

Recommended

The first in a series of articles discussing the capital improvement program, in Medford appears on page 12 of today's Mail Tribune.

51st Year

MEDFORD

United Press—Full Leased Wire

TRIBUNE

United Press

Price 10c

Subscribers

To report improper or non-delivery of the Mail Tribune phone 2-6141 before 6:45 a.m. daily and 10:30 a.m. Sunday. If regular delivery arrives shortly after you call please notify office thus eliminating special messenger service.

34 Pages

MEDFORD, OREGON, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1956

CONTROL BLAZE—Answering a call at 2602 Springbrook rd. Friday evening, Medford rural fire department made quick work of a blaze that threatened two homes belonging to R. J. Sutton of Medford. Above, fireman Otis Johnson plays a spray of water on the back of the burning house. Flames had destroyed the garage in the background before fire equipment arrived. Burned out of the rented home was the Oscar J. Haugen family, whose Gold Hill residence was destroyed by fire less than a month ago.

Family Homeless After Second Fire In Less Than Month

The Oscar J. Haugen family, whose home in Gold Hill was destroyed by fire Sept. 15, was made homeless again when another fire destroyed the house they were renting on Springbrook rd. Friday evening. The alarm was turned in to the Medford rural fire department about 5:45 p.m. and two pumpers were dispatched to the scene in time to save a second house on the property belonging to R. J. Sutton of 807 Bennett st., Medford.

The fire, originating in the Haugen's garage, burned two outbuildings and gutted the inside of the house. Sutton said the property was not adequately covered by insurance. Haugen, who was severely burned in the Gold Hill fire when he rescued one of his four children from the blaze, just recently was able to return to work. All their furniture and other possessions, donated to them by friends in Gold Hill, were destroyed in the fire.

Federal Court to Resume Here Monday

The federal district court will resume session at 2 p.m. Monday in the federal courtroom of the Medford post office building. The court was adjourned Wednesday after Joseph C. Ayoutt, New Pine Creek, Ore., was awarded $75,000 damages out of court in a personal injury suit against Medford Corporation. The suit grew out of an accident near Central Point May 4, 1956. Six other cases are on the calendar for the term, which started Tuesday. Gus Solomon, Portland, U. S. district judge, is presiding.

County Receives Its Share Of State Revenues, Funds

Jackson county last week received a total of $146,618.50 as its share of state alcoholic beverage and motor vehicle revenues and funds from the federal Taylor Grazing act, according to Karl Janouch, county treasurer. The county received $136,982.89 from vehicle license fees, fuel taxes and traffic fines in the state for the months of July, August and September. A total of $16,236,462.81 was distributed among the counties and Jackson county's share was fifth highest. Each county's share of the fund is based on the number of motor vehicles registered there. Jackson county has a total of 36,448 registered vehicles. The

McKeon's Sentence Is Reduced by Secretary

Parris Island, S. C. — (U.P.) — S-Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon, has received a big reduction in his "death march" court martial sentence, including a chance to stay in the Marine Corps. Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas late Friday overruled a bad conduct discharge that a court martial board handed the 27-year-old drill sergeant for the march that killed six recruits. Thomas decreed that McKeon be broken to private but reduced his hard-labor sentence from nine to three months. He also abolished a $30 monthly pay forfeiture, saying the reduction in rate would incur a greater pay loss than this.

Thomas said he believes the "real punishment" will be the "memory of those youngsters" who drowned in a night march into a tidal creek last April 8. Worst Part McKeon said the worst part of the sentence given him after a long court martial trial last July and August was that it made it impossible for him to continue his Marine Corps career. McKeon told newsmen who contacted him after the Navy secretary's action was announced in Washington that he had already been forewarned by his attorney, Emile Zola Berman, to make no statement.

When the reporters contacted Berman, in New York by telephone he gave them permission to interview McKeon but by then the sergeant had gone to the home of a Navy chaplain, Comdr. Maurus Cook. Cook, Roman Catholic chaplain of the Parris Island Marine Corps base, refused to permit an interview because, he said, Berman had not told him of having rescinded his "no interview" request. McKeon, since the court martial verdict, has been living under a restriction which permitted him to continue living at his home at Port Royal, S.C., near the base, with his wife and three small children.

Results of the census will be considered effective Oct. 25. A total of $982.32 was received as the county's share of the Taylor Grazing act fund. This is based on receipts for leases and rentals on federal land in the state for the past year. This money is to be used for improvement of public grazing lands in the county.

