Moore-Callahan