Newlywed Couple Lives Here; Ceremony Held in Canyonville

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Fick, whose wedding was an event of September 6 in Canyonville, Ore., are living at 717½ West Fourteenth street, Medford. The bride is the former Joyce Elaine Rimell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rimell, Canyonville, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Chapman, Hornbrook, Calif.

The Fick-Rimell ceremony was the first performed in the new Assembly of God church in Canyonville.

The Rev. A. M. Shaffer officiated for the eight o'clock evening rites, witnessed by more than 250 guests. He was assisted by the Rev. Wallace Ross, Fresno, Calif.

Mrs. William Ross, aunt of the bride, played the wedding marches and soloists were Mrs. Wallace Ross, Fresno, Mrs. Paul Malm and Ernest Shippen, Canyonville.

The bride wore a princess style gown of lace and nylon net over taffeta with a coronet of lace and seed pearls holding her veil. She carried a floral cross of carnations and stephanotis centered with three white orchids. Mr. Rimell gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Mitzie Humphreys, Astoria, was honor attendant and bridesmaids were the Misses Patti Gibson, Torrance, Calif., Sylvia Linn, Longview, Wash., and Miss Sharon Lohr, Canyonville. They wore identical waltz length frocks of orchid nylon over taffeta with wide-brimmed hats designed and made by the bride, and carried floral crosses of stephanotis and baby orchids.

Miss Loraine Owen, Canyonville, and Miss Marilyn Howell, Tiller, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles.

Stephen Zambos, Long Beach, Calif., was best man for Mr. Fick and Bill Jeter, Hornbrook, Dave Howell, Tiller, cousin of the bride, Merle Olsen, Blue Lake, Calif., and Dave Lawson, Bandon, seated the guests.

Paul Malm and Jerry Radford were ring bearers and Paulette Daniels was flower girl.

The bride's mother wore a gown of deep pink lace over satin with matching feather toque and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a sheath dress of turquoise blue with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The newlywed couple greeted guests at the church immediately following the ceremony, and later a reception was held in the dining room of the girls' dormitory at Canyonville Bible academy.

Mrs. Robert Shaffer, Mrs. John Roldness and Mrs. Howell took charge of the refreshment table. Mrs. C. E. Parker and
