

Swanson-Nelson Wedding Held at Baptist Church

Baskets of white gladioli decorated First Baptist church in Medford Saturday evening, September 15, for the wedding of Millicent Louise Nelson to Curtis Lee Swanson. The Rev. James W. Neeley officiated at the double ring ceremony, read before close friends and relatives.

Miss Nelson is the daughter of Mrs. Ray Deister, 139 Vancouver avenue, Medford, and Roy Nelson, Tacoma, Wash. Mr. Swanson, who made his home in Brookings, Ore., is the son of Carl R. Swanson, Huntington Park, Calif.

The bride wore a waltz length gown of white brocaded satin styled along princess lines with long sleeves and full skirt. Seed pearls and sequins accented the sleeves and neckline as well as the bonnet of white satin which held her finger tip veil. She carried a white Bible, a birthday gift from her mother, with an orchid and white stephanotis. Mr. Deister gave the bride in marriage.

Mrs. David Erickson, Corvallis, Ore., was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a pale green tulle dress with a white sash and a white bow at the waist. Her bouquet was of yellow carnations.

David Erickson served as best man. Mrs. Ted Graham was organist and accompanied Gary Gustison, soloist. Candlelighters were Lee Garrett and Robert Schofield, Galice, Ore., who also ushered.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church. Mrs. Lavona Manuel, cousin of the bride, served the tiered wedding cake and Miss Joan Risley, Portland, served punch. Mrs. Lee Garrett was in charge of the guest book while Mrs. Melvin Frick was at the gift table. Mrs. Garrett and Mrs. Frick are cousins of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Deister wore a two piece dress of rose lace and rayon crepe with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink baby rosebuds.

The bride chose for her traveling attire a pink light weight wool dress with matching hat and gloves. Her other accessories were brown and she wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The former Miss Nelson is a graduate of Medford High school and the University of Oregon School of Nursing in Portland. She was employed by the Samaritan hospital in Corvallis until two months ago when she moved to Medford and was doing special nursing at Sacred Heart hospital here.

Mr. Swanson is a graduate of Oregon State college and served with the United States Marine Corps. He is employed by the United States Forest Service at Brookings where the newlywed couple will make their home.

Ceremony Weds LaRue May Roda, Charles Naffziger

LaRue May Roda and Charles Enos Naffziger were married Sunday, September 23, in a ceremony held at Mr. Naffziger's home, 116 South Ivy street. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, read the service at one o'clock in the afternoon, with 25 guests attending.

The bride wore a tan linen suit with white accessories with pearl necklace and earrings. Her corsage was of pink roses and she carried white and lavender gladioli.

Mrs. Ralph Dillon was matron-of-honor. She wore a dress of tan linen with white accessories and her flowers were pink roses. Mr. Dillon was best man for Mr. Naffziger.

Mrs. Maude Arnold played the wedding music.

The reception which followed was given by the bride's daughters and Mrs. John Schmelter. About 70 guests attended.

The bride is an employee of the Dumas laundry and Mr. Naffziger is a real estate broker.

Couple Returns From California; Attend Concert

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Bebb returned last week after two weeks in the Carmel and San Francisco areas. They were in San Francisco during the week of the Italian festival which ended with the opera concert at the Opera house, which they attended. Renata Tebaldi, soprano, and Giorgio Tozzi, basso, of the LaScala Opera company in Milan, Italy, were featured in the concert with the San Francisco Opera orchestra.

From San Francisco the Bebb's motored to Carmel with their son, Ward, who is in business in San Francisco. At Carmel they played golf and attended the Open Golf tournament at Cypress Point Country club.

Mrs. Bebb will reopen her music studio October 3.

Farewell Party Given for Girls

Miss Juleen Bray and her sister Maureen were given a farewell party Wednesday by members of their respective Junior age Sunday school classes of the Assembly of God church.

The girls, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Bray, 4 South Orange street, are moving this week to Butte, Mont., with their parents, where Mr. Bray is employed.

Mrs. Rolland Myers, 1425 Dakota avenue, assisted by the girls' teachers, Mrs. Earl Heft and Mrs. William T. Jeffrey, entertained the group in her home.

Among friends and class members attending were Lois Rasmussen, Lois Jacobs, Janice Bowman, Christina Buckmaster, Pamela Jones, Darlene Myers, Lilly Carol Myers, Wesley Myers, Sharon Bowman, Deanne Strong, Sandra Jones, Judy Brookman, Deanna Jean Arnold, Lennie Jacobs and Jean Banks.

Eagle Point Church Scene Of McCoy-Arthur Ceremony

Eagle Point—Eagle Point Community Bible church was the setting Saturday, September 22, for the 8 o'clock evening wedding of Miss Colleen Dorrette Arthur to Claude Oliver McCoy Jr. The Rev. Joseph Munshaw officiated at the ceremony attended by 100 relatives and friends.

Miss Arthur is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. Arthur, Route 2, Box 217B, Medford. She has been making her home in Eagle Point. Mr. McCoy is the son of Mrs. Claude O. McCoy Sr. of San Diego, Calif.

The bride wore a gown of white lace and satin fashioned with fitted bodice, long sleeves, and full skirt. Her fingertip veil was held by a Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls and she carried a white orchid on a white Bible. Her pearl necklace was a gift from the bridegroom. Mr. Arthur gave his daughter in marriage.

Maid of honor was Miss D'Anne Clark of Central Point, and bridesmaid was Miss Gayle Turner of Eugene. Both wore dresses of deep rose velvet with matching hats and carried cascade bouquets of white chrysanthemums. Miss Sallie Greaser, Medford, and Miss Marion Arthur, Eagle Point, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles.

Joe Hart, Seattle, served as best man while Bob Fisher, San Diego, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Ray Chamberlain and Darrell Stanley, ushered.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Chamberlain. Mrs. Joe Munshaw accompanied Joe Hart, soloist. Large baskets of white chrysanthemums and deep rose asters decorated the church.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship room of the church. Mrs. Ben Greaser and Mrs. Leo Lawrence, aunts of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Ollie Connor and Mrs. Carroll Powell, also aunts of the bride, presided at the punch bowls. Mrs. Dave Kahl was in charge of the guest book. Miss Jean Bitterling and Mrs. Jim Gleason were at the gift table.

For her traveling attire the former Miss Arthur wore a white fallie sheath dress with black velvet bolero and matching accessories.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Arthur wore a dress in aquamarine color with matching accessories. Mrs. McCoy, who attended the wedding from San Rhinestone pins and buckles can be brightened by soaking them in gasoline for about 15 minutes and then rubbing with a flannel cloth.

Shannon Greene Becomes Bride of Air Force Officer

Colonel and Mrs. Fred Wilbur Greene of Rogue Oaks, Medford, announce the marriage of their daughter, Shannon Collins Greene, to Lt. Dennis Russell Mitchell of the United States Air Force. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gates Mitchell of Beaver, Pa.

The ceremony took place Saturday, September 15, at St. John's Catholic church in Hondo, Tex., with Father Crook officiating. Lt. and Mrs. Vincent P. Roy attended the couple, and were hosts for a small reception at their home to honor the newlywed couple.

The couple made a wedding trip to Monterey, Mexico, and will be at home at 34 Oak street, Hondo, after the first of October. The bride attended Mary Baldwin college, Staunton, Va., and the University of North Carolina. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

The bridegroom was graduated from the University of North Carolina last February, and is affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity. The officer is assigned to duty at the Hondo Air Force base.
