Butte Falls Church Gets New Church Building Through Community Effort

Butte Falls—Butte Falls Community church a year ago, with only $237 in its treasury, decided it could no longer delay the building of a new church. Determined not to go into debt, they laid the foundation, and added to it only as funds and materials could be obtained.

Christian Faith Classes Planned By St. Mark's

Classes of instruction in religion and the basic tenets of the Christian faith, especially designed for adults, will start Sunday, Oct. 7, at 9:30 a. m. in the Annex of St. Mark's Episcopal church, and will continue for 10 weeks.

These classes, to be conducted by the Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector of St. Mark's, will be open to all to attend and will involve no commitment to further association with the church.

Inquirers and others without present church affiliations will be welcomed and the classes will allow ample opportunity for questions and discussion.

Subjects to be covered in the series will include church history, church teaching, practice, worship, the Christian sacraments, the Bible, the Book of Common Prayer, the organization and discipline of the church, and will conclude with sessions on personal religion.

A baby sitter will be available to care for small children below church school age. The Annex building is located immediately behind the new church school building on North Oakdale.

Unitarian Fellowship To Sponsor Meetings

The Unitarian fellowship of Grants Pays is sponsoring two meetings next week featuring the Rev. Horace Batchelder, Congregational minister of Oregon City and an ordained Unitarian minister.

The first meeting will be held Monday, Oct. 8 at 7 p. m. A potluck supper will begin the evening and a movie will be shown for the children. Mr. Batchelder will lead a discussion on the problems of a liberal religion.

A similar meeting will be held Tuesday at 8 p. m. Both meetings will be held upstairs at 324 N. W. Sixth, Grants Pays.

The Unitarian fellowship of Medford and Ashland and all interested persons are invited to attend.

Fireplace Dedication

The young people of the Ashland Methodist church will participate Sunday in the dedication of the new outdoor fireplace at the church.

The fireplace, which will be available to all groups of the church, was built with money raised by the young people who also aided in its construction. R. N. Chaney, stone and brick mason, built the fireplace.

The dedication will be held Sunday at 5 p. m. and members of the church and their friends are invited to attend the ceremony.

World Wide Communion To Be Observed Sunday

World Wide Communion Sunday will be observed by the majority of the churches in the valley this Sunday.

Some churches have scheduled extra services to provide for the anticipated attendance. Others are planning special programs with new members being received into the fellowship of the church.

Congregational Church
Communion will be observed at the Congregational church at both services this Sunday. Since this day is also promotion Sunday for the Sunday school parents with children in the Sunday school are asked to attend the 9:45 a. m. service.

Eastwood Baptist Church
Special emphasis will be given to missions during the services Sunday when world communion will be observed at the Eastwood Baptist church, North Keene Way dr. at Ridgeway.

At the 11 a. m. service at the World Fellowship offering will be received. This is one of two special offerings taken during the year in the American Baptist convention churches to aid work in foreign countries.

Following the sermon, "A New Covenant," by the pastor, the Rev. Richard M. Jones, the Lord's Supper will be observed. Deacons Don Matheus, John Yungen, Paul Walker, and Ron Rice will serve.

First Methodist Church
Two special additional services at the First Methodist church will be held Sunday during the observance of World Wide communion. These services have been scheduled in the Memorial chapel at 8:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. so that all persons wishing to participate in the communion service may do so.

Communion will also be observed at the regular 9:30 and 11 a. m. services when Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb will preach on "Every Man's Debt."

The Youth choir under the direction of Mrs. E. L. Porter will sing the anthem at the 9:30 a. m. service with the Chancel choir directed by Mrs. C. R. Adamson singing at the 11 a. m. service. Mrs. Larry Hammond will be soloist for both services with Mrs. Jerry Sherman organist.

First Presbyterian Church
The sacrament of holy communion will be observed at the First Presbyterian church at both services Sunday. At the second service new members will be received into the church.

Dr. D. Kirkland West will preach on "After Communion, What?"

New Series Starts Sunday Evening At Eastwood Baptist

A series of open discussions on basic doctrines of faith will begin Sunday evening at the Eastwood Baptist church, located just north of the Hedrick Junior High school.

The series is titled, "Christian Brass Tacks."

To be considered this Sunday will be the doctrine of God with an opportunity for questions and discussion followed by an inspiration time to close the evening.

Convention Delegate

The Rev. G. Herbert Hillerman, 220 North Oakdale st., pastor of Zion Evangelical Lutheran church, left Oct. 1 for Harrisburg, Pa., as a delegate to the 20th biennial convention of the United Lutheran church in America to be held Oct. 10 through 17.

Mr. Hillerman will be an official representative of the Pacific Synod.
