry of Rod Funseth, 21, of Seattle. Funseth is present Esmeralda champion, was low amateur and second low in the entire field at the Northwest Open in Eugene this year.

The long-hitting Seattle youth has never played in a Southern Oregon tournament before. According to Rogue Valley Country Club manager, George Harrington, Funseth was qualifying for the national amateur tournament in Portland yesterday and another SO entry, Bob Prall, talked him into entering.

1950 SO MEDALIST — Among entries in the 28th annual Southern Oregon Golf tourney is Shirley Siegmund, Eugene, 1955 medalist. She'll be trying to repeat in qualifying play on Wednesday at Rogue Valley Country Club.

Committees were adding the finishing touches yesterday to preparations for the Southern Oregon Golf tournament at Rogue Valley Country club and general chairman Ray Mencke declared that "everything is pretty well set" for the 28th annual staging of the Labor day holiday event.

Formal opening time of the tournament is 8:30 a.m. on Wednesday when out-of-town entries start their qualifying rounds. Rogue Valley Country club low handicappers were participating in their qualifying 18s today and high handicappers of the RVCC completed their rounds yesterday.

Yesterday the committees put the scoreboard and the starting booth in place. The parking lot was lined in anticipation of a heavy flood of vehicles. Sound system was installed and the trophy display was set up. RV women golfers were busy at the registration table.

The big invasion of out-of-town golfers and their families was anticipated today. Many placed their arrivals ahead of the qualifying day in order to play practice rounds. A large number of the guest participants were on hand yesterday and were practicing. The group included George Parsons and Roy Morgan, Seattle; Mrs. Marge Fills, the Utah state champ; Mr. and Mrs. William Cavelli, King City, Calif., and Susan Rafferty, Astoria.

Match play opens Thursday with finals on Monday, Labor day. Men's entries yesterday, with cancellations, were down to 224. Committees counted 67 women making a total entry list of 291.

Bob Atkinson, Portland, and Carol Jo Kabler, Sutherlin, will defend their 1955 titles.

Women lead off in Wednesday's qualifying action and all the ladies are scheduled to be on the course by 8:22 a.m. First men tee off at 8:30 a.m.

Ems Buried Under 18 Hits

By JOHN R. LONG
 United Press Sports Writer
 Tom Mulcahy was just about a whole team in himself last night in Northwest league play as he pitched a four-hit performance and led an 18-hit Spokane assault that buried the Eugene Emeralds under by a score of 12-2.

Mulcahy fanned 14 Emerald hitters during the game and his work with the bat was just as effective. His three-run double in the third inning was the big blow of an eight-run Spokane rally that wrapped up the ball game then and there.

Despite the rout, Eugene's two pitchers, Bulyn Hodges and Jack Marten, managed to rack up 12 strikeouts of their own for a grand total of 26 strikeouts during the contest.

Another 18-hit barrage was laid down at Kenewick as Wenatchee trounced Tri-City, 15-5. The Chieftain artillerymen, led by Herb Anderson, blasted five home runs out of the park.

Anderson smashed a bases-loaded round-tripper in the first inning and homered again in the eighth with one on. Don Lundberg got a bases-empty homer in the third, and Dewey Helbig duplicated the feat the next inning. Larry Segovia got Wenatchee's other four-base blow in the sixth inning with one on.

Lewiston Manager Hillis Lane homered in the fifth inning with one on to give his team a 9-4 lead over Salem. That enabled the Broncos to stave off a three-run Salem rally in the seventh and go on to win 9-7.
