

Legion Auxiliary Hears Reports at Recent Meeting

Reports on department and national conventions of the American Legion auxiliary were given at the last meeting of Medford unit. Miss Laura York, district 13 president; Mrs. Dorothy Suter, historian and Mrs. Earl Bigalow, department director of volunteer hospital workers, reported on the department convention, September 3-6 in Los Angeles.

A $5 contribution was voted to the Leonard Wood memorial. It was also voted that the second meeting of each month will be a social meeting.

Mrs. Ross Minnecl, president, announced the appointment of chairman as: Mrs. Merle Jarmin, Americanism; Mrs. H. C. Goldsmith, child welfare; Mrs. George Smith, civil defense and national security; Mrs. Bert Staats, community service; Mrs. Leon Haskins, constitution and by-laws and legislative; Mrs. Edward Leach, girl's state; Mrs. A. E. Reinking, membership; Mrs. Elsie Lewis, music; Mrs. Nettie Ellenburg, pan-American; Mrs. Herb Gifford, past president's parley; Mrs. Clark J. Walker and Carol J. Parker, poppies; Mrs. Minnie Bryant, poppy poster; Mrs. Earl B. Bigalow, publicity; Mrs. Charles Wiley, public relations; Mrs. James Teets, radio; Mrs. Merle Jarmin and Mrs. Leo Williams, rehabilitation.

Entertainment for the evening was a talk by Dr. Gene Chamberlain on the subject of fluoridation, followed by a film presented by Drs. Norman Capsey and Eugene Ray on the same subject.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Leo Williams and Mrs. Thomas Freed.

This Woman Works At Cobbler's Bench

Hamburg, N.Y. — (AP) — The shoe repair business is hardly a woman's field. But gray-haired Mrs. Jennie Wisniewski is an exception.

When Mrs. Wisniewski's husband, a bootmaker and cobbler, died five years ago, she was left with a four-year-old daughter to provide for. She had to go to work, so she took up her husband's business.

"I waited two months before reopening shop," she recalled. "I was nervous at first, but my husband's customers returned and now I have all the business I can handle."

For six days a week it's a 12-hour work-day for the efficient blue-eyed cobbler. She rises at 6 a.m., cleans house, looks after her pretty nine-year-old daughter, then opens the shop at 8.

"It's a good living," said Mrs. Wisniewski. "I don't see why more women—especially the widows of shoemakers—don't take up cobbling."

Dinner, Program Given by Hospital

A barbecue dinner and program of entertainment were given by Sacred Heart hospital last Saturday for employees and their families. It was arranged by Sister Superior. The event will be made an annual one.

The party was held on the hospital grounds and began at noon. Highlight of the evening was entertainment which included tap dance numbers by Harold Thurston and son, accompanied by Mrs. Thurston. They are of the Thurston School of Dance.

Mrs. Stanley Zapell, Talent, sang several songs, accompanied by Ray Lewis. The Bob Anderson trio, which features "Chuck" Miller, Mercury recording artist, was the featured attraction.

Every window in the hospital had been opened and with the help of a public address system, patients and staff members were able to enjoy the music. The trio and Mr. Miller appeared through the courtesy of Don Adams of the "Y" club, the hospital stated.

Grand Guardian To Visit Bethel In Central Point

Central Point — Honored Queen Marla Abbott presided at the first fall meeting of Bethel 38, International Order of Job's Daughters, held Thursday, September 13 at the Central Point Masonic temple.

Past guardians introduced were Mrs. A. M. Setness and Mrs. Richard Stratton from Bethel 38.

During the meeting Miss Abbott installed Miss Linda Warren, marshal; Miss Sandra Ghelardi, inner guard.

It was announced that Mrs. Conrad Schild, Portland, grand guardian of the state of Oregon will make her inspection of the Bethel Thursday, September 27 at 7:30 p.m. A potluck supper will be held at 5 and a school of instruction will precede the inspection meeting.

A meeting of the Southern Oregon Guardian council of Job's Daughters is scheduled for Sunday, September 23 at 1 p.m. with Bethel 38 as hostess.

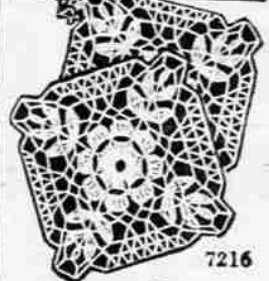

Miss Kay Askwith read a letter concerning the candy sale to be held October 1-15.

Refreshments were served from a table centered with Michaelmas daisies and purple candles; Misses Janet Kilbourn, Ruth Day, Janet Hobbs and their mothers served. On the decorations committee were Misses Julie Ashton, Susan Gilman and Mrs. Chester Ashton.

Practice will be held Monday, September 24 at 7.

Keep a special vegetable brush handy when washing dishes. Dip it, for example, into thick suds for scrubbing food from between the sharp prongs of the grater.
