Society

Lewis Bright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Bright, 1797 Minear road, has been named "senior scholar" by Elmer Rieck, dean of men at Willamette university.

Why is she alone on the current 16-day, 32-state campaign trip? She gives her answer: "I found out a long time ago, 1946 to be exact, that the volunteer women in the Republican party wanted to see who a candidate for Congress would marry."

The attractive auburn-haired Mrs. Nixon, outwardly as enthusiastic as her husband about politics, admits that "I'm only the second cog in this thing. He's carrying the load."

The "second half" of the Nixon team, always trim, chic and smiling, admits that she "really loves campaigning."

Gladamson Unit Holds First Fall Meeting; Service Conducted

Gladamson unit of Wesleyan Service guild held its first fall meeting in Meeker Memorial chapel, First Methodist church.

The president, Mrs. Rex Note, took charge of the meeting and a pledge service was conducted by Mrs. George Trobough with Mrs. Charles Adamson at the organ.

Mrs. William Sweet presented the guild interests in the missionary field, with several members taking part. Two guests were introduced, Mrs. Horace Doolen and Mrs. Aletha Cantrill.

The yearly budget was presented and accepted. Plans were made for a gift apron sale in conjunction with a cooked food sale to be held at The Home Appliance store October 27.

Mrs. A. C. James and Mrs. Note were hostesses of the evening.

Season cooked or canned sweet potatoes and whip until fluffy. Pile in greased baking dish, sprinkle thickly with brown sugar, dot with butter and cover with chopped almonds. Bake in hot oven to melt sugar and brown almonds. Serve with baked ham.

Lengthwise quarters avocado filled with cranberry sauce make a superb accompaniment for baked or fried chicken. It makes a nice extra to serve with patio or indoor meals.

The program should be of interest to all artists, it is stated.

LONGER LIFE FOR ELASTIC

In Shorts, Socks, Bras, etc. How many times have you had to discard otherwise good garments because the elastic has stretched to uselessness? This is a needless waste that can be prevented by using White King Soap. No other type of wash-day product preserves elastic like White King Soap. So, from the day you buy them, be sure to wash elasticized socks, petticoats, undershirts, girdles and bras only in White King Soap. You'll add months to the life of garments with White King Soap.