Enumerators will travel from door to door within the district obtaining data on youngsters between the ages of 4 and 19. Information obtained in the survey will be used in determining legislative funds to be awarded to the school district. The district receives $80 per census child each year. Any youth between the ages of 4 and 19, whose parents live within the district, will be included in the census. This is true regardless of whether or not he is attending school, living elsewhere or is serving in the armed forces, Becken stated.

Though it is not required that youngsters under four years of age be listed, Becken said the district is considering obtaining their names and ages during the survey. Information on youngsters under four years old would be used in anticipating future needs in the school program, he said. Results of the census will be considered effective Oct. 25.

Office Candidates Expected to Attend Fair Here Oct. 11

Candidates for county and state offices, as well as some national offices, have indicated they plan to participate in the Candidates' Fair sponsored by the Veterans Allied Council Thursday, Oct. 11, Pat Graham, has announced. Graham, secretary of the council, said Sen. Wayne Morse, who will be in Medford that day, will attend the fair. He is scheduled to speak at 7:30 p.m. at the Labor temple, location for the Candidates' Fair. Accept Invitations Graham said local candidates have accepted invitations, and plan to attend. Several state candidates have accepted invitations, he said, but some of them will be unable to attend. They plan to send representatives, Graham said. Senator Morse plans a day of campaigning in Jackson County Thursday. The trip originally was scheduled Wednesday, but because Presidential Candidate Adlai Stevenson will be in Portland, Senator Morse changed the date of the Jackson county visit.

Besides speaking at the Labor temple at 7:30 p.m., other talks are scheduled at 1 p.m. at Southern Oregon college in Ashland, and at 8:30 p.m. at the Esquire theater. Next Sunday, Sen. Albert Gore of Tennessee is scheduled to visit in Medford.

McKeon said the worst part of the sentence given him after a long court martial trial last July and August was that it made it impossible for him to continue his Marine Corps career. McKeon told newsmen who contacted him after the Navy secretary's action was announced in Washington that he had already been forewarned by his attorney, Emile Zola Berman, to make no statement.

12 Killed When Truck Plunges Down Ravine

Bobbio, Italy — (U.P.) — A truck plunged 200 feet down a ravine and buried itself in the deep Trebbia River near here last night, killing 12 persons. Eight persons who escaped were injured, some of them seriously. Police said the truck, carrying 20 persons, swerved off the high road between Bobbio and Corti Brinnatella, and somersaulted down the ravine into the river.

Weather

FORECAST: Fair today, becoming partly cloudy tonight and Monday. High today 85, low tonight 43. High Monday 82.

Highest Yesterday 89
Lowest Yesterday 41

Our Skies Tonight

Sunrise 6:15 a.m.
Sunset 5:13 p.m.
Moonset 7:33 p.m.

SATURN, seen near the Moon tonight, is now about 985 million miles from the Earth. It will leave the evening sky in a few weeks and return as a morning star late in December.

Football Scores

Michigan State 19, Michigan 0.
Washington State 33, Idaho 19.
Oklahoma 66, Kansas State 0.
Ohio State 32, Stanford 20.
Texas Christian 41, Arkansas 6.
Tennessee 33, Duke 20.
Auburn 41, Furman 0.
Virginia 7, Wake Forest 6.
Baylor 14, Maryland 0.
Mississippi State 19, Georgia 7.
Kentucky 17, Florida 8.
South Carolina 14, North Carolina 0.
Pennsylvania 14, Dartmouth 7.
Army 14, Penn State 7.
Navy 14, Cornell 0.
Holy Cross 20, Colgate 0.
Princeton 39, Columbia 0.
Tufts 19, Harvard 13.
Yale 20, Brown 2.
Notre Dame 20, Indiana 7.
Tulane 20, Northwestern 13.
Southern Methodist 33, Missouri 27.
Minnesota 21, Purdue 14.
Iowa 14, Oregon State 13.
Southern California 13, Wisconsin 6.
Colorado 26, Kansas 25.
California 14, Pittsburg 0.
Washington 28, Illinois 13.

