It's up to Don Newcombe and the embattled Dodgers to see today if Sal Maglie didn't pitch one of baseball's all-time masterpieces in vain.

Given a reprieve by the 30-year-old Maglie's 5-0, no-hit triumph, the Dodgers sent Newcombe against Robin Roberts and the Philadelphia Phillies today in an effort to sweep the two-game series and go back into a tie for the National League

Cincinnati, Ohio—(U.P.)—One thing the Braves and Dodgers do agree on—how the playoffs should be conducted, just in case this wild pennant race ends in a tie.

In the event of a Braves-Dodgers tie, the first game will be played in Brooklyn next Monday, Oct. 1; the second and third in Milwaukee Tuesday and Wednesday.

lead with the idle Milwaukee Braves. A loss would drop the Dodgers a full game behind the Braves with three games left for each.

"That no-hitter won't be worth a nickel if we don't win Wednesday," said Jackie Robinson in the Dodger clubhouse Tuesday night. "But we can't let that happen. We've just got to go on now and take it all."

For Maglie, meanwhile, there was the honor of having pitched the most spectacular "clutch game" the majors had seen in 48 years. Not since Cleveland's Addie Joss pitched a perfect game against the White Sox in the decisive game of the 1908 American League pennant race had a pitcher turned in a no-hitter with so much riding on every delivery.

Spahn Beats Redlegs
It was a game the Dodgers had to win because Warren Spahn, another great old pro, had pitched the Braves to a 7-1 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs Tuesday afternoon. That victory all but mathematically eliminated the Redlegs from the race.

In this situation, the amazing Maglie—a one-time "Mexican jumper" and later the most famous "Dodger killer" of 'em all as a star pitcher with the hated Giants—achieved his finest hour. He walked only two batters and hit another in setting down the Phillies with a total of 110 pitches. It was his 12th victory since joining the Dodgers from the Indians on May 16.

Spahn's splendid effort enabled the 35-year-old Milwaukee southpaw to reach the 20-victory mark for the seventh time in his career—a feat which previously was attained by only Grover Cleveland Alexander, Christy Mathewson, Walter Johnson, Eddie Plank, Lefty Grove and Bob Lemon. Spahn yielded only six hits and one walk in chalking up the 203 win of his career.

Johnny Antonelli won his 19th game as the New York Giants routed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 10-0 and Don Kaiser pitched the Chicago Cubs to a 5-2 decision after the St. Louis Cardinals turned in a triple play en route to a 5-1 win behind Lindy McDaniel in other NL activity.

In the American League, the champion New York Yankees downed the Baltimore Orioles, 11-6, as Bill Skowron drove in five runs with a single and a double, Mickey Mantle appeared only as a pinch-hitter again and kept his average at .355—six points ahead of Boston's Ted Williams.

Early Wynn gained his 20th victory when Rocky Colavito's three-run 10th-inning homer gave the Cleveland Indians a 4-1 triumph over the Kansas City Athletics and Billy Hoeltz notched No. 19 as the Detroit Tigers scored a 5-3 decision over the Chicago White Sox. Maxwell's 28th homer set a club record for a left-handed batter.

Williams knocked in four runs with his 24th homer and a bases-filled walk to lead the Red Sox to a 10-4 win over the Washington Senators in the other game. The loss was the Senators' 10th straight and 16th in 17 games.
