

Tourney Ends Today

Finals in the annual southern Oregon bridge tournament sponsored by Medford Duplicate Bridge club will be played this afternoon at the Jackson hotel. The tournament opened last night, with players from northern California and several cities in southern Oregon.

Guest players, numbering about 30, were entertained at a buffet supper following last night's session, and a breakfast is being held at Rogue Valley Country club this morning.

Mrs. W. W. Stevenson is chairman of the sponsoring club, and Mrs. Frank R. Baker is tournament director.

The club held the usual weekly session Tuesday night. North-south winners were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Boyd, first, 100 points; Mrs. S. W. Alcorn and Roy Pruitt, second, 97; Mrs. C. L. Howard and Frank Dickman, Corvallis, third, 93.

East-west winners were Mrs. Robert Elliott and Ray Wise, first, 94½; the Paul McDuffees, second, 92; Mrs. Jack Mitchell and Thomas Randall, third, 89.

Patricia Strader Returns to School

Miss Patricia Ann Strader, daughter of Mrs. Vera Strader of Portland, and granddaughter of Mrs. Arthur G. McMillin, 661 J street, left September 17 for Corvallis to reenter Oregon State college for her junior year.

Miss Strader, who is taking a liberal arts course, will assist in rush week for her sorority, Delta Gamma. During the summer she stayed with her grandmother in Medford while attending summer school at Southern Oregon college.

Zieser-Garrett Rites Held In Medford Church of Christ

Baskets of white gladiolus decorated the West Main Church of Christ in Medford Saturday, September 8, for the afternoon wedding of Miss Phyllis Elaine Garrett to Wallace Norman Zieser. The Rev. W. H. Burcham of Grants Pass officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Garrett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Garrett, 908 S.W. Bridge, Grants Pass. Mr. Zieser is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Zieser of Rogue River.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Garrett wore a ballerina length gown of white net and lace over tulle with a bolero. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling a white orchid. Her pearl necklace was a gift from the bridegroom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Melville Dutcher, Grants Pass. She wore a dress styled similar to the bride's in powder blue. Bridesmaids were Miss Anna Macey, Grants Pass, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Dixie McIntire, Bell, Calif. Miss Macey wore an ice blue colored dress while Miss McIntire was in powder blue net over tulle. All attendants carried pink carnation nosegays.

Four-year-old Bonnie Hahn was flower girl. She wore pink organdy and carried pink carnations.

Mrs. Herb Woodward, Mrs. John Fehrs, and Mrs. John Welter sang two selections.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth crocheted by the bride's mother which held the tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. T. C. Ragsdale was in charge of the serving. Mrs. W. H. Burcham cut the cake and Mrs. John York, president at the punch bowl. Mrs. Bill Davis and Mrs. Ernest Burns, Gold Hill, were at the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Garrett wore a navy blue crepe dress accented with white trim and white accessories. Her corsage was of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Zieser chose a two piece dress of navy blue crepe trimmed with white. Her accessories were powder blue and she wore a dark pink rosebud corsage.

For her traveling attire the bride wore a brown light weight wool suit with brown and avocado accessories. After a wedding trip to southern California the newlywed couple are at home at 401 Oak street, Medford.

The bride attended Grants Pass High school and was employed as a bookkeeper by the J. W. Copeland Yards. Mr. Zieser attended Rogue River High school and is employed by his father, a plastering contractor.

Wedding Service To Be Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Callahan, 607 South Holly street, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Sharon, to James Francis Moore Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Moore, Seattle.

The wedding will take place at Sacred Heart Catholic church Saturday, September 29 with reception to follow at Rogue Valley Country club.

Miss Callahan was graduated from Medford High school, Portland university and St. Vincent's College Nursing in Portland. She is a member of Beta Beta Beta, Alpha Tau Delta and was chosen for "Who's Who in colleges of America" for 1936. At graduation she received the Dr. Thomas M. Joyce memorial award.

Mr. Moore is now studying towards his master's degree in geology at Oregon State college, and will complete his work there in January, 1937. He is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

Medford Couple To Attend Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Scott V. Davis, 1914 East Main street, will leave Medford Tuesday for Oakland, Calif., where they will attend the wedding of their granddaughter, Miss Sandra Jean Wurts, to Robert Lindsay. The rites are set for Saturday, September 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis will return the following Tuesday.

