QUICK WITH THE QUIP—Adlai Stevenson proves to be the man of the moment as he is surrounded by the better members of the League of Young Democrats at Oklahoma City. He greeted the group with the remark that if they are the "eggheads" Republicans speak of, he never saw a prettier group of eggheads.

Stevenson Working To Build Picture of Ike As Weak President

Kansas City, Mo.—(UP)—Adlai E. Stevenson worked today to build up a picture of President Eisenhower as a weak president with a limited concept of his duties. The Democratic presidential nominee plugged away at that theme Wednesday night at a rally at which he was introduced by his former foe, former President Truman. Stevenson said that in calling for "a strong presidency, I am not talking about the President's health or any personal aspect of the situation in Washington." "I am talking about the limited concept of the presidency that Mr. Eisenhower has announced publicly and followed in practice," he said. "And I am not 'attacking' the President, as the newspaper headlines so often say. "I am talking, rather, about what has seemed to me his philosophical attitude toward the office and his consistent rejection of the positive responsibilities of leadership—a rejection that began not last fall, but in January, 1953," he said. Stevenson planned to write speeches this morning, and then motor across the Kaw river to talk at the Wyandotte county court house in Kansas City, Kan. Afterward, his plane was scheduled to leave for St. Louis, Mo., where he speaks tonight. Stevenson and Mr. Truman met in an atmosphere of cordiality Wednesday night, their first meeting since the Democratic convention, where Mr. Truman tried to block Stevenson's nomination. The ex-president used only 50 words to introduce Stevenson. He said Stevenson had the qualification, experience and ability to fill the office of president. When Stevenson's speech was completed, Mr. Truman told reporters it was "right down the alley" and "he ought to do that all the time—if he does, he's going to win." Stevenson told the crowd of 2,500 in Municipal Auditorium it was no secret that he and Mr. Truman have sometimes disagreed. But he praised Mr. Truman as a strong president who refused to "pass the buck."

What is your voting record? In how many presidential elections, in which you were eligible to vote, did you fail to go to the polls? In the presidential election in the U. S. A. 45 million qualified citizens failed to vote! In the 1952 presidential election 37 million qualified citizens failed to vote. Be very interesting to know how these millions of citizens who did not vote in the aforementioned elections would have voted had they gone to the polls.

Lucky Days
 Persons born on holidays have an unusual chance for success. So I note it said. Don't know how true it is. Anyway Louis Armstrong was born on the 4th of July. Humphrey Bogart entered the world on Christmas day and J. Edgar Hoover was born on New Year's day.

Drivers
 Irritated male automobile drivers continue to refer to feminine driving errors with the caustic crack, "Isn't that just like a woman?" I don't think there is any connection with bad driving and the sex of the autolist. It is a question of the individual. Anyway, my girl friend is a superb driver. She has a genius for getting places quickly without exceeding the speed limit. She really rates an automobile.

Asking
 Q. Has there ever been a stage play about taxi drivers? A. There was such a play titled "Waiting For Lefty." Clifford Odets wrote it. Q. Has a father and son ever played on the same team in organized baseball? A. Yes, sir. Jim O'Rourke was the catcher for the Bridgeport, Conn. club when his son Jim O'Rourke Jr., played, shortstop.

Information
 In what shape are you to win a jackpot on one of those quiz programs with general information as a category? What is the largest army in the world? Ninety per cent of persons asked miss on that one. Answer is: the Chinese army with 5 million members. Second is the Soviet with over 4 million. Third is the United States with under 2 million in the armed forces.

Passing By
 Ernest Henderson Hotel Chain Tycoon. He is the top man of a chain that has 41 hotels in 31 cities. Said hotel chain is named after the man who invented twin beds. June Hillman. A very brainy beauty. Has achieved success at a ballerina, musical comedy star and a columnist. For the London Daily Express she wrote a very popular column under the name of June Inverclyde. That was when she was married to Lord Inverclyde, grandson of the founder of the Cunard Steamship Line. June is now the wife of Edward Hillman, Chicago department store millionaire. The Hillmans are approaching their 20th wedding anniversary. What is the 20th anniversary? It is the China wedding isn't it? June has always been one of my most loyal readers. I will have to give her a nice China tea cup for an anniversary present. I may even give her a tea pot.

Sister Acts
 What was the top sister act of Vaudeville? That's what a Bostonian asks. I would say it was the Dolly sisters. In second spot I would put the Millership sisters and in third place, the Duncan sisters. Incidentally, did you ever see a Vaudeville act billed as the "Three Allen Sisters?" I missed that act, would liked to have seen it. Grace Allen was one of those sisters.

Credit
 The share of the credit claimed by some film production executives for a picture made a success largely by the personality and performance of the star brings to mind the fable of the ant and elephant who crossed a small bridge together. When they reached the other side, the ant said, "we sure did shake that bridge."
