

IT'S INCREDIBLE—Washington fullback Credel (Incredible) Green (41) tears through the Idaho line to the two yard line to set up one of the game's 11 touchdowns in a 53-21 rout of the Idaho team at Seattle. Green was brought down by Idaho fullback Ken Hall (37) and quarterback Howard Willis (14).

Archie Moore, Patterson Bout Wanted Earlier

New York—(U.P.)—Another hot potato was shoved closer to Jim Norris' lap today as a result of his signing the Sugar Ray Robinson-Gene Fullmer middleweight title fight under terms dictated by Robinson.

Sugar Ray will defend his 160-pound crown against Fullmer of Utah at Madison Square Garden Dec. 12—instead of Nov. 14, the date Norris wanted.

And now Norris is trying to match Archie Moore and young Floyd Patterson to fight for the vacant heavyweight crown at Chicago Stadium, Nov. 30—instead of in December, which he preferred.

That shortens the time for bringing Patterson to terms or for attempting to substitute Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson as the heavyweight title opponent for Archie Moore.

Cus D'Amato, Patterson's very independent manager, declared today, "Floyd definitely will not fight Moore in Chicago. It'll be in New York—or nowhere. And I dare Norris to try to substitute Jackson for Patterson."

Norris had proposed the "Hurricane" as a substitute shortly after Jackson's repeat decision over big Bob Baker at Pittsburgh Wednesday night.

Public Rites In Beaumont Honor Babe

Beaumont, Tex. — (U.P.) — Persons who knew Mrs. Mildred (Babe) Didrikson Zaharias as a scrawny child in this port city she loved so well will get a chance to pay their last respects today at her public funeral.

The Babe, a champion in more sports than any other woman in history, died in her sleep of cancer early Thursday. She died quietly, and a short time after telling her husband, George, that she wasn't going to.

A service open to all will be held at 4 p.m. in the Bethlehem Lutheran church with the Rev. C. A. Wyotek officiating. Saturday the body will be cremated in Houston. But it appeared likely that before that it will lie in state here in Beaumont.

Modest Casket

Thursday night, it rested in a modest casket in the chapel of the Dale Broussard Funeral home.

Sprays of flowers continued to pour in even though the family had asked that none be sent.

Mrs. Louis Didrikson, her sister-in-law, said Babe told her that friends should send money to the Babe Didrikson Zaharias Cancer fund instead of flowers.

Telegrams and messages from all over were coming in. Broussard said. Foremost was one from President Eisenhower.

About 500,000 persons in the U. S. are confined in mental hospitals.

PROS COLLIDE

Wembley, Eng. — (U.P.) — Pancho Gonzales of Los Angeles faced Pancho Segura of Ecuador and Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, Ohio, met Frank Sedgman of Australia in today's semi-final round of the international professional lawn tennis championships.

The final soldier's pension for the War of the Revolution was paid to a widow in Vermont in 1906, or just 123 years after the official termination of that conflict.

Boyd Fights J. Giardello

Cleveland, Ohio — (U.P.) — Chicago's Bobby Boyd, the second ranking middleweight contender, was a 2-1 favorite tonight to stall Joey Giardello's comeback in their nationally televised 10-round fight at the Cleveland Arena.

Boyd, shooting for his 10th consecutive victory, was given the edge on his speed and boxing ability on contrast to Giardello's harder punching. Boyd's height was also a factor against the stocky Philadelphian.

Top Candidates Listed for Tiger Managerial Post

Detroit — (U.P.) — Baseball scout-hunt today pegged Detroit Tiger first base Coach Jack Tighe, Cincinnati Red Legs Manager George R. Birdie Tebbets and St. Louis' Fred Hutchinson as top candidates for the Tigers manager job vacated by Bucky Harris.

No announcement of Harris' successor is expected until after the World Series. So, until then it probably will remain a guessing game, except for one thing—the new manager will be the "fiery aggressive type."

That was the description club President Walter O. (Spike) Briggs used this year in describing a "must" quality of the new manager. The term re-echoed by Harris Thursday when he said in his letter of resignation he assumed the new manager would be a "fiery and aggressive type, one who would fight for the players on the field."

"Obviously," Harris said, "that eliminates me. I prefer to try and get winning results by exercising my best judgment, percentage-wise."

MISSING—Tom Gastall (above), 23-year-old "bonus baby" catcher for the Baltimore Orioles, radioed from his light plane that he was in serious trouble over Chesapeake Bay before losing contact with control tower of Harbor Field in Baltimore. The Coast Guard reported finding a cushion from the plane. Gastall received a reported $40,000 bonus for signing with the Orioles last June when he graduated from Boston University.
