

Borkowski Tallies Winning Run As Portland Ends Long LA Streak

By JOHN McDONALD
United Press Sports Writer

Don't give up, boys. Those Los Angeles Angels can be beat. The Portland Beavers found that out last night when they ended a string of 15 defeats at the hands of the Angels by pouring across three runs in the ninth to win 5-4.

It was beginning to look like the powerhouse Pacific Coast league leaders had some fantastic hex on the Beavers as they rolled up the string and held a 17-1 season edge over the Portlanders.

Going into the ninth last night the Angels led 4-2 and looked like a cinch to make it 16 straight. Then Frank Carswell walloped a two run homer to tie it up and the Beavers loaded the bags on ace reliever Bob Anderson.

Double Play Fails

With one away, Angel second sacker Gene Mauch grabbed a ground ball and decided to tag Eddie Basinski going to second and then flip to first for a game-ending double play. But Basinski refused to run into the trap and Bob Borkowski sped home with the winning run, with Mauch still clutching the ball.

In other games, the second-place Seattle Rainiers topped Vancouver 5-1 behind Artie Schallock's four-hitter; Sacramento made it three straight over Hollywood 3-1; and San Francisco battered San Diego 9-4.

Big Steve Bilko was no help to the Angels again last night. The muscle boy went hitless in five trips. Angel starter Dick Drott rapped a solo homer in the fifth for Los Angeles' first run and Basinski poked one for the Beavers in the eighth.

At Seattle, Schallock 10-8 gave up an unearned run in the first, then shut the door the rest of the way as he struck out six and walked six. The Rainiers got the one back in the second and then put it away with four runs in the third triggered by a pair of doubles by Joe Taylor and Bob Basicina.

Westlake Homers

Ageless knuckleballer Earl Harritt gave up just five hits to send the faltering Stars down to their fourth straight loss. Wally Westlake smashed his 11th homer of the year to get the Solons started in the second. Harritt lost a shutout in the eighth when Ramon Mejias doubled and Bill Hall chased him in with a single.

At San Francisco, the Seals chalked up five runs in the seventh to break a 4-4 tie. Larry DiPippo's three run double was the key blow, giving Bill Abernathie in relief of R. W. Smith his fourth win against three losses.

Third baseman Frank Malzone had started the Seals rolling with a bases-loaded double in the first and rang up four RBI's for the day.

San Diego Padres Plan New Park

San Diego—(U.P.)—Owners of the San Diego Padres have announced plans for construction of a $500,000 baseball park in Mission Valley.

President James B. Lane said work on the park was expected to start by Nov. 1 and the stadium, which will seat 5,000 persons, should be ready for the 1957 season.

RIZZUTO ON TV

New York—(U.P.)—Phil Rizzuto, New York Yankee shortstop, released last Saturday, will take over for the ailing Frankie Frisch this week end on two

SPORTS

NEW YORK GIANTS have signed 18-year-old Mike McCormick, 6 foot 2 inch Bakersfield, Cal., left-hander, to a $65,000 bonus contract. Mike was "most valuable player" in Hearst sandlot classic, in New York, last week. Mrs. Lou Gehrig presented him "Lou Gehrig" trophy. (International)

Stature Gained By San Diego

Phoenix—(U.P.)—San Diego gained stature as the team to beat in the National Women's Invitational Softball Tournament today on the basis of a 2 to 1 win over the Utah Shamrocks Wednesday.

San Diego, still unbeaten, play the Shamrocks again tonight. Winners' bracket teams have been playing best two out of three series.

In other games Wednesday night, Milwaukee dropped a 6 to 2 decision to Lake Oswego, Ore., but came back later to take the set with a 5 to 1 decision, and the Phoenix Queens won a losers bracket game from the Panthers, also of Phoenix, by a score of 10 to 2.

Lake Oswego and the Queens play a losers' bracket game tonight. A second game between San Diego and the Salt Lake City teams will be necessary if Utah wins the first game.

LAKE LICKS MARATHON SWIMMERS—Ten regular competitors, and five unauthorized entries, were defeated by Lake Ontario's icy cold water and strong currents in the $27,000 32-mile swim marathon. Grete Anderson of Downey, Calif. is shown here as she was pulled, exhausted, into her pilot boat. Last to give up was husky, Canadian-born Tom Park, 32, from Marineland, Calif. He was pulled from the 49-degree water after 10 hours and about 18 miles. Starting point was Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario with the finish line on the Toronto side.

local television shows, following New York Giant home games. Rizzuto will interview Roy Campanella Friday night and Pee-Wee Reese Sunday.

BACKUS WINS THROW
Tampere, Finland—(U.P.)—Bob Backus, America's leading hammer thrower, won his specialty with a throw of 59.04 meters 193 feet, 7 3/4 inches in an international track and field meet Wednesday. Grant Scruggs, an American now living in Finland, won the 110 meter dash in 11 seconds flat.

REDLEGS GIVE AUTOS
Cincinnati, Ohio—(U.P.)—The Cincinnati Redlegs will give away five automobiles to fans next week in appreciation for their support at the gate this season. The third-place Redlegs are expected to pass the million mark in paid home attendance some time this week for the first time in 80 years.

OPEN INVITATION TO THEFT
San Pedro, Calif.—(U.P.)—Horace Cotton told police he couldn't understand how burglars entered his home which he was on vacation and stole a box containing $15,875 in cash and war bonds. Officers found the freshly painted windows of the house wide open. Cotton said he had left them that way to "dry."

