

Mrs. Sumpter (Kitty) Smith is pictured here at a tea Monday afternoon which celebrated her 83rd birthday anniversary. Mrs. Smith, widow of an early-day newspaper editor in Medford, first came to the Rogue valley in 1908 and has watched and participated in the city's development and growth. About 50 friends called during the tea, held in the garden at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Phetteplace, 2318 Capital avenue.

Medford Woman Honor Guest At Birthday Tea on Monday

Mrs. Sumpter (Kitty) Smith was honored at a tea Monday afternoon which celebrated her 83rd birthday anniversary. The party was held in the garden at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Phetteplace, 2318 Capital avenue.

Mrs. Phetteplace was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Reter. Pouring and serving the birthday cakes were Mrs. W. A. Arnold and Mrs. W. H. Reichstein. About 50 guests called to extend best wishes.

Mrs. Smith was born in Logan, Ill., in 1873.

Mrs. Smith and her late husband first came to Medford in 1908 on a visit. They returned to their home in Kansas, and a short time later came back to Oregon to make their permanent home. Mr. Smith, one of the city's early-day newspaper men, edited the Medford Sun, a daily paper which later was merged with another daily to become the present-day Medford Mail Tribune.

During the tea Monday Mrs. Smith recalled how the first church services she attended here were held upstairs in a business building which stood in the block with the present Medford hotel building. At that time there were no sidewalks in Medford, and but few buildings. The congregation was that of First Christian church, and she has been a member of that denomination ever since. Mr. Smith was a life elder of the

Four Units Arrange Meetings

Four extension units have arranged meetings for this week.

Medford Parents' unit will meet Tuesday, October 2, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. H. A. Clement, 1223 West Main street. The project will be sofa pillows, and leaders will be Mrs. John Johnson and Mrs. Nick DeWitt. Hostesses will be Mrs. A. F. Filatreau and Mrs. Glenn Stewart. Anyone interested in extension work is cordially invited to attend. Those wishing transportation are asked to call Mrs. William Jensen, 2-4690.

Westside unit will hold its monthly meeting Friday, October 3, at 10:45 a.m. in the Central Point Grange hall. This is the first meeting of the current season and all interested women of the community are invited to attend.

Mrs. Maud Purvine, county extension agent-at-large from Oregon State college, will present the lesson "Family Business and Law." Mrs. Purvine has made an intensive study of this subject and it is believed her remarks will be of interest to every homemaker.

A planned luncheon will be served at noon. Each person attending is to take her own service.

The meeting has been postponed one day from the regular meeting date. This is necessary due to the fact that Mrs. Purvine is currently conducting workshops training leaders for later meetings and is unable to be present on the regular meeting date.

University Plans Parents Week End

Salem — Plans for the seventh annual Parents' week end October 19-21 on the Willamette university campus in Salem are being set in motion by manager George Nye of Portland.

Post cards are in the mail to all parents of the 124 students living in the Medford area, telling them of the week end and inviting them to attend.

Part of the week end activities will include the annual show, Variety Varieties, composed of student talent on Friday evening, October 19. Registration, the annual parents' meeting and election of officers, a one-act play presented by the drama department, and a football game with College of Pacific complete the program.

Last year over 500 parents attended the week end, coming from as near as Salem and as

Session Announced For Garden Club; Sale To Be Held

Medford Garden club will meet Thursday, October 4, at 2 p.m. in the courthouse auditorium. A social hour will follow the business meeting. Mrs. H. M. Noble, Oakland, Ore., will be the speaker and her subject will be "Birds—Their Economic Value."

All members are reminded to take rummage, "white elephants," and fancy work to the Feh! building between 7 and 9 p.m. Tuesday, October 2, for the district sale Wednesday, October 3.

Any member who has flowers that could be used for the federation display, in Phoenix on October 5, is asked to take them to the meeting Thursday at the courthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Earhart were guests in Medford last week of Mr. Earhart's parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Earhart, 11 North Peach street. The two men are spending the week end hunting in the Klamath Falls area, and the visitors will return to their home in Portland from there.

Mr. Earhart is enrolled in the University of Oregon School of Dentistry for his senior year.
