Higher Stocks Paced By Railroad Rises

New York—(U.P.)—Railroads, long the market laggards, got up a full head of steam today and paced stocks higher. The rise in the railroad group injected a note of optimism into the market. Other groups followed the rails higher, although prices near the close were below the day's highs. Atlantic Coast Line and New York Central sparked the rise, both gaining more than a point. An increase in railroad carloadings and forecasts of increased business ahead helped the rails, which have been chugging along behind the rest of the market for months.

The oils inched ahead cautiously on growing hopes that a peaceful solution will be found to the knotty Suez problem. Royal Dutch was up a major fraction on stock split rumors. Standard of New Jersey firmed, along with Texas Co., Phillips, Panhandle Oil and Gulf.

Bethlehem Steel paced its group with a rise of more than 2. Dow-Jones averages: 30 industrials 500.32, up 0.63; 20 railroads 160.19, up 3.44; 15 utilities 68.03; off 0.12, and 65 stocks 175.77, up 0.93.

Sales today were about 2,110,000 shares compared with 2 million shares Thursday.
