Youth Socials To Be Sponsored by Baptists

A series of youth socials following each of the Medford Senior High school football games is planned by the First Baptist church. The program will include games, Christian motion pictures, and a chili feed each week.

According to the Rev. Haddon Robinson, youth director at the church, these football parties will be open to students and players from both of the participating high schools. Many of the young people find that there is little that they can do after attending the games each week, and these socials are designed to meet this need.

The high school students will be encouraged to have a good time in a wholesome Christian manner," Mr. Robinson said. Each week different members of the congregation will be asked to serve as hosts and hostesses and to supply the large quantities of chili that will be needed.

Clothing and Bedding Drive Launched by Council of Churches

A major effort to enlist churches of the state in a clothing and bedding drive for overseas relief is being launched by the Church World Service committee of the Oregon Council of Churches. The project, involving over 900 churches, will open September 2 and close on World Wide Communion Sunday, October 7.

Cooperation is being given by Pope and Talbot, a number of trucking companies, and the Portland and Oakland, Calif., Stevedore companies. Pope and Talbot will supply shipping without cost, for churches with delivery in Oakland and shipping overseas. Trucking firms will transport the material south to Sacramento, Stockton or Oakland, for churches in other parts of Oregon, to be delivered by California trucking to Modesto for final disposition.

The McCamants will sail from New York Sept. 17. Mr. McCamant plans to do graduate work in the field of international relations at the University of Vienna in Austria. He is a graduate of Carleton college, Northfield, Minn., and Columbia university.