Yankees Win Third Game of Series, 5-3, On Home Run

Slaughter Brings N.Y. Out of Deficit

New York — (U.P.) — Forty-four-year-old Country Slaughter, an old pro who refuses to go down the other side of the baseball hill came up with a three-run homer Saturday that gave the New York Yankees a 5-3 victory and their first win over the Brooklyn Dodgers after two straight World Series defeats. The Yankees had their backs tight against the Yankee Stadium wall two games down and trailing 2-1 when Slaughter went to the plate with two men on and two away in the sixth inning. Slaughter, who came to the Yankees Aug. 26, didn't disappoint the roaring crowd of 73,977. Old Enos worked the count to 3 and 1 and, in the twilight of his career, reached back 10 years into the past for a blast that put the Yankees on top to stay. Slaughter had hit his last previous World Series homer in 1946, almost 10 years ago to the day.

PLAY-BY-PLAY: Dodgers first: Gilliam bounced out. Reese struck out. Snider went down swinging. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left. Yankees first: Bauer flied out. Collins flied out. Mantle singled. Berza grounded out. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left. Dodgers second: Robinson walked. Hodges singled. Furillo flied to Bauer. Robinson going to third after catch. Campanella flied out. Robinson scoring. Berza grounded out. Yankees ahead, 1-0. Neal fouled to Berza. One run, one hit, no errors, one left. Yankees third: Slaughter flied out. Martin homered, tying score, 1-1. McDougald walked. Carey called out on strikes. Ford called out on strikes. One run, one hit, no errors, one left. Dodgers third: Craig singled. Gilliam hit into double play. Reese singled. Snider struck out. No runs, two hits, no errors, one left. Yankees fourth: Bauer struck out. Collins grounded out. Mantle fouled out to Campanella. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left. Dodgers fourth: Robinson thrown out at first. Hodges grounded out. Furillo called out on strikes. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left. Yankees fifth: Berza flied out. Slaughter singled. Snider hit into double play. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left. Dodgers fifth: Campanella singled. Snider struck out. Campanella thrown out. Berza to McDougald. Craig homered. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left. Yankees sixth: McDougald singled. Carey struck out. Ford hit into double play. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left. Dodgers sixth: Gilliam popped out. Snider tripled. Snider hit into center to Mantle. Reese scoring after catcher putting Furillo out. 2-1. Robinson bounced out. One run, one hit, no errors, none left. Yankees seventh: Bauer singled. Collins flied out. Mantle moved out. Berza singled. Bauer moving to third on Snider's single. Snider flied out. Mantle stood for homer, putting Yankees ahead, 4-2. Martin flied to Snider. The runs, three hits, no errors, none left. Dodgers seventh: Hodges walked. Furillo singled, moving Hodges to second. Campanella popped to McDougald, runners holding bases. Carey fumbled Neal's grounder for an error. Berza scoring. Furillo called to second and Neal reaching first. Jackson batting for Craig flied out. Gilliam bounced to McDougald, who stepped on second forcing Neal. One run, one hit, one error, two left. Yankees eighth: Clem Labine replaced Craig on Dodger mound. McDougald bounced out. Carey called out on strikes. Ford struck out. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left. Dodgers eighth: Reese grounded out. Snider struck out. Robinson singled. Hodges flied out. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left. Yankees ninth: Bauer flied out. Collins scored. Snider who drew wild to first, Collins safe on error. Mantle popped out. Berza doubled. Berza scoring. Reese flied to Snider. Slaughter walked. Martin flied out. One run, one hit, one error, two left. Dodgers ninth: Furillo doubled, put Berza on second. Snider flied to Mantle. Berza scored. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

Ike, Adlai 7 Charges

"I Don't Know If He's Running Scared, He's Not Running Sacred Any More"

President Eisenhower, in a statement issued from the White House, accused his Democratic rival of jeopardizing national security with "loose talk" about ending the draft. Stevenson in a speech at Springfield, Mass., accused the Republican chief executive of providing "too little leadership" to help "the little guy" in the American economy. The vice presidential candidates also were busy. Vice president Richard M. Nixon conferred with Mr. Eisenhower at the White House about a 14-state campaign swing Nixon will begin next week. Sen. Estes Kefauver, the Democratic vice presidential candidate, spent Saturday campaigning through drought-stricken Oklahoma. He then headed back to Washington "very much encouraged" by his week-long swing through six states of the west and southwest. Mr. Eisenhower said Stevenson's expressed hope that the draft can be ended soon showed "either ignorance of our military needs or a willingness to take a chance with our nation's security."

