

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mountjoy Beavens
(Landis-Shangle photo)

Beavens-Hart Service Held In Episcopal Church Here

St. Mark's Episcopal church was the setting August 25 of the wedding of Miss Ruth Ann Hart to Arthur Mountjoy Beavens. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Robert Charles Hart, Grant road, Central Point and the late Mr. Hart, and the bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. E. Arthur Beavens, Alhambra, Calif.

The Rev. Lloyd B. Thomas, retired rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church at Hood River, Ore., read the double-ring ceremony at four o'clock in the afternoon, and Floyd Hart Jr., gave his cousin in marriage. About 200 guests attended.

Mrs. James Shinn played the organ music, and Ed Thomas, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was vocal soloist. Arrangements of white gladioli decorated the church.

The bride's wedding gown of white silk taffeta was fashioned on simple princess lines with square cut neckline, short sleeves and very full skirt. It was worn with a matching pillbox head-dress with nylon net finger-veil and she carried a white prayer book and stephanotis centered with a white amazon lily.

Miss Sara Hart was her sister's maid-of-honor and other attendants were Miss Kaye Durno of Medford and Mrs. Wesley Jacobs, sorority sister of the bride from Portland. They wore frocks of shell pink ribbed faille matching on princess lines and fashioned with pillbox hats made like that worn by the bride. Their satin shoes were dyed red to match the nosegays of garnet roses which they carried.

Wesley Jacobs, Portland, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man for Mr. Beavens and Richard Jacobson, Roseburg, Larry Cooke, Springfield, both fraternity brothers and Glen Davenport, Altadena, and Lynn O'Brien Jr., San Marino, Calif., the bridegroom's cousins, were ushers.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a dress of seafoam green peau de soie with small matching hat, copper colored accessories and corsage of brown orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a frock of spiced beige peau de soie with matching hat and green orchid corsage.

The reception which followed was given by Mrs. Floyd Hart, aunt of the bride, in the garden of her home on Grant road. Assisting were Mrs. B. L. Lageson, Mrs. Justin Smith, Mrs. Lynn O'Brien, aunt of the bridegroom from San Marino, Calif.; Mrs. Robert Keiser, aunt of the bridegroom from Pasadena, Mrs. Dwight Findley, Mrs. Floyd Hart Jr., Miss Carlotta Keeble, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Glen Davenport, cousin of the bridegroom from Altadena, Mrs. Edwin Durno, Mrs. Rollin Rodolph, San Francisco; Mrs. Elsie Parker, Pasadena, aunt of the bride.

Job's Daughters Set Installation

Central Point—Bethel 38, International Order of Job's Daughters, will install officers on Friday, September 7, at 7:30 o'clock in the Central Point Masonic hall. Miss Marla Jean Abbott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. William Abbott of Central Point will be installed queen. Members of Crater chapter, Order of DeMolay, will assist with the coronation.

The installation, scheduled at an earlier date, had to be postponed due to the illness of Miss Abbott.

The ceremony is open to the public, and friends and relatives of the officers and members are invited to attend.

Officer Leaves For Lowry Base
First Lt. James Collins left Thursday for Lowry Air Force base where he is on duty with the USAF. Lieutenant Collins, who came to Medford for the wedding of his sister, Elizabeth, to Kent Bonney of Grants Pass, is chief of the turret system operator branch, Department of Flexible Gunnery, for the base.

Pair Wedded In Roseburg Church Rites

Roseburg—Miss Loretta N. Weseman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Weseman of Roseburg, became the bride of William H. Sims, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Sims, Medford, in a ceremony held Sunday, August 12, in the Presbyterian church, Roseburg.

The Rev. Newell Morgan of the First Christian church officiated at the 3 o'clock ceremony witnessed by 125 relatives and friends. The church was decorated with white gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length satin gown fashioned with white lace overskirt with scalloped hemline. Her veil was a gift of a school friend and came from Germany. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Barbara McClanahan, cousin of the bride from Oakland, Calif., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jean Godknecht, Washington, D. C.; and Miss June Wilkey, San Jose, Calif. Candlelighters were Mrs. Bill True and Mrs. Harold McCall. The bride's attendants wore street-length dresses of blue cotton and carried white asters with white streamers.

Henry Stach of Oakridge was best man and Kenneth Redd, Grants Pass, Douglas Hayes, Hal McCall, and George Weseman, brother of the bride, from Portland, ushered.

Mrs. Richard Hoskins was organist and Miss Sandra Melba of Stockton, Calif., was vocal soloist.

Following the ceremony a reception was held. Mrs. Ray Sims and Mrs. Earl Weseman, aunt of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. Dean McClanahan, aunt of the bride, poured the coffee while Mrs. Carolyn Hunt presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Louis Voge of Redding, Calif., was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Nadine DeKalb and Mrs. Glenda Biles were in charge of the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Weseman wore a pink dress with a lavender accessories. Mrs. Sims chose a gray print dress with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white gladioli and pink carnations.

