Church School Dedicated In Services September 16

Dedicatory services for St. Mark's Episcopal church school were held Sunday, Sept. 16, at 11 a.m. with the Right Reverend James W. F. Carman, bishop coadjutor of Oregon, officiating. The first part of the dedicatory service was held in the church and included shortened morning prayer with Jerome A. McDougall, general superintendent of the school, reading the scripture.

The officers and teachers of the Eastwood Baptist church, North Keene Way dr. at Ridgeway, will hold a meeting Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. for a planning conference to arrange the calendar and program of the church and the church school for the next quarter. The boards of deacons trustees, Christian education, and the music and planning committees will meet in individual sessions during the first half of the afternoon. Later in the day all groups will coordinate their plans.

The Eastwood Baptist church is affiliated with the American Baptist convention and is located just north of the Hedrick Junior High school. Arthur Lee Simpkins sang an introit and the penitential solo. Other music was by the St. Mark's choir with three hymns sung by the congregation. At the conclusion of the dedicatory sermon delivered by the Rev. Mr. Carman, the clergy, choir, and congregation proceeded to the new building site where the dedicatory exercises were held.

Also dedicated was the large mural exterior cross to the memory of the late Gary Townsend Kliever, a senior acolyte and explorer scout of St. Mark's parish, who died last year. Interest Groups Continue at First Methodist

The Rev. Richard H. Jones, minister of the Eastwood Baptist church, will speak at the First Methodist church Sunday at 5:30 p.m. His address will be one in a series on "The Church Around the Corner" being conducted as part of the School of Christian Living.

Other adult interest groups at the same hour include "Questions for Christian Citizens," a filmed debate between Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam and Dr. Henry Hitt Crane on the theme "Which Way to Peace?" and "Here's How" laboratory observation class for persons interested in church school teaching. A membership class will also be held. There are interest groups for all other ages.

A snack supper will be served by the Shipmates Class at 6:30 p.m. and "Inspiration Time" at 7 p.m. will be under the leadership of Rev. Mr. Trobough.

"Deep is the Hunger for Significance" will be the sermon theme at both services Sunday morning. The Youth choir, directed by Mrs. E. L. Porter will sing at 9:30 and the Chancel choir directed by Mrs. C. R. Adamson will sing at 11. Soloist will be Eddie Thomas.

Missionaries To Speak Sunday at 2 Services
Mr. and Mrs. Wayne C. Turnbull, missionaries to the Dominican Republic, will be guest speakers at the Butte Falls and Phoenix Assembly of God churches, Sunday, Sept. 23. They will speak at the 11 a.m. service in Butte Falls and 7:30 p.m. at the regular service at the Phoenix church.

The Turnbulls will relate some of their experiences and tell of the progress of missions in the Dominican Republic. The public is invited to attend.

Rally Day Sunday At Friends Church

Rally day will be observed Sunday at the Friends church during both Sunday school hours at 9:45 and 11 a.m. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Dean Gregory, Portland, who will show pictures taken during a recent trip to Central and South America where she and her husband visited Friends mission fields. Invitations are being sent to all Sunday school members. Guest speaker during the worship hours at 9:45 and 11 a.m. will be the Rev. Dean Gregory, general superintendent of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends churches.

Quarter Schedules To Be Set Sunday

The officers and teachers of the Eastwood Baptist church, North Keene Way dr. at Ridgeway, will hold a meeting Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. for a planning conference to arrange the calendar and program of the church and the church school for the next quarter. The boards of deacons trustees, Christian education, and the music and planning committees will meet in individual sessions during the first half of the afternoon. Later in the day all groups will coordinate their plans.

Central Point Church Plans Annual Picnic

The Annual Fall Round-up Picnic of the Central Point Presbyterian church will be held Saturday, Sept. 22, at TouVelle State park starting at 3 p. m. The potluck supper will be served at 5 p.m. with the church furnishing the coffee, punch and ice cream. Those attending should bring their own table service. Children and adults needing transportation or those who have room in their cars for others are asked to call Mrs. McCalvey at NO 4-2223. Rides will leave the church at 2:45 p.m.

Pastor Starts Seventh Year in Local Church

This month Dr. D. Kirkland West begins his seventh year as pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Medford. During these years the church has more than doubled in membership increasing from 300 to more than 700. One of the organizations formed at the church through the efforts of Dr. West is the Men's Luncheon club which meets every other Thursday at the church. It was started five years ago with five men and now averages 80. The club will meet next Oct. 4 and men of all faith are invited. Dr. West is the state advisor for the Presbyterian Men's clubs and has also been elected a trustee of San Francisco Theological seminary. This week he has given the morning devotions over KMED from 9:15 to 9:20 each morning. On Monday and Tuesday the Rev. John Reynolds, assistant minister at the church, presented devotions on KBES-TV.

Mission Work Discussed at Meeting

Dr. Eugene Gerlitz, pastor of the First Baptist church of Roseburg, led the Eastwood Baptist church officers and leaders at a meeting held Thursday evening. Mission work and the responsibility of the church were considered. Dr. Gerlitz was a courier for the Every Church Visit of the World Mission Cavalcade, a program of the American Baptist convention designed to stimulate mission interest and giving. The pastor of the Eastwood Baptist church, the Rev. Richard M. Jones, will serve as courier to the Roseburg church in the future.

Baptists Plan Youth Activities For Coming Week

Youth occupies the spotlight during the coming week in the activities of the First Baptist church.

Tonight the third in a series of Teen Time Chill feeds will be held following the Medford-Roseburg football game. All Medford High school students are invited to attend this post-game gathering. An invitation has been extended to the Roseburg team and its cheering section as well as to the students from Crater High school.

Sunday morning the Sunday school will have rally day followed by promotion day, Sept. 30. A special program will be presented by the beginner and primary departments under the direction of Mrs. Cecil Heard and Mrs. Melvin Johnson. The time for the Sunday school sessions will be at 9:30 a.m.

Sunday at 8:30 p.m. the Training union will hold its third meeting on the theme "Courtship and Christ." Dr. Wayne Roberts, a physician from Central Point, will conduct this session on the subject "The Bible and the Body." The purpose of this week's program is to present a Christian view of sex.

All events are open to the young people of Medford.

Books of Bible Topic For Nazarene Sermons

The second in a series of expository sermons will be given by the Rev. Raymond W. Hurn, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, this Sunday. The title for the message is "The Significance of the Passover." The series will cover the books of the Bible and is expected to last for a year.
