Chicago Judge Named Candidate For Demo Governor of Illinois

Springfield, Ill. — (U.P.) — A Chicago judge has climbed out of almost political obscurity to become the Democratic party's candidate for governor of Illinois.

Superior Court Judge Richard B. Austin was named by the Democratic State Central committee Tuesday to fill the vacancy created last week by the resignation of Cook County (Chicago) Treasurer Herbert C. Paschen.

The 54-year-old jurist promised a vigorous campaign against his opponent, Republican Gov. William G. Stratton.

Austin, however, could run into a challenge today from the state electoral board, all Republicans, was to meet to certify the ballot. Certification of candidates must be filed with loyalty oaths by 3 p.m. (EDT).

Could Rule Against

Technically, the board could rule against the withdrawal of Paschen since the period for getting out of any race passed last month. Such a ruling, however, could be challenged in the courts and was believed unlikely.

President Extends Best Wishes to Jews

Washington — (U.P.) — President Eisenhower today extended best wishes and cordial greetings to American Jews on Rosh Hashana, the Jewish new year.

The President said in a special holiday message that Jews have contributed greatly to the nation's knowledge, skills and culture in peace and war.

Rosh Hashana, the President said, is "significant to every American, for, in the deepest spiritual sense, we are all of the seed of Abraham and Isaac." He said, "our moral code, the ideals that animate us, the faith in God that strengthens us—all these were most clearly and most inspiringly proclaimed many centuries ago by men of Jewish blood."

ADJUTANT NOT INVITED

Clinton, Tenn. — (U.P.) — Tennessee Adjutant General Joe Henry, who led National Guard troops into Clinton to stop racial demonstrations, replied today to a reporter who asked if anything was going on in nearby Oliver Springs. "Nothing to which I've been invited,"

In Los Angeles, Adlai E. Stevenson—Democratic presidential candidate—said Austin was one of several "splendid nominees" he held party leaders he thought were "highly qualified" for the candidacy.

"I'm confident that he (Austin) will make a strong candidate and will make a winning race," Stevenson said.

Selection a Compromise

Austin is practically unknown outside Chicago, but apparently represented a compromise between the power Chicago faction of the party and downstate leaders. It had been reported some of the downstate leaders were planning to rebel against any candidate closely identified with Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic presidential candidate.

Stevenson and Mayor Richard J. Daley, "boss" of the strong Chicago machine, were key men behind the central committee's choice.

They had conferred several times on prospective candidates since Paschen resigned following charges about a $29,000 employees' "welfare fund" in his office. Federal and county grand juries are investigating charges that banks kicked into the fund to receive deposits of county money and that the fund was used for political purposes.

Veterans Urged to Use Absentee Vote

Salem — (U.P.) — Veterans were urged by Gov. Elmo Smith today to take advantage of the state's new and easy absentee voting law for casting votes in the November election.

David O'Hara, state elections chief, said it is not necessary for servicemen to register to vote. Instead, members of the armed forces may fill out a federal form available at military posts and forward it to the secretary of state's office.

The forms are then sent to county clerks who will forward ballots to servicemen early in October. Ballots must be marked and back to the county clerk at least five days prior to the election, O'Hara said.

Tentative Agreement Heads Off Strike

Portland — (U.P.) — A tentative agreement granting an across the board wage hike of 10 cents an hour appeared today to have headed off a threatened strike against Tualatin Valley Buses, Inc.

The agreement, reached yesterday, must be approved by the members of the Motor Coach Employees Union local before it becomes effective.

The company serves the southwest fringe area of Portland.

The new pact would grant a 5 cent hourly pay boost effective Sept. 15 and an additional 5 cent boost Oct. 1. This would establish a new base scale of $1.85 per hour.

SEEK HARD LUCK DRIVER

Hattiesburg, Miss. — (U.P.) — Police tried today to find the unfortunate motorist who ran out of gas at a nearby community and had to abandon his car. In the back seat they found a pint of moonshine whiskey.

Stella — He goaded me into adultery.

Frank — I lied to get reassurance.

Stella — Frank and I were married just before he went into the Army, and when he left, he insisted that we have an agreement that we were free of each other until he came back. I objected to the idea as wrong, but he was determined to go through with it, insisting that unless we agreed in advance, we would have recriminations and resentments afterward.

Although I agreed to it under pressure, I really had no intention of taking any liberties with men. I also hoped that the whole thing was just a pose with him and that he would do nothing for which I would have to blame him.

His second letter, however, told of an act of unfaithfulness, and he kept writing about going out with the boys, picking up girls and having intimate relations with them. Also, he kept demanding that I write him about my "affairs." When I wrote him to deny that I was taking any liberties and to express the thought that he was making up stories just to keep up a pose, he wrote me an abusive letter and sent me a girl's picture which she had autographed for him with a lewd comment.

That enraged me so much, I actually invited a man to make love to me and then wrote my husband about that. Now that he is back from the service, he argues that I was right in saying that he had merely been posing with his accounts, and he demands that I give him a divorce.

Frank — It was Stella's idea that we be married before I went into the service. I wanted to be sure of her, and I told her my stories, hoping that she would argue with me and reassure me, but she did not want to marry in the first place, and I know I can never trust her.

The Council's Stella's defense for making such an indecent agreement, no matter what the pressure, is a very weak one. Nor does her sense of indigna-

Governor Says Adlai Has Good Chance

Lansing — (U.P.) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams predicted today Democratic presidential nominee Adlai E. Stevenson has a good chance of carrying Michigan in the November election.

Williams, who accompanied Stevenson on a Labor Day jaunt through the state, said the nominee "certainly was out shaking hands."

"He beat me to a handshake on several occasions," the governor said.
