Are there any long-lost friends in your address book?

How many times have you thumbed through your address book and thought "I wonder what happened to Josephine Warren? Or "Mary and Tom — wonder if they are!" Don't let it happen to your friends. Because it's so easy . . . and so rewarding to renew old friendships by mail. And, of course, the best way to keep good friends is to write them often. Why not write those put-off letters today?
