

Progress of Hall Reported for Club; Committees Named

Butte Falls—New committee chairmen were named at a special meeting of the Butte Falls Lion auxiliary September 12, at the home of Mrs. William L. Harris.

It was announced that a check of almost $300 had been turned over to the Community hall fund, representing donations from 28 Medco men. Men are now working on the roof and starting to shingle the Community hall.

It was also announced that the Butte Falls Mt. Pitt club had set a tentative date of September 21 to give their play again. The play was given last month and it is doubtful that the club met expenses. All proceeds had been earmarked for the Community hall fund.

The new committee chairmen named are: Constitution and by-laws, executive board; finance, Mrs. F. E. Poole; publicity, Mrs. William L. Harris; hostess, Mrs. Glenn Cathey; welfare, Mrs. Ernest Smith; flowers, Mrs. William A. Hartlerode; membership, Mrs. Charles Capello; initiation, Mrs. Page Stauffer; historian, Mrs. William A. Hartlerode.

There will be a workshop for District E September 20 at the Bethany Presbyterian church at Grants Pass, from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. Hostess clubs are Grants Pass and Rogue River.

Members voted to start "jalopy brunches" this week. The hostess is known to only one person and when the hostess sets her time and date members and guests will then be notified and asked to come as they are. Coffee and pastry will be served for a charge.

An Italian luncheon will be served September 27 from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. The Union Hall has been named tentatively. Tickets will be sold beginning September 24 and at the luncheon. If this luncheon proves successful, the auxiliary will undertake international luncheons as one of its projects.

The auxiliary plans a potluck dinner meeting September 26. Because of the weather this meeting will probably be held at the Union hall rather than the City park. Cards of notification will be sent later.

Mrs. Floyd Murray Hostess for Group

Past Noble Grand's club of Olive Rebekah lodge held the first meeting of fall last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Floyd Murray on Dakota street. Mrs. Margaret Davis presided.

Mrs. Mabel Poage, a former member, was reinstated. Plans for a rummage sale were made.

A "school days" sack lunch was served by a committee headed by Mrs. James Wicker. She was assisted by Mrs. Ed Pease, Mrs. P. M. Aldredge and Miss Bessie Fredenburg.

Next meeting of the club will be October 11.

It will be held at the home of Mrs. Tom Ginn, 29 Kenwood avenue, preceded by a spaghetti dinner at 6:30 o'clock. All partners are invited to attend and "secret pals" will be revealed.

Fancy Foods Now Filling Grocery Baskets of All

New York—(U.P.)—Fancy foods, which once whetted only the appetites of the carriage trade, now fill the market baskets of meat and potato devotees.

The boom in such exotic items as pheasant pate, muskrat stew, quail eggs and wild boar in wine sauce began after World War II. And today, dealers and retailers report their cash registers are ringing up new highs in sales of both domestic and imported delicacies.

"Caviar no longer is just for the Vanderbilts," said Ronald Kytol, general manager of the 108-year-old Charles and Co., one of the nation's leading retailers of specialty foods. "These days, everybody's a gourmet."

There are several reasons for the fancy foods boom, said

Harold Roth, president of the National Association for the Specialty Food Trade, Inc.

"Prosperity for one thing," he explained. "People can afford to indulge. Travel for another. . . it broadens tastes too."

"And with television, people entertain more at home. It used to be everybody sat around munching peanuts. Now the hostess serves the fancy stuff."

An association spokesman cited trade paper figures showing that in 1953, Americans spent $640 million on foods other than standard grocery items.

"It's safe to assume most of that went for what we call the fancy foods," the spokesman added.

Caviar, the pates, the fancy cheeses, meats, candies and fruits are the top sellers.

The association lists some 20,000 foods as specialty items, even to rattlesnake ice cream featured each Halloween time by a Rochester store.

Business Machine Show Scheduled in Medford

The Medford chapter of the National Office Management association will sponsor a Southern Oregon Business Machine show Sept. 26-28 in the basement of the Walker building, next to the Bear Creek bridge.

The show will feature modern office machinery, equipment and furniture to be displayed by local and national firms. There will be no admission charge.

Fashion Originals Claimed Misshipped

New Orleans—(U.P.)—The FBI dropped its investigation today of the disappearance of high fashion originals designed by Pauline Trigere.

The exclusive gowns valued at $250,000, which disappeared from Kansas City, Mo., last Wednesday, turned up Monday at Moisant International Airport here.

M. P. Chiles, special agent in charge of the FBI office here, said the clothes "apparently had been misdirected in shipment to New Orleans."
