back Dick McLaughlin, end Mike Stearns, center Dick Swinney, halfback Eldon Francis and tackle Larry Cranston. The Black Tornado opens its season here on Friday, Sept. 7, against Jefferson high of Portland.

Bernabe Vasquez Stops Jim Soo
Washington—(U.P.)—Mexican lightweight champion Bernabe (Baby) Vasquez pocketed a smashing victory over previously unbeaten Jimmy Soo of Philadelphia.

Soo's string of 34 wins ended Friday night under a flurry of lefts and rights. The tough Mexican TKO'd Soo in 1:32 of the sixth round.

The Mexican lightweight, who weighed in at 135 pounds, put Soo on the canvas with a fast flurry in the sixth. Soo, bleeding from the nose and mouth, got to his feet but Referee Marty Gallagher stopped it.

FEAMSTER WITH COLTS
Westminster, Md.—(U.P.)—Tom Feamster, 6-foot, 7-inch, 260-pound end who played college football at Florida State and William and Mary, joined the Baltimore Colts following his release by the Los Angeles Rams.

Writer Predicts Oklahoma Will Retain Top Grid Spot

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
New York—(U.P.)—The solid gold sully still has the silken fringe on top so the gridiron experts are predicting today Oklahoma will continue its amazing run and pick up another national gridiron championship this fall.

The Sooners may well have their greatest team with 27 lettermen back to protect their mark of 30 victories in a row. Once past Notre Dame, in the fifth game of the season, Oklahoma should go all the way.

Nationally, it stacks up like this:
1. Oklahoma; 2. Michigan State; 3. Notre Dame; 4. Ohio State; 5. Army; 6. TCU; 7. Maryland; 8. Stanford; 9. Georgia Tech; and 10. Pittsburgh.

The Big 10, as usual, expects a dog fight. Michigan State, with 25 lettermen headed by Clarence Peaks and Walt Kowalczyk, apparently has the firepower to get past an Ohio State eleven which will feel the loss of Howard Hop-along Cassidy, ever-threatening Michigan and dark-horse Illinois.

In the east, Army appears the boss among the Independents with a stiff challenge from Pitt, Syracuse, Holy Cross, Colgate and Penn State. The Ivy League really becomes a round-robin group and Yale, with 33 lettermen returning, figures to outlast Cornell and Princeton.

Down in Dixie Georgia Tech in the Southeastern Conference, West Virginia in the Southern Conference, Maryland in the Atlantic Coast Conference and Miami among the Independents.

The Ramblin' Wreck of Georgia Tech will find its top opposition in Mississippi, Vanderbilt and Auburn. Maryland has enough holdovers to win the Atlantic

Records Fall At Salt Flats

Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah—(U.P.)—Seven new records, four of them by California drivers were established Friday as records continued to tumble in the Bonneville Salt Flats speed trials.

While seven records were being broken the only disappointing performance at this famed saline speed course involved the streamlined Kenz-Leslie three-engine racer which was put out of racing by a broken drive shaft. The Kenz-Leslie will be unable to race again during the speed runs. It had the top time of the meet so far with a speed of 261 mph.

Johnny Allen of Los Angeles set another mark in the motorcycle division by driving his 500 C. C. Triumph 102.02 mph over a two-way flying mile average.

Other Californians setting two way flying mile records included Tom Ruddy of Los Angeles, who set a Class C roadster record by running his 1927 Ford with an Ardun engine at 200 mph.

In addition, Carrol Thompson of Sherman Oaks, Calif., and Ron Secor of El Monte, Calif., picked up records. Thompson drove his Class C roadster 1929 Ford with Ardun engine at 145.88 mph.

There seems to be a general feeling that the recent this year will be on power—and for sheer power, precision and perfection, apparently no team is going to touch the Oklahoma Sooners.

Portland Wins 3rd From Angels
By UNITED PRESS
The Portland Beavers are making a surprise rush at third place in the Pacific Coast league as the fading Hollywood Stars continue to lose ground. A nd Jack Littrell and Frank Carwell, a pair of fence busters who seem to take turns winning ball games, are triggering the Beaver move.

It was Carswell Friday night blasting a grand-slam home run to lead Portland to its third straight win over the league-leading Los Angeles Angels and moving the Beavers to within 1 1/2 games of third spot.

The Beavers won it 7-3.

Kabler Faces Porritt, DeVoe Meets Ihlanfeldt in SO Golf Semi-Finals

Sue DeVoe, Medford, medalist and 1934 champion, scuffles Mrs. Robert Ihlanfeldt, Seattle, stand-out northwest linkswoman, and Carole Jo Kabler, Sutherlin, the defending titleholder, in a s h e s with Elaine Porritt, Eugene, reigning Oregon Golf association junior champion, today in women's semi-finals of the Southern Oregon Golf tournament at Rogue Valley Country club.

The winners will enter 36-hole championship finals on Monday, Labor day.

The four scored victories Friday in quarter-finals and rested yesterday. Women in all flights had a holiday Saturday.

Miss DeVoe and Mrs. Ihlanfeldt triumphed with considerable ease on Friday while Miss Kabler and Miss Porritt each had a rough battle. Sue subdued Mrs. W. W. Davies, Redding, Calif., seven times Southern Oregon champ, 5 and 4. Mrs. Ihlanfeldt took her match 7 and 5 from Mrs. Marge Ffills, Salt Lake City, Utah amateur champion.

Hammond Makes Bid
Miss Kabler, 1935 national junior and Oregon Golf association, had a fight on her hands all the way in nicking Mrs. Maxine Hammond, Medford, 1 up. Miss Porritt went 20 holes to bump Mollie Murphy, Waverley, Portland.

Both DeVoe and Ihlanfeldt were even par with 38s for the first nine of their tussles. Miss DeVoe was 4 up at the turn and Mrs. Ihlanfeldt 6 up. Sue lost 13 when she double bogied on 14 with a sparkling eagle three to be even par for the encounter.

Carole Jo had 2 up leads three times on Mrs. Hammond. The Rogue Valley player took the 15th hole with a par to cut the defender's edge to 1 up. Remaining three greens were halved but Mrs. Hammond came close to winning both No. 16 and 17. She putted on 16 with the pin in the hole. The ball hit the pole and hopped back. On 17 a putt was just short of going in. Putting trouble plagued Miss Kabler. The champ had a match play 79 card of 79 but she picked up on No. 19 when her ball went into the trees. Mrs. Hammond card was 81 for the tiff.

Birdie on 20th
A birdie gave Miss Porritt her match on the second extra hole. The two misses went into 18 all even. Miss Murphy scuffed her drive but Miss Porritt missed her chance to win without a play-off by three putts. Her first putt off the apron of the green rolled only a few feet. The net rolled up the cup. And the two young players halved again. Ladies title flight matches are set for a 9-20 a.m. tee off time today. The two gaining the finals will go out at 8:19 a.m. Monday on the first 18-hole lap of a 36-hole match.

Women's play in the Southern Oregon tourney has taken on increased significance over the years. First ladies' action in the post war period was medal play.

It was switched to match play several seasons back. This year's title field with some of the top-notch linkswomen of the north-west competing has been considered the best in tournament history.

Players from Medford unless otherwise noted.
