

STENGEL JUGGLES LINE-UP FOR WORLD SERIES BRUSH

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor
Brooklyn — (U.P.) — Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees, trying to even the World Series against the Brooklyn Dodgers at one game all, changed his lineup today for the second game, delayed 24 hours by Thursday's rain.

Hoping to get more batting power, he benched first baseman Bill Skowron and third baseman Andy Carey and put the left handed hitting Joe Collins and the veteran Gerry Coleman in their places.

Stengel call on Don Larsen, an 11-game winner who pitched his best ball toward the close of the season, to face Don Newcombe, the Dodgers 27-game winner.

It was a clear, sunny day, but there was a strong chilly wind blowing in from left field toward home plate.

Adlai Attends
Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic presidential candidate, entered Ebbets field and was escorted to a box near the Dodger dugout. Joining him in the box were Gov. and Mrs. Averell Harriman, Mayor and Mrs. Robert Wagner and Walter O'Malley, president of the Dodgers.

Managers Casey Stengel of the Yankees and Walter Alston of Brooklyn went over to meet Stevenson and posed with him for photographers.

First Stevenson posed with Stengel's cap on, then with Alston's cap and finally wore both caps.

Later he threw out the first ball, as President Eisenhower did for the opening series game here Wednesday.

Newcombe, the major league's top winning pitcher this year with 27 victories, was out to crack a personal Series jinx and thus give the Dodgers a commanding two-game lead in the classic.

Larsen won only 11 games but was the Yankees' best pitcher in the last days of the regular season.

Both hurlers were the original pitching choices before rain postponed the second game Thursday.

Helps Dodgers
The rainout was viewed as favorable to the Dodgers, inasmuch as it gave 39-year-old Sal Maglie, the dramatic 6-3 victor over the Yankees in Wednesday's Ashland — Southern Oregon college and Humboldt State college junior varsity football clubs will tangle at 2 p. m. Saturday on the Ashland school's field.

Humboldt with an overall turnout of some 60 players will bring a group of players who rank below the top 33 of its squad.

Some 20 players turned out last Monday for the SOC Jayvee crew. Coach Al Akins hasn't mentioned any names but has indicated that a couple of the Jayvees will be up with the varsity if they continue to show as well as they have in practice so far this week.

Defending co-champion Lewis and Clark College of Idaho tangle at Caldwell Sturaday in a game which could decide the 1956 Northwest Conference football crown.

Each team holds two wins this season, one each in conference play.

There is one other counting contest in the Northwest loop. This sends Willamette to Forest Grove Saturday night to meet Pacific.

Linfield entertains the Seattle Ramblers and Whitman has an open date.

TRADE BAIT?
New York — (U.P.) — Gale Paul, vice president and general manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs, today declined to comment on a report that first baseman Ted Kluszewski of the Redlegs has been offered as trade bait to other National League teams.

opener, an extra day of rest but the odds-makers still are sticking with the Yankees. They've made today's game a pick 'em affair but made the Yankees 11-10 favorites to take the Series.

It was assumed that the extra day of rest would help Newcombe, who last pitched on Sunday, but the big pitcher and Alston weren't too sure that would be the case. Both pointed out that Newcombe is a pin-point control pitcher who is sometimes affected by too much rest.

Alston indicated he was toying with idea of starting Clem Labine, Brooklyn's regular-season relief specialist, in Saturday's third game if he is not needed in relief today. Labine started two games in the late stages of the hectic National League pennant race.
