

Annual Business Women's Week To Close With Tea

The annual autumn tea of Medford Business and Professional Women's club will close the local observance of National Business Women's week. The tea will be held this afternoon in the Medford hotel Rogue room from three to five o'clock.

Mrs. Harriet Watson, director and past president of the club, was chosen "Beep of the Week" because of her "outstanding service" to her club. Mrs. Watson, who has been honored at a number of events during the week, will receive members and guests along with officers of the executive board. In the receiving line with Mrs. Watson will be Miss Vada Brower, president; Mrs. Marion Wood, first vice president; Mrs. Georgia White, second vice president; Mrs. Gertrude Blind, treasurer; Mrs. Muriel Burn, recording secretary; Mrs. Jean Mast, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Glenna Corson, auditor; Mrs. Frida Burger, Miss Grace Stuhr and Miss Laura York, directors.

Mrs. Inez Friel, chairman of National Business Women's week's events, will be assisted by Miss Hazel Swayne, in charge of the tea service; Miss Viola Dietrich, in charge of the guest book; Mrs. Florence Lance, BPW exhibit table; Mrs. Beulah Nathan, refreshments. The table decorations will be in the BPW and autumn colors, green and gold.

Miss Swayne has arranged to honor eight past presidents out of the 27 women who have served in that capacity since the local club was founded in 1924. These eight women will preside over the tea table during the afternoon. Mrs. Maurine Conger, Mrs. Florence Lance, Miss Laura York, and Mrs. Watson will pour from three o'clock until four. Pouring from four until five o'clock will be Mrs. Maude K. Chapman, Mrs. Maude Snider, Mrs. Bert Pree, and Miss Swayne.

Pledge to advance the interests of business and professional women, the 3,300 clubs in 48 states and Alaska, Hawaii, and District of Columbia, are all celebrating National Business Women's Week, spotlighting the needs of working women and the contributions they have made to the local and national economy.

In 29 foreign countries, federations of "Beeps" of other races are meeting and talking and working for better standards for women in business and the professions, securing legislation, and extending career opportunities through educational, industrial, and vocational programs.

Information material regarding the scope of these activities will be shown at the BPW exhibit table for the benefit of prospective members attending the tea. This will include material on the new World Wide foundation established this year and which provides a research center at national headquarters on DuPont circle, Washington, D.C., for the purpose of conducting special studies on the legal and economic status of the business woman.

Morris Jimenez To Be Speaker At Guild Dinner

Morris Jimenez will speak at a meeting of Westminster guild of First Presbyterian church in the recreation room of the church Monday, October 1. A potluck dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m.

Mr. Jimenez will speak on the Klamath Indian, continuing the group's study of the various Indian tribes of the United States. Members are to take guests.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Kathryn Lundquist, Mrs. Frances Patton and Mrs. Cosette Jones. Mrs. Edith Baker and Mrs. May Brown in charge of the program.

Those whose names begin with letters A through D are asked to take a meat dish; D through M, a vegetable; N through Y, a salad.

Mrs. Christy Massey enjoys the party refreshments which were served Wednesday afternoon when she was honored on the occasion of her 90th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Massey, who came here from Klamath county 34 years ago, lives at 520 1/2 Fir street. The party was held at the home of her grandson, Charles L. Jones, 711 Sherman street, and five generations of the family attended.

90th Birthday Anniversary Observed by Medford Woman

Mrs. Christy Massey celebrated her 90th birthday anniversary Wednesday, September 26, and was honored at a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Jones, 711 Sherman street. Relatives and friends attended.

Five generations of her family attended the party. They were Mrs. Massey, her daughter, Mrs. K. D. Jones, who lives at 320 Mary street, her grandson, Charles L. Jones of the Sherman street address, her great-granddaughter, Mrs. John Niles, and her great-grandson, Mark Niles, one year old.

Mrs. Niles was also honored, since she was born on her great-grandmother's birthday.

Mrs. Massey was born in Ottawa county, Michigan, in 1846. She was one of the pioneer women who crossed the plains by ox team in the olden days. Mrs. Massey and her first husband homesteaded land in Klamath county, and she lived in that area for many years before coming to Medford 34 years ago.

The elderly woman lived an active life until recent months. She has occupied her time with sewing, and still does considerable reading. Mrs. Massey's home is at 520 1/2 Fir street in Medford.

Mt. Pitt Lodge Plans Meeting Wednesday

Central Point—Mt. Pitt Rebekah lodge, Central Point, will hold a business meeting, Wednesday, October 3, at 8 p.m. at the IOOF Hall. Members of the FL club will be honored.

Also to be honored at the meeting will be those members who had birthdays in September. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. J. E. Farrar, Mrs. Edward Jones, and Mrs. William Musty.

Wednesday Club To Hold Luncheon

Wednesday Study club will open the 1935-37 season with a luncheon Wednesday, October 3, in the Rogue room of the Medford hotel. Luncheon will be served at 1 p.m.

This club is the oldest women's organization in the valley.

New Ideas For Arrangements Program Topic

Phoenix — "What's New in Flower Arrangement" is the topic for an afternoon program to be presented by Mrs. J. T. Wealunt and Mrs. G. O. Bennett of Chicago, Calif., Friday, October 5, in the Phoenix Community club. Hours are 1 to 4 p.m.

