

BUTTE FALLS Church Unit Being Put Up

By MARY JO HARRIS

Butte Falls — The Butte Falls Community Bible church has a new unit under construction, an auditorium and sanctuary. The present unit will be used as Sunday school.

The new structure uses laminated arches made by people in this area. The church has purchased an oil heating plant for the new unit.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Crammer will soon leave to do evangelistic work through the Board of Village Missions throughout the greater part of the United States. A farewell party was held Sept. 11 at the Butte Falls Community Bible church for the Crammers. They were presented with a gift of dishware.

Mr. and Mrs. Crammer and children, Mark and Janet, were to leave for Portland Saturday. Their next stop will be at Broadbent, Ore., Sept. 17.

The Rev. and Mrs. Howard Simmonds and children, Eugene, and Robin Lee, have added four nieces to their family. Virginia McAllister, 12, Darlene McAllister, 10, Linda Sue McAllister, 8, and Debra Kay McAllister, 5.

The girls arrived by bus from Denver, Colo. Aug. 18 with Mrs. Pearl McAllister, Mrs. Simmonds' mother.

The community welcomes home Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sizemore and children, Ronnie, Anita, Jackie, Ricky and Kerry. The Sizemores have been residing in Brookings, Ronnie, Anita, and Jackie have entered school and Sizemore has gone to work for Medco.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. (Edwin) Arnold and daughters, Risa and Cheryl, of San Pablo, Calif., spent Labor day weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Arnold. Edwin is a son of the Arnolds.

Mrs. Hattie Johnson and Orrin Johnson of Salem spent Labor day with the Arnolds. Mrs. Edwin Arnold is a daughter of Mrs. Johnson and a sister of Mr. Johnson.

The Arnolds and Johnsons motored to Crater lake and camped for one night. They reported a mother bear and two cubs climbed a tree in their camp and didn't come down until midnight. This incident almost caused a decampment. The group also visited Diamond lake.

Returning home to San Pablo Sept. 5 the Edwin Arnolds had a car accident near Yuba City, Calif. The family suffered slight injuries and the car was badly damaged. The latest report is that everyone is well on the road to recovery and Arnold has returned to his job.

Mrs. Ben Olson and daughter, Kathy, recently moved here from Seaside, Ore. Olson has been here for some time and is an employee of Medco. The Olsons are now living at Scotties Cabins and hope to move into the Doug Crammer house sometime next week.

On Sept. 12 approximately 1 1/2 tons of fence posts and barbed wire were dropped by plane into the Seven Lakes basin by the U. S. Forest Service. The plane was a Forest Service twin-engine Beechcraft from Cave Junction. Al Hansen, a Forest Service warehouseman, did the dropping. The purpose is to build pasture fences for recreation use. There have been many pack trails into this area and the fence will curtail loss of stock.

Mrs. Lee Jolliffe and son, Chinner, spent a week recently with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. (Shorty) Jolliffe at Redding. The following week end Lee Jolliffe and Mr. and Mrs. Ramon (Bud) McComb and daughter, Connie, motored to Redding for the Labor day holiday. Lee is a son of the Shorty Jolliffes.

LeRoy Williams from the Medford Fire Department has been holding first aid classes for Medco employees. Classes meeting every Tuesday and Thursday at the Butte Falls High school from 7 to 10 p.m. Those completing course will receive a Red Cross first aid card. Required time to complete course is 18 hours.

Gerald (Jerry) McComb and the Ramon McCombs motored this past week end to Willits, Calif. to bring Jerry's wife and children home. Mrs. McComb had spent the previous week with her family. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Peterson from Willits the McCombs went to Bonville, Calif. to visit relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Dawson Graham and family and Mrs. Mary Jo McComb, Mrs. McComb, a former resident, is past 80 and it was the first time she had seen Connie McComb, Duffy and Cheryl McComb, three of her great grandchildren.

Mrs. Hattie L. Harris and daughter, Pam, motored to Eugene with Mrs. VerHelbig and son, Donny of Grants Pass to visit with the Kenneth Rodgers family, former residents, last week end. Mrs. VerHelbig and Mrs. Rodgers are sisters.

A check of almost $500 was turned over to the Community Hall fund last week, representing deductions from payroll wages of 23 Medco men. It has been reported that quite a number of men hadn't known that deduction slips had been circulated. Men are now working on the roof and starting to shingle the Community hall. They are hoping to finish before bad weather sets in.

