Presbyterian Service Weds Miss Huson, Douglas Wall

An event of Friday, September 7, was the wedding of Miss Laura Mae Huson to Douglas Oliver Wall at First Presbyterian church in this city. Dr. D. Kirkland West read the ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening, and the reception which followed was at the church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darell F. Huson, 45 Lindley street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wall, Seattle. Mr. Huson is finance officer for the city of Medford.

September 7 was chosen for the wedding since it is Mrs. Huson's birthday and since the couple became engaged on that date a year ago.

The bride's wedding gown was of lace and net with long-sleeved lace bodice and a full, long skirt with insets of lace. Her veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and baby breath. Her necklace of gold and pearls was a gift from the bridegroom and she also wore an 80-year-old heirloom ring, cross-shaped and set with diamonds, which was loaned to her by the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Lyle F. Morrison, Huntington Park, Calif. Mr. Huson escorted his daughter to the church altar and gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Kenneth Brown was her sister's matron-of-honor. She wore a coral colored crystalette dress with brown and gold spider chrysanthemums and a bandeau of flowers on her hair.

Bridesmaids were Miss Rosalind Somers, Portland, Miss Connie Clark and Miss Ann Denman, Medford, all three sorority sisters of the bride. Their blue ballerina gowns were of crystalette and they carried cascades of pink and white asters. Their headbands were of matching asters.

Miss Darelyn Huson, junior bridesmaid, and little Nancy Garhart, flower girl, wore white dresses with headbands of blossoms. The junior bridesmaid carried pink and white asters and Nancy carried a basket filled with petals. All the attendants wore pearl necklaces.

Miss Nancy Lee, Portland, and Miss Lynn Schrock, Bend, sorority sisters of the bride, lighted the candles.

The bride's mother wore a frock of beige with white embroidered design with white accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds. Mrs. Morrison, who represented the bridegroom's mother at the wedding, wore a dress of dark blue silk and her flowers were white rosebuds.

Dave Valentine, Seattle, was best man for Mr. Wall and seating the guests were Kenneth Brown, brother-in-law of the bride, Jim Jones, San Bruno, Calif., and Dale Patton, McMinnville, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom, and Jim Wall, Seattle, a cousin.

Mrs. Charles Champlin was soloist and the bride's uncle, Dr. Byron Arnold of Los Angeles, was organist.

Mrs. Theodore M. Garhart and Mrs. W. I. Burhen, sister of the bridegroom from Kirkland, Wash., cut theh wedding cake and pouring were Mrs. J. J. Patton, Mrs. Lawrence Buonocore, Mrs. Andrew Beman and Mrs. Frances Willette. Miss Janet Dempster took charge of the guest book. Also assisting with the reception were Miss Angela Cesario, Miss Nancy Houston and Miss Merrilyn Hague sorority sisters of the bride.

The church decorations, arranged by Mrs. C. B. Cordy, were of pink dahlias and greenery and candelabra held lighted tapers. The pew bouquets were of pink asters and baby breath.

Mrs. Flossie Smith, family friend from Monrovia, Calif., decorated the wedding cake. It was encircled with pink carnations, and the other table appointments were silver and white ribbon held with clusters of lily-of-the-valley.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon at resorts on the Rogue river and are now living at 2832 S. E. Oak street, Portland. For traveling Mrs. Wall wore a suit of coral color with white accessories and white carnation corsage.

The bride attended Willamette university for the past three years, majoring in sociology, and is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. This summer she was city park playground supervisor and life guard for the wading pools. Mr. Wall, a graduate of Willamette university, is a past president of Phi Delta Theta fraternity and majored in economics. He is employed by the Firestone company as a college trainee and in March will enter the United States Air Force as a second lieutenant.

Here for the wedding were the bridegroom's father and aunt; Dr. and Mrs. W. K. Burhen, Kirkland, Wash., his brother-in-law and sister and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall, San Marino, Calif.

Also among the wedding guests was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ina Huson of Medford.

The rehearsal dinner was held Thursday night at the Huson home, with 30 attending.

Miss Trowbridge Is Honored Guest

Miss Tanya Trowbridge, whose wedding to James Shoemaker is set for late October, was honored at a luncheon September 8. It was was given at the home of Mrs. Edwin R. Durno, 2512 East Main street, with Mrs. Glenn L. Jackson and Mrs. Justin Smith as assisting hostesses.

About 30 guests attended.

The luncheon table was centered with a pink umbrella in the shower theme, and pink roses.

The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben J. Trowbridge, 1625 East Main street. Her fiance is a son of Colonel and Mrs. Paul S. Shoemaker. Both young people attended Arizona State university at Tempe last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Eldon Stewart

Stewart-Charley Marriage Rites Held in Eugene Home

Eagle Point — Of interest to many in Jackson county will be news of the wedding of Miss Charmayne Lea Charley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland M. Charley, Brownsboro, to Conrad Eldon Stewart of Eugene. He is a son of Mrs. Clarence Stewart, Eugene, and the late Mr. Stewart.