509 Register to Vote On Last Day Saturday

A steady stream of voters filed into the elections department in the courthouse annex Saturday to register for the Nov. 6 general election before the 8 p.m. deadline. A total of 509 registered yesterday, department officials said. Elections department officials said a crowd of 8 to 10 people was in the office to register most of the time Saturday afternoon. Registrations were somewhat slower during the morning, they reported. The biggest rush was expected between 5 and 8 p.m. The courthouse, generally closed on Saturdays, was opened yesterday especially for last-minute registrations. Firehalls as well as the courthouse remained open until 8 p.m. Final Tally Final tally of registrations not expected to be available for at least a week. Addressograph plates for voter pamphlets will be made in the county clerk's office before the total is compiled, officials explained. When the last count was made Oct. 2, there were 32,342 voters registered in the county. Republicans totaled 16,914, Democrats 14,759 and miscellaneous 669. Though registered Republicans outnumbered Democrats on Oct. 2 by a margin of 2,155, Democrats have made consistent registration gains over the Republicans in recent weeks. During the four days prior to Oct. 2, a total of 586 people registered to vote. Democrats accounted for 326 of that number and Republicans totaled 225. In a five-day period the previous week, a total of 224 Democrats registered as compared with 114 Republicans. Last Election Total of registrations in the 1952 general election was 36,667. Total in the primary election five months ago was 30,406, of which 16,253 were Republicans, 13,608

Election Campaign Swings Into Final Month; VP's Busy

Stevenson Gives Talk In Springfield, Mass. Washington — (U.P.) — Dwight D. Eisenhower and Adlai E. Stevenson traded sharp new charges Saturday as the presidential election campaign roared into its final month. President Eisenhower, in a statement issued from the White House, accused his Democratic rival of jeopardizing national security with "loose talk" about ending the draft. Stevenson in a speech at Springfield, Mass., accused the Republican chief executive of providing "too little leadership" to help "the little guy" in the American economy. The vice presidential candidates also were busy. Vice president Richard M. Nixon conferred with Mr. Eisenhower at the White House about a 14-state campaign swing Nixon will begin next week. Sen. Estes Kefauver, the Democratic vice presidential candidate, spent Saturday campaigning through drought-stricken Oklahoma. He then headed back to Washington "very much encouraged" by his week-long swing through six states of the west and southwest. Mr. Eisenhower said Stevenson's expressed hope that the draft can be ended soon showed "either ignorance of our military needs or a willingness to take a chance with our nation's security."

Police Seek Body In Lake of Woods

Klamath Falls — (U.P.) — State police planned to start dragging operations on Lake-of-the-Woods 35 miles west of here today for the body of a 72-year-old Klamath Falls railroad worker believed to have drowned in the lake Friday night. Police identified the man as C. C. Kelley, a laborer for the Southern Pacific railroad. They said he was last seen in his boat on the lake about 8 p.m. Friday. The 14-foot outboard boat was found capsized on the lake Saturday by Herman Darley, of Stayton. Officers said that high winds at night make the lake become choppy and rough and said Kelley probably was dumped into the lake when the rough water upset his boat.

Hunter Mistaken for Bear; Dies of Wounds

Visalia, Calif. — (U.P.) — A Tulare county man died Friday night of a bullet wound suffered when a hunter mistook him for a bear and shot him. The victim, Fred Hammers, 40, of Woodlake, was shot only 200 yards from his campsite in the Isham Creek area above Badger in the Sierras east of here. The shot was fired by Charles Glenn Dukes of Seville, Calif. Officers said that high winds at night make the lake become choppy and rough and said Kelley probably was dumped into the lake when the rough water upset his boat.

Lions Club Soliciting Bloodmobile Donors

The Medford Lions club is cooperating with the Red Cross office here to secure donors for the visit of the Bloodmobile in the county Tuesday and Wednesday this week. Medford Lions are soliciting donors. A goal of 250 donors has been set for the Bloodmobile visit at the Medford Elks temple between 1 and 5 p.m. Wednesday. The Bloodmobile will be in Shady Cove between 3 and 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 10. Lions club officials reminded residents that last year 1,347 pints were collected in Jackson county, and that 1,827 pints were used here. The shortage was made up by Army personnel from Ft. Lewis, Wash. Appointments may be made by telephoning the Red Cross office in the courthouse, 3-3813.

FOUR FOR FOUR—A typical group of successful hunters returning from Lake county last week was this foursome made up of R. D. Johnson, Ben Allison, and Frank Taylor of Medford, and H. G. Johnson of Myrtle Point. All four got their deer. Lloyd Langston of Crystal Meat company is weighing them in. The men were gone four days.