SHOEMAKER TWO UP
Chicago—(U.P.)—Willie Shoemaker, battling Willie Hartack for national riding honors, rode four winners at Washington Park Wednesday to move two-up. Shoemaker now has 266 victories for the year. Hartack, last year's champion with 417 triumphs, had only one winner.

Good Entry Likely for Drag Races

Strong contingents again are expected from Grants Pass, Klamath Falls, and Crescent City and Redding, Calif., to join local entries in the Southern Oregon Timing association's drag races Sunday at the Camp White strip.

Competition progressively got keener over the three previous events this summer, at least in some of the classes. Drivers have kept at tuning their cars for top performance. Monte Wray and Lou Wolfe, Ashland, had the top eliminator car last time out and reportedly are gunning to top 100 miles per hour for the first time this year.

Time trials in the meet start at 10 a.m. with first drags set for 1 p.m. No entries will be taken after 12 noon unless contestants have proof that they traveled a distance of greater than 150 miles to come to the meet.

Trophies Awarded
Trophies will go to all first place winners and to the top eliminators in cycle and auto contesting. National Hot Rod association rules, as usual, will be adhered to, with four classes for strictly stock automobiles.

Waiver releasing SOTA of responsibility in case of accident are required of all entrants and those for minors must be signed by parents or guardians.

Spectators are welcome to the strip seven miles north of Medford off Crater Lake highway in west Camp White. The drags have attracted as many as 2,000 fans and around 70 contestants in 15 classes.

State Fair To Offer Varied Entertainment; To Start Saturday

Salem—(U.P.)—Whether you're looking for cattle, culture or carnival fun, the Oregon State Fair opening here at 8 a.m. Saturday promises to provide more new attractions than at any time in its 90-year history.

That's the word of Fair Manager Leo Spitzbart who predicts an eight-day turnout of 400,000 persons with reasonably good weather. Radio-controlled parking will be provided for 18,000 cars.

There's more to the fair this year than pumpkins and cornstalks.

Exhibit Halls Jammed
Exhibit halls will be jammed with Oregon farm, home and industry displays including a show of $1 1/2 million in the latest farm and logging equipment, believed to be the largest display of its kind on the Pacific Coast.

In the livestock barns and exhibit halls, farmers, ranchers and townfolk will compete for more than $60,000 in premiums. Some 700 cash prizes will be offered in the expanded land products division alone.

Major entertainment will be:

1. The all-new Helene Hughes stage review at 8 p.m. nightly.
2. Resumption of the world championship combined rodeo and horse show at 8 p.m. nightly and at 1:30 p.m. Sunday and Monday.

3. Two harness and eight running races starting at 1:15 p.m. daily except Sunday.

Free midway acts of daring-do will include a motorcycle act 100 feet in the air at 1 and 10:15 p.m. daily and a balloon ascension and parachute jump daily at 6 p.m.

Spitzbart said three new permanent rides in operation would be a roller coaster, an auto scooter and an old mill. Television's "Mr. Talent" will conduct a talent show at 3 p.m. daily.

'Kitchen Queen' Feature
A popular feature of recent fairs will be the crowning of a "Queen of the Kitchen" who scores the most points in nearly 200 baking and food preservation classes.

The work of more than 500 Oregonians will be on display in the textile department. An outdoor garden and flower show will include lectures and demonstrations on flower arranging at 2 p.m. daily by flower expert Carl Starker.

New this year will be a display of novelties and hobby work, collection of oldtime steam engines and threshing machines and a baby burro named "Salem."

Mother Confesses Kidnaping Hoax; Tot Found on Road

Charlotte, N.C.—(U.P.)—Police charged a young mother Wednesday night with abandoning her incurably ill infant son along a muddy country roadside and spinning a false kidnaping tale which sent police in five states searching for a "narcotics ring."

Mrs. Mary Frances Roole, 25-year old Navy wife, was charged with assault and abandoning five-month old Raymond Poole. The child was found by a girl on her way to a church meeting. The baby was lying face down on the muddy roadside but was unharmed.

Taken To Hospital
Police said the baby was taken to a hospital where doctors told them he was suffering from cancer of the brain.

Mrs. Poole, who has two other children, touched off a frantic police search for her child and his fictitious kidnapers at 1 p.m. Wednesday when she telephoned authorities from her home in nearby Belmont. She said two men and a woman named Ruth Snider, of Oakland, Calif., took the baby from his crib because she refused to smuggle narcotics into the Charleston, S.C., Navy base for them.

Would Be Sorry
She said the Snider woman, who police now believe is nonexistent, told her she would be "sorry" about refusing to smuggle the narcotics.

When the baby was found about 6 p.m. by Diane Ross, 13, police resumed questioning Mrs. Poole.

Finally, Mrs. Poole confessed that her whole story was a hoax. She had told police that Mrs. Snider had a police record in Des Moines, Iowa, but police there said they had no record of the woman.

She was held in lieu of $4,000 bond.

No Further Reports Received on Family

No further information was available today on the condition of Joseph Materie, manager of the Montgomery Ward store in Medford, and his 8-year-old daughter, Nancy, who were injured Tuesday in an automobile accident at Woodland, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Materie and Nancy, who live at 213 Girard dr., were en route to Oakland, Calif., to attend a regional meeting of Montgomery Ward executives. According to reports received here, the Materie car struck another vehicle, which reportedly had run a stop sign. The Materie auto then struck a tree.

Materie, suffering from lacerations and a concussion, was reported in "fair" condition at the Woodland Clinic yesterday. Nancy sustained a broken leg and her condition was listed "fair to good." Mrs. Materie
