

Lincoln-Douglas Style Debate Seen In Sharp Barbs

New York — (AP) — Sharp barbs were exchanged by Sen. William F. Knowland and Gov. Averell Harriman Wednesday night in a television revival of the Lincoln-Douglas style of debates of 100 years ago.

The Senate minority leader from California and the New York governor faced one another by remote control. The governor was in New York, Knowland in Columbus, Ohio, where he had gone to address the Republican state convention.

In debate style, the Democratic governor and the Republican senator each had one minute to open, four minutes for rebuttal, then three minutes for counter-rebuttal and 90 seconds for summations.

Fires First

Harriman fired off the first salvo by charging President Eisenhower has failed to take a strong stand in the Suez crisis and that by so doing, he has made it possible for the Kremlin to enter the Middle East and influence Egypt in its handling of the Suez seizure.

He said that former President Truman, on the other hand, had stopped the Russians from entering the Middle East.

Knowland replied that under "the New Deal," 87 million persons a year were weaned behind the Iron Curtain, while only 3 million a year have been lost to the Communists under Eisenhower.

The California senator claimed the nation now has unprecedented prosperity and the national budget is $10 billion less than the last Truman budget.

Harriman said Mr. Eisenhower was renominated at the Republican Convention because he "surrendered to the Old Guard," which opposed him in 1952.

Pinball Machines Given to Hospital

Portland — (AP) — Portland pinball operators have donated about 50 of their outlawed machines to the Mental Health Association of Oregon for the use of patients at Oregon's state hospitals.

The machines were presented yesterday by Stan Terry on behalf of the Coin Machine Association of Oregon.

In accepting the gift, Melvin Murphy, executive director of the Mental Health Association, said:

"According to our observations, pinball games require both skill and co-ordination. They are fun to play, interest-maintaining and therefore highly desirable as therapy aids. We are most grateful for the gift."

The machines will, of course, be played for amusement only and the patients will not have to insert coins to play them.

Lundeen Faces New Trial in Eugene

Eugene — (AP) — Attorney Ernest C. Lundeen will get a new trial on charges against him that he accepted stolen money in exchange for a legal fee.

Jurors, after deliberating for nearly nine hours, reported to Circuit Judge Dal King shortly after 10 p.m., yesterday that they could not reach agreement on a verdict and were hopelessly deadlocked.

Meanwhile, Lundeen's second trial, on a charge of larceny by bailer involving the money of a penitentiary inmate, was under way.

Shortly after the first jury retired to try to reach a decision on the first charge, a second jury of six men and six women was quickly impaneled and the state called Moses Moody, 39-year-old convict, to the stand.

Charges against Lundeen are in connection with allegations made by Moody, who has confessed taking part in the 1953 holdup of the Amazon market here.

Salem Man Pinned Under Hay Elevator

Kenneth C. Cook suffered fractures of both legs along with head, face and thigh injuries when the 40-foot-high structure gave way on the farm at Fairview home here.

Cook had been employed at the home just eight days.