For her traveling attire the bride wore a blue silk suit with white accessories. The newly weds are now at home in Roseburg after a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.

The bride, who was graduated from Roseburg High school and attended the University of Oregon, is employed as a bookkeeper for the Commercial Abstract company. The bridegroom, who attended Grants Pass High school and Oregon State college, is assistant manager of Trowbridge Electric company in Roseburg.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ren Sims and family of Myrtle Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sims and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Trowbridge and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Sims, all of Medford and Mrs. Harold Flynn and family from Central Point.

Church Ceremony
Marries Couple
In California
Yreka, Calif.—Mrs. Lola Cunningham and Kenneth Northey were married in a ceremony held August 25 at 9:30 o'clock in the morning at the St. Joseph's Catholic church in Yreka. Father McTague officiated at the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Paudols of Central Point now residing in Yreka and Montague, Calif. Mr. Northey is the son of Mrs. Stella Northey of Kallispell, Mont. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur St. Germain, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, attended the couple.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held in the banquet room of the Yreka Inn for close members of the families.

Guests who attended the breakfast included Danny and Shawna Cunningham, children of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John Paudols, Mr. and Mrs. St. Germain and Terry Lee, Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts, and Gary and Johnny, all of Central Point, and now residing in Yreka and Montague where the family moves during the logging season.

Mr. Northey is employed by the Reed Cox Logging company. The couple are now living in Montague.

Guests Here
Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Garrett, Santa Rosa, Calif., are visiting Mr. Garrett's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Geary Garrett, Coker-Butte road, Medford. They plan to spend the week end here.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. French
(—Landis-Shangle photo)

Episcopal Church Scene Of French-Simonson Rites

Lavender and white gladioli decorated St. Mark's Episcopal church Friday, August 24, for the 8 o'clock evening wedding of Miss Betty Norene Simonson to William E. French. The Rev. Lloyd B. Thomas, retired rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church at Hood River, officiated at the double ring ceremony before 100 relatives and guests.

Miss Simonson is the daughter of Mrs. Bernice Simonson, 522 Haven street. Mr. French is the son of W. P. French and has made his home with his grandmother, Mrs. Sophie French, 806 West Main street.

The bride wore an ankle length gown of white nylon lace over bridal satin with lace bolero. Her fingertip length veil was edged with lace and she wore white brocade pumps. Her bouquet was of pink and white shattered carnations encircling a white orchid with white satin streamers. She was given in marriage by her brother, Richard Simonson.

Miss Phyllis Watkins was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Dorene Fisher and Miss Krista Stelle. Miss Watkins' dress was yellow chiffon. Miss Fisher's dress was pink nylon net while Miss Stelle wore lavender chiffon. They each carried bouquets of shattered carnations with satin streamers which matched their dresses as did their head bands and brocade pumps.

Best man was Kenneth Leek; Don Hamlin and Richard Souza acted as the groomsmen.

Mrs. Ernest Conrad played the organ wedding music and accompanied Miss Pat Medley, vocal soloist.

Following the ceremony a reception was given in the church reception room by the bride's mother. The room was decorated with pink and white gladioli.

Miss Mary Kay White served the cake and Miss Donna Holloway presided at the punch bowl. Miss Pat Medley was in charge of the guest book with Miss Marilyn Olson at the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Simonson wore a peacock blue dress with black accessories. Mrs. Sophie French, grandmother of the bridegroom, chose a suit of black velvet with white accessories. Mrs. W. P. French wore a pink linen suit with black accessories. Their flowers were gardenia corsages.

The bride wore a beige suit with brown accents and white accessories for her traveling attire. The couple will be at home at 16 North Orange street after September 9 when they will return from a wedding trip to Yellowstone National park.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Drinkwater, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drinkwater, Lakeview; and Mr. and Mrs. Dee Nelson, Bend, aunts and uncles of the bride.

Miss Meeker, Jesse Taylor Wed in East

From New York City comes news of the wedding of Miss Eleanor Meeker, formerly of Medford, to Jesse I. Taylor Jr., West Orange, N.J. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Clarence A. Meeker, who now makes her home in New York City, and the late Mayor Meeker of Medford.

The ceremony took place August 22 at 4:30 o'clock in the chapel of Christ Methodist church, New York City. Dr. Arthur Goodhand, associate to the pastor, read the double-ring ceremony in the absence of Dr. Ralph Sackman, who is in Scotland.

The bride wore a gown of ivory silk taffeta designed on simple princess lines with long sleeves, high neck and bouffant skirt fashioned with a chapel length train. Her short veil, bought in Brussels, was held by a pearl tiara. She carried a white tulle bouquet covered with small pink roses and stephanotis.

Miss Irene Meerbach was maid-of-honor. She wore a short silk organza frock of periwinkle blue fashioned on princess lines with full skirt and carried a nosegay of blue, white and pink flowers. Her head covering was a circlet of flowers.