The marriage ceremony was held Saturday, September 8, at the home of Dr. Wesley Goodson Nicholson, pastor of the Eugene Congregational church, and Mrs. Nicholson. Dr. Nicholson read the double-ring service at 11 o'clock in the morning, with only family members and close friends present, and a reception followed.

Mr. Charley gave his daughter in marriage. Her wedding gown was of white spun silk designed princess style with cap sleeves and a street-length bouffant skirt with bow bustle in back. Her shoulder-length veil, which was part of her mother's wedding veil, was held by a cap of iridescent sequins. She carried pink carnations and red rosebuds on a white Bible which belonged to the bridegroom's mother.

For the traditional "something blue" she wore a garter loaned by Mrs. Gary Wilson, Eugene, which has been worn by many brides.

Mrs. Robert Talbott, Phoenix, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a pink nylon flocked dress with white cap hat trimmed in rhinestones and also carried pink carnations and red rosebuds.

Clarence Stewart, Eugene, was best man for his brother.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a blue lace dress with white beaver hat and blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a dark grey silk faille dress with white felt hat and black accessories. Both wore red rosebud corsages.

For the reception, given by the bride's parents, Mrs. Clayton Charley, Medford, poured, and Mrs. Wayne Andrus, Eugene, took charge of the bride's book. Mrs. Gary Wilson, Eugene, served the wedding cake. White tapers and dahlias decorated the lace-covered table from which the wedding refreshments were served. Spider dahlias in fall colors and white candles provided a setting for the wedding ceremony, heid in front of the living room fireplace.

Preceding the wedding ceremony the bride's parents were hosts for a breakfast at the Hotel Osborne for out-of-town guests. Pre-nuptial parties given for the bride included showers, with Mrs. Lloyd Storie, Eugene, as hostess for one and Mrs. John Hunt, Springfield, giving another.

The newlyweds traveled to Yellowstone National park for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a blue sheath dress and beige accessories. They will be at home at 97 West 36th street in Eugene after September 23. The bride attended the University of Oregon after graduation from Eagle Point High school and is a member of Delta Delta sorority. She is employed in the Eugene branch, First National bank. Mr. Stewart was graduated from Eugene High school and served in Korea with the Army. He is with the Eugene fire department.

Attending the wedding were the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Knight, Redwood City, Calif., her uncle, Claus C. Charley, Brownsboro; her cousins, Hurst Charley, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Charley, Medford, and Robert Talbott, Phoenix.

The bride is a member of one of the oldest families in southern Oregon. Her great grandfather, Henry R. Brown, took up a donation land claim in 1852 and the community of Brownsboro is named for him. The bride's uncle, George B. Brown, still lives at the family homesite and her parents live on a portion of the original land claim.

Tell Engagement Of Miss McGee To William Smith

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. William McGee of Central Point announce the engagement of their daughter, Loretta Anne, to William H. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ransen Smith of Hilt, Calif.

Miss McGee is a 1956 graduate of Crater High school. Mr. Smith is a graduate of Yreka High school.

No dates has been set for the wedding.

Luncheon Club To Meet Thursday

Thursday Luncheon club will meet September 20, at 1 p.m. for dessert at the home of Mrs. Holly Michael, 925 West Thirteenth street.

Chapel Rites On Saturday Wed Couple

Miss Betty C. Duncan, daughter of Mrs. Herman L. Duncan Sr., became the bride of Maurice L. Carlson in a ceremony held Saturday, September 8, at Meeker Memorial Chapel of First Methodist church.

The double ring service was read by the Rev. George A. Trobough at seven o'clock in the evening in the presence of members of the families.

The bride wore a suit of navy blue wool crepe with blouse of light blue matching the jacket lining. Her hat was fashioned of light blue velvet pansies and she wore a corsage of white baby orchids.

Herman L. Duncan Jr. gave his sister in marriage, and Mrs. Duncan was matron of honor for her sister-in-law. She wore a charcoal gray check suit. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Howard Carlson was best man for his brother.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Jr. entertained the wedding party at dinner at Rogue Valley Country Club.

Guests from out of town for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carlson and son Howard of Redmond, Wash., parents and brother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. John Peckenpaugh of Aurora, Wash., sister and brother-in-law of the groom.

After the dinner the newly wedded couple left on an extended wedding trip. They will make their home in Medford after the end of the month.

Engagement News Told Last Week

Central Point—Mrs. Richard Mole, Route 1, Box 138 A, Central Point, announces the engagement of her daughter, Rosalie, to Richard VanAllen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. VanAllen of Baker, Ore.

Miss Mole is a graduate of Medford Senior High school and is a senior at the University of Oregon. Mr. VanAllen is a graduate of Baker High school and the University of Oregon. He will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force late this year.

