

Teacher Presides At Board Session

Mrs. Maxine Smith, 2001 Spring street, Medford, presided over a board of directors meeting of the Department of Classroom Teachers of the Oregon Education association in Portland Saturday, September 22. A teacher at Medford High school, Mrs. Smith, serves at this year's president of the OEA department.

During the board meeting, it was announced that State Senator Rudie Wilhelm, chairman of the state legislative interim tax study committee, and David C. Guhl, national president of the DCT, have been scheduled to appear before the state group's fall conference in Portland October 26-27.

Senator Wilhelm will address the group on Saturday morning, October 27, on legislation and finance. President Guhl's address will be heard during the annual banquet. Richard Bars, OEA assistant secretary, will also speak to the group on the function of the executive staff of the association. Theme of the two-day conference will be the same as the national department's motto this year: "The Classroom Teacher—Key to an Educated People."

During the September 22 meeting, Mrs. Smith reported on a recent Northwest regional meeting of the DCT when plans were laid for a regional conference in Great Falls, Mont., next March 2-9. In other business, Mrs. Antonia Crater of Newberg, past president of the OEA, was introduced to the board as the new NEA director replacing Margaret Perry.

VFW Auxiliary Hold Meeting In Rogue River

Rogue River—Mrs. Calvin Hinson and Mrs. Homer Classick were hostesses in charge of a recent potluck dinner and program prepared for members of Rogue River post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the auxiliary and their families. About 50 were present for the dinner and the musical program which followed.

Beverly and Jean Allison, Yvonne Pugh, Jeanne Freidenthal, Renee and Danielle Niquette presented a series of tap dance numbers; Kathleen Classick gave a lighted baton twirl and played three accordion selections. One number was dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sparlin, newlyweds. Jean Kay Larson reported on her trip to Camp Low Echo, and thanked the auxiliary for the campership given her. Jean Kay is the eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Larson of Savage Creek road.

The gathering was further entertained by songs by Larry and Cliffie Leyen and Stevie Hopper, and a dance by young Kathy Leshar. Joy Chiamulera was mistress of ceremonies.

Rogue River auxiliary's delegate to the VFW national encampment in Dallas, Texas, Mrs. Ted Hopkins, and Mrs. Leo Orvis, Mrs. John Leven, Mrs. Homer Classick and Mrs. Ed Burkett attended a District 7 meeting at Shady Cove September 16. Mrs. Orvis was elected treasurer to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Reed McKay, who resigned because of ill health.

Next meeting of the Rogue River auxiliary will be October 5. All visiting members are welcome to attend.

Return

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Brainerd have returned to their home at 226 Valley View drive after a brief stay in San Francisco. They attended the fall photographer's market in preparation for the coming holiday season.

Sunday were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Brainerd formerly of Medford and now of Petaluma, Calif.

About 25 per cent of U. S. food is consumed in public eating establishments.

Phoenix Church Sets Family Night; Clothing Sought

Phoenix—Phoenix Presbyterian church will hold the first family night dinner of the season tonight at 6:30 o'clock at the church. These dinners are for the whole family, and each family is to take a hot dish, dessert or salad.

A colored film entitled "My Right and My Cause" will be shown. It is a story of the Bible in Korea.

Membership cards were distributed at a meeting of the Women's association last Thursday. It is hoped to have the full membership enlisted by the first of November.

Luncheon was served at noon by Mrs. Merle Simmonds, Mrs. Floyd Jarman, Mrs. Enid Caster and Mrs. Emma Keith.

Mrs. C. A. Stothers and Mrs. H. A. Root took charge of the study, speaking on church work in East Asia and the Philippines. The meeting was conducted by the secretary, Mrs. Vincent Clafin.

A call has been made for warm clothing in good condition to be sent overseas, and Sunday is the final day for this collection. It is stated that no shoes are needed. Contributions may be left at the church.