Robert Taylor was best man for his brother and ushers were Jacques Tucker and Richard Howarth.

The bride's mother wore a brown silk taffeta afternoon dress with picture hat of brown velvet trimmed with brown roses. Her corsage was of carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue silk faille afternoon dress with large blue velvet hat and carnation corsage.

The reception was held in Phillips hall of the church. Baskets of large white dahlias and pink gladioli decorated the buffet tables.

The newlyweds will live in Belvidere, N.J., where the bridegroom will teach physical education and be a member of the coaching staff of a Belvidere high school.

The bride attended Willamette university, Salem, where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority, and was graduated from Mount Union college, Alliance, Ohio, in 1933. She received her master's degree in fine arts at Columbia university in 1935. She taught at Beard school, Orange, N.J., last year, and took a course in Columbia Teachers' college this summer.

Mr. Taylor was graduated in 1932 from Rutgers university, where he was a member of Zeta Psi fraternity. He served in the United States Air Force as a first lieutenant, and was assigned to duty in Tokyo from 1932-34. He received his master's degree in education at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Wycoff, Ashland. Mrs. Wycoff is a cousin of Clarence Meeker, and the couple went east to visit their son, Alfred, who is pastor of Plymouth Congregational church in Cliffside Park, N.J., and attend the wedding.

The Jolly Stitches club will meet at the home of Mrs. Homer Bringle, 100 South Orange, Friday, September 7, for a dessert luncheon at 1 p.m.

Gold Hill Lodge To Hold Meeting

Gold Hill—First meeting of the fall season of Amethyst Rebekah lodge, Gold Hill, will be held Wednesday, September 5, at 8 p.m.

The last meeting of the lodge was held July 16 when Mrs. Ray Gibbs, president of the Rebekah assembly from Oceanside, visited the area. After the meeting a dinner was held at the Dandelion honoring Mrs. Gibbs. Later that evening the degree staff, headed by Mrs. Paul Thompson, initiated a candidate.

The meeting closed after a talk by Mrs. Gibbs.

Visitors Leave

Mrs. Ruth Brown and Mrs. Wesley Davis and three children, Wesley Jr., Carolyn and Dennis, all of Walnut Creek, Calif., were guests of the women's father, E. F. Archer, 3950 Jacksonville highway. Accompanying the group was Mrs. Brown's son, Chris, who spent the summer here with relatives.

The visitors also spent time with Mrs. Don Bradley and with their brother, Almon Archer, Arnold lane.

Gardeners Plan Annual Luncheon

With the arrival of September Medford organizations are ending the summer vacation and resuming meeting schedules. Among the groups planning first fall sessions this week is Medford Garden club, which will meet Thursday, September 6 at the Jackson county court house, Main and Oakdale avenue.

A committee will furnish the annual herb covered dish luncheon at 12:30 o'clock. Members are asked to take their own table service; rolls and coffee will be provided.

Mrs. Otto Nagel, Eagle Point, will speak on herbs at the meeting following the luncheon. Reports on the recent state convention of garden clubs will be given by the two delegates, Mrs. L. R. Thomas and Mrs. L. P. Rentschler.

Student Leaves

Miss Linda Lindgren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Lindgren, 34 North Peach street, has left for Battleground, Wash., where she will enter Columbia academy as a high school student.

YOU'LL FIND WHAT'S

Best for Brides

AT SOUTHERN OREGON'S
FINEST SILVERSMITHS!

Towle
STERLING

When selecting your sterling... when choosing a distinctive gift... see our complete collection of beautiful TOWLE solid silver flatware and holloware. Let us help you make a suitable selection in the pattern of her choice, or add to her collection of place settings or serving pieces.

6-Pc. Place Settings, from $29.75
Teaspoons, from $3.75
Serving Pieces, from $4.25

A. TOWLE'S CONTOUR B. TOWLE'S KING RICHARD C. TOWLE'S SILVER FLUTES D. TOWLE'S OLD MASTER E. TOWLE'S SILVER SPRAY F. TOWLE'S CRAFTSMAN

LAWRENCE'S

YOUR SILVER STORE
Specializing in Fine Diamonds and Watches, Tool
130 E. MAIN — EST. 1908

Saddle Oxford

You Are Right If They're Buster
Browns

We have them!
Super Smart Saddles
A No. 1 Back to School
Shoe.
● All over white buck
● All over white elk
● Pearl and tan elk

$7.95

AAA to C
3 1/2 to 10

Also Available at...
Park View Dept. Store,
Ashland; Buster Brown
Shoe Store, Grants Pass

Buster Brown Shoe Store
15 South Central
Fluhrer Building

BUSH'S... in Medford

QUALITY - STYLE - SERVICE

Professional Interior Decorating

To Suit Your Purse

BUSH HOME FURNISHINGS

Budget Terms Just Past
The BIG Y Open Wed. Eves.