This demonstration on flower arranging for which a nominal charge will be made, is being planned by Mrs. Gaston Floux, Central Point, flower show school chairman for Siskiyou district, Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, to raise funds for the flower show school.

Mrs. Wealunt and Mrs. Bennett are both members of the Sacramento, Calif., Arrangers' guild.

Phoenix Garden club is sponsoring the program and members will be hostesses for the event.

An arrangement bowl from Town House Pottery company will be awarded to the garden club selling the most tickets, and the award will be on a percentage basis.

Tickets may be secured from Mrs. Floux, Route 1, Box 50, Central Point; Mrs. Charles Stearns, 522 West Fourth street, Medford; Mrs. J. E. Harper, 716 East Jackson boulevard, Medford, or from any garden club president. They will also be sold at the door the day of the show.

Mrs. Floux urges all members taking Course No. 4 in the Flower show school to study gladiolus, dahlias, chrysanthemums and annuals.

Shower Given For Mrs. Robert Work

Elk Creek — A shower was given at the home of Mrs. Oscar Hansen on Elk Creek Tuesday afternoon honoring Mrs. Robert Work. Hostesses were Mrs. Lewis Dusenberry, Mrs. Morris Bush and Mrs. Oscar Hansen.

Refreshments followed the opening of gifts.

Guests were Mrs. E. H. Hedrick, Medford, mother of the honored guest, Mrs. Arthur Hume, Mrs. Harry Caseberry, Mrs. Kenneth Lacey, Mrs. U. R. Wagner, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Mrs. Al Johnston, Mrs. William Nussbaum, Mrs. Robert Peck, Mrs. Gene Anderson, Mrs. Ernest Sacket, Mrs. Richard Eastin, Mrs. Carl Scott, Mrs. Joe Oliver, Mrs. Wayne Ash and Mrs. Frank Selto.

Gardeners Plan Visits to Homes

Central Point—A pilgrimage is planned by the Central Point Garden club at its regular meeting Wednesday, October 3, that will take the members to four homes. One room in each will exemplify the theme "the gardener in her home."

Members who plan to attend should take a sack lunch and meet at the American Legion hall, East Pine street, at 10 a.m. The pilgrimage will leave from there and transportation will be provided for those without cars.

For general table use, bread should be thawed in its original wrapper or in waxed paper to keep moisture from condensing on the crust.

Reception Given for Teachers

Central Point—More than 150 parents and teachers attended a reception for the teachers of the Central Point primary and elementary schools September 27 in the Junior High school library. C. A. Meyer and George Johns, principals of the schools, introduced the teachers. Forty-three teachers were presented.

The first PTA meeting will be held Thursday, October 18 at 8 p.m. in the Junior High library. Guest speaker for the evening will be Dr. Loren Messenger, clinical psychologist from Southern Oregon college, who will speak on "Meet the Changing Needs of the Child Through the Years."

The executive committee met September 25 and a budget was approved by the budget committee.

The membership drive contest that is now in progress is tied between Mrs. Feller's third grade and Mrs. Jewett's second grade. The membership drive will end Wednesday, October 3.

The PTA is saving the unwinding bands from MJB coffee for a coffee-maker. Parents are asked to bring them to the meetings.

Medford Woman Attends Meeting Of National DUV

Mrs. F. A. Daugherty recently returned to her home on Kings highway from St. Louis, Mo., where she attended the national convention of Daughters of Union Veterans.

During her stay in St. Louis Mrs. Daugherty enjoyed a tour of the city and a ride on the Mississippi river boat, Admiral. She also visited Kansas City, Mo., where she attended the national convention of Daughters of Union Veterans.

En route home Mrs. Daugherty traveled through the Ozark mountains and visited two sisters and their families at Carthage and Sarcocite, Mo. While in Carthage she attended a picnic given by the Daughters of Union Veterans. She spent some time with an aunt at Mt. Vernon, Mo., who still drives her car at the age of 93 years.

Mrs. Daugherty visited the country grade school where she went to school as a girl, and which is still being used. The high school she attended has been replaced by a larger building.

The return trip from Carthage was by way of Joplin, Mo., Wichita, Kan., Denver and Sacramento.

Attention Ladies . . .

Dear Ladies:

I just have to tell you about my good fortune. I just finished a slenderizing course at LILLIE'S HEALTH & SLENDERIZING SALON, and in only 10 visits, I can get back into my size 16 dress again. Am I thrilled.

You'll just have to go see for yourself. Her equipment is wonderful and so easy to use. No strenuous exercising to tire you out. She has one piece of equipment . . . all you have to do is lie down and relax, and it does all the work. Then a steam bath and massage and you feel as though you were all new. Oh yes, her steam cabinet—you won't have to worry about your hair do.

Maybe you don't need to slenderize. Well, she can help you too. Just try a Steam Bath and massage. It's good for your morale, besides helping all sorts of aches and pains. You'll be hearing from me again, but in the meantime call Mrs. Lillie for an appointment. won't you? She will be very happy to make them to suit your convenience. I'm sure you won't be sorry.