Mrs. Dean Bush and baby daughter, Mary Lou, arrived home from the Sacred Heart hospital Sept. 11. They are staying at the home of Mrs. Bush's father, Tom Rambo. Miss Myrtle Rambo, a sister, is caring for Mrs. Bush and baby until they are able to return to their own home.

Dead line Sunday. Classified is at noon Saturday, 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 3:30 previous day.

GOLD HILL Californians at Ranch Home

By MRS. SAM ELLIOTT

Mrs. Meta Simons of Oakland, Calif., is spending some time at her ranch home, Pelton Orchards. Her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Lyons and Lyons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lyons, all of Oakland, are also there. Leo Lyons is superintendent of freight cars for Southern Pacific.

The first meeting for the fiscal year of the Gold Hill health unit was held at the home of Mrs. George Smith on Sardine creek, with Mrs. Sidney Anderson and Mrs. Ivan Governor as co-hostesses.

17 Charter Members

There were 17 charter members present with four visitors. The visitors were: Mrs. Henry Padgham, Medford, Mrs. Robert Paris, Central Point, and Mrs. Donald Dickinson and Mrs. Meta Powers, both new comers to the Gold Hill. Committee chairmen were named as follows: Mrs. Delos Walker, hospitality; Mrs. Madge Dorman, Sunshine; Mrs. Melvin Burnett, T. B. seals; Mrs. Melvin Hood, well baby clinic; Mrs. Norman Gail, mental guidance; Mrs. Arthur Boye, X-rays; Mrs. Kenneth Fluck, cancer; and Mrs. Jack Cline, supply. Publicity manager has not been appointed.

The unit is making gadget bags for patients at the Rogue Memorial hospital. The bags were distributed to members to be sewed. These bags will be the units contribution to the auxiliary of the hospital. All the women have been asked to save the large sides of cereal boxes, shirt stiffeners or other sources of cardboard to be used in these bags.

Birthday Party

Miss Patricia Knapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Knapp, Old Stage rd., celebrated her ninth birthday at a party Tuesday, Sept. 11. Guests were the misses Sharon Wright, Linda Walker, Melva Rae Lewis, Gal Ann Lewis, Norma Shatz, Denise McLaughlin, Pamela Freeman, Bonnie Lynn Knapp and Colleen Sue Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan L. Lanham of Gold Hill, who live on the River rd., have announced the engagement of their son, Donovan L. Lanham, to Carol White of Etna, Calif. Miss White and Donovan Lanham, who have both been working with the Jehovah's Witness organization, met in Etna. They both visited Donovan's parents last week end.

Frank Bruce and family and Charles Bruce, sons of Mrs. Grace Bruce, were archery deer hunting at Hart mountain recently.

Grandchildren Born

Mrs. Maybelle Raines recently learned she is a grandmother for the second and third time this summer. Her son, B. J. Dodson, became the father of a five pound boy christened George Harry. Another son, Lindale Dodson, became the father of a five pound girl christened Pamela Carrene. Both babies were born during the month of August.

Sept. 15 is the date set for a food sale to be held at Gail's market by the Community Methodist church. The money from this sale will go toward the purchase of a new Hammond organ. The organ will be on display and music will be played by Mrs. Grace Bruce during the sale.

Back From Visit

Mrs. George Dorman has just returned from a few weeks visit with her son and family, Howard Dorman, Astoria. Mrs. Dorman returned home Monday morning.

Grading was done this past week on the Christian church property in preparation for landscaping. Improvements have also been made recently on the new basement church building. Other improvements are planned for the near future.

Slide pictures of Christian Children's home in Boise, Idaho, will be a special feature of the 8 p.m. service of the church this Sunday. The work of this home has been recognized by the county in which Boise is located, and since July, 1953, all juvenile delinquents of the court have been sent to the home during the time of hearing and readjustment. Many of these children have been paroled to the home. The public is invited to see these pictures.

Back From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. E. Gilbert Cays, evangelists of the Christian church have returned from their vacation in southern California. They also attended the Winema Week of Mission Camp on the Oregon coast. Their daughter, Dorothy, remained in San Jose, Calif., where she will be enrolled as a student in San Jose Bible college.

Two young ladies, Miss Jean Cunningham and Miss Gloria Jewell, spoke at the church last Sunday morning and told of their mission work in the central part of Mexico. The service was well attended and was followed by a fellowship dinner.

Services are conducted at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. each Sunday. This Sunday, Cays will speak on the theme, "Why Jesus Came," and "Precious Promise of Jesus." Sunday school is at 9:45 a.m.

Dead line Sunday. Classified is at noon Saturday, 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; other days 3:30 previous day.