The engagement was announced in Eugene Thursday at a party at the Alphi Phi sorority house where Miss Mole is a member of Beta Theta Pi social fraternity.

The wedding date is set for early December.

Luncheon Planned For DAR Regent

Mrs. Roy D. Armstrong, regent of the Oregon Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, will make her official visit to Crater Lake chapter Saturday, September 22. She will be honored at a luncheon at Tally-Ho cafe at Talent at 1 p.m.

The DAR is in favor of the resolution passed by congress for the observance of Constitution week September 17 through 23 and reminds residents and businesses to display a flag throughout the week.

Son Leaves

Calvin D. McDonald, 110 Lozier lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. McDonald, has left for Eugene to enter the University of Oregon for his junior year.

Young McDonald, a transfer from Seattle Pacific college, plans to major in accounting.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice L. Carlson
—(Classic photo)

Scholarship Won By Janet Nelson

Corvallis — Miss Janet Mae Nelson of Route 1, Central Point, has been awarded a $120 scholarship for 1956-57 at Oregon State college.

The scholarship, which covers partial tuition and fee charges for the year, is one awarded by the state system of higher education. Selection is based on scholarship and promise of achievement.

Miss Nelson, a graduate of Crater high school, will be a sophmore in home economics next year. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Nels Nelson.

Couple to Marry In Church Rites

Mrs. J. M. Taylor, 520½ South Fir street, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Margaret Lucille, to Harold C. Wiest, son of Mrs. Chris Jessen, 542 Mae street. Miss Taylor is the daughter of J. M. Taylor of Prospect.

Miss Taylor is a graduate of Medford Senior High school and is employed as a waitress at Camp White. Mr. Wiest, 105 Crater Lake avenue, attended Rolla Public schools, Rolla, N.D., and is employed by the Taylor Sheet Metal company as a sheet metal apprentice.

The wedding will take place Saturday, September 22, in the First Methodist church with the Rev. Raymond E. Balcomb officiating.

Guests Leave

Houseguests in the home of Mrs. Matilda G. Dietrich and her daughter, Viola, 939 North Central avenue, were her sons, Michael and Robert Dietrich, and a friend, Miss Kathy Baker, all of Palm Springs, Calif. They spent a week in Medford returning to Palm Springs Thursday.

Phone 3-1733
Ginn's
Flowers • Gifts
26 SOUTH CENTRAL

Mann's
MEDFORD
beauty salon

complete your Fall silhouette with a
Helene Curtis
PERMANENT WAVE

Helene Curtis, a wonderful permanent wave with just the degree of softness you desire, yet the body required to keep your hair well groomed and manageable.

Juliette Marglen
Manicures
from 1.50
PHONE 2-6434
for Appointment

Helene Curtis permanent wave
Oil shampoo
Creme rinse
Styled setting
Glamour spray
} from 8.50

It's from Brophy's Medford
Merford's Finest Jewelers and Silversmiths

ADVERTISED IN LIFE
for only $1.00
this useful pierced Serving Spoon
regularly $2.50
SAVE $1.50

We make this startling offer to introduce a new concept in silverware, HOLMES & EDWARDS DeepSilver . . . silverplate lavished all over with pure silver and superbly finished for years of distinguished service. See it now!
NEW! SILVER FASHION
CHOICE OF 5 SCULPTURED PATTERNS

Brophy's JEWELERS
MEDFORD, OREGON
Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced for Over a Quarter of a Century

SCAMPEROOS®
MONEY SAVING SHOES
for Boys and Girls

ROSINA
Sizes 8½-3 $5.98
AFTON
Hop into our store and look over the many styles and colors in SCAMPEROOS. You're sure to agree they're fine quality shoes at a budget price! Stop in and see 'em today!
LEON'S Tots-to-Teens
105 E. MAIN MEDFORD

Anniversary Song in silver...
TOWLE of course!
Never to be forgotten... the anniversary you remember with a gift of treasured Towle. For Towle is the finest of all sterling... set apart from ordinary sterling by "The Towle Touch," painstaking attention to little details that give a richer, lovelier look. Come see—come choose! We've patterns galore to flatter your taste, to please your purse. Serving pieces start at $4.00, teaspoons at $3.70 and six-piece place settings at $29.75.

A Return to Elegance

To the Southern Manor Born
GEORGIAN
... in Sterling by Towle
Calm Southern nights, magnolia blooms, and stately mansion colonnades . . . are all reflected here in Georgian . . . brought forth from Towle's collection of Sterling Silver classics to complement the graciousness of Southern hospitality.
Six-piece place setting, $41.25, serving pieces from $6.00.
Convenient Terms If Desired!
LAWRENCE'S
Southern Oregon's Finest Silversmiths
Specializing in Fine Diamonds and Watches, too!
130 E. MAIN EST. 1908