The newlyweds will visit here at Idlewild, summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Davis on the Rogue river, during the week following their wedding. The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wurts, who formerly made their home in Medford.

Miss Shirley Ann Boitano Married to Eugene Gambec

Miss Shirley Ann Boitano, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Boitano, 1710 East Main street, became the bride of Eugene B. Gambec, Portland, in a nuptial mass held Saturday, September 15, at Sacred Heart Catholic church here. For the ceremony and the reception which followed the bride wore a gown designed and made for her in Rome last summer during a tour of Europe.

The bridegroom is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Louis P. Gambec, Portland, who were here for their son's wedding.

The Rev. Nicholas Deis celebrated the mass at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. About 250 guests attended the ceremony and the wedding reception-luncheon at Rogue Valley Country club. Arrangements of white gladiolus and chrysanthemums decorated the church and the club for the event.

The bride's gown was of ivory antique brocade satin designed with long sleeves, close-fitting bodice and very full skirt. The skirt back was ornamented with a large flat bow and lengths of satin which formed a drapery falling almost to the hem-line. Her short veil was held by a small satin cap edged with pearls and she carried a prayer book covered with the brocade, and ivory roses.

Miss Sylvia McCabe, Medford, was the bride's honor attendant and the bridesmaids were Miss Sharon Hogan, Medford, Miss Ann Rowland, Tacoma, Wash., Miss Delorus Echiaris, Ontario, Ore., and Miss Jane Phillips, Seattle, Wash.

All the attendants wore frocks of apricot brandy changeable silk in the Dior-inspired princess style. The brides were fashioned with scoop necklines and the skirts with back fullness and bouffant bows. Their head-dresses were matching short veils held by crowns of seed pearls, and they wore satin pumps to match their gowns and long white kid gloves. All carried bronze Fuji chrysanthemums.

Mr. Boitano escorted his daughter to the church altar, and Dr. Gambec served as best man for his son. Seating the guests were Phillip Johnson, Seattle, James Brady, John Boucher and Jerry Cach, all Portland.

Bruno Pellegrini was at the church organ, and Don Reverman and Jack Cooney were soloists.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Boitano wore a sheath dress of wheat colored lace with rhinestone trim, a small matching hat and matching accessories. Her corsage of brown cymbidium orchids was pinned to her purse. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of pale grey wool with white hat and accessories and her corsage was of pink cymbidium orchids.

Cutting the wedding cake during the reception were Mrs. Lawrence M. Buonocore and Mrs. Anthony Manno, Mrs. C. R. Bottjer and Mrs. Robert Gaines, cousins of the bride, served punch; Mrs. M. N. Hogan, Mrs. DeWitt Rowland, Tacoma, Miss Elizabeth Canning, aunt of the bride, Portland, and Miss Lorraine Hess, Tacoma, poured tea and coffee. Miss Nancy Hamill, Anchorage, Alaska, Miss Elvina Wasolek, Tacoma, and Mrs. Robert Fasel, cousin of the bride, took charge of the guest book. Miss Ann Manno passed small bags of rice.

Mr. Gambec and his bride are traveling in California for their wedding trip. Mrs. Gambec's going-away suit of grey-blue Irish wool was worn with a matching felt beret and a corsage of white blossoms. Both her wedding gown and trousseau suit were made at The Madeleine in Rome.

The couple will be at home after October 1 in Seattle where the bridegroom will enroll for his final year of pre-medicine at Seattle university. He previously attended Portland State college, and has served in the Army. The bride attended Marylhurst college, Portland, and Seattle university.

Here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bottaro, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bottaro, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Carnini, uncle and aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John Raffetto, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Rowland, John Dawson, Tacoma; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cach, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gaggero, uncle and aunt of the bride, Portland; Harold DeLuchi, San Francisco; Louis Caratan, San Bernardino, Calif.; Paul Guichon, Ladner, B. C.; Mrs. John Echanis and Robert Echanis, Ontario and Danny Ryan, Seattle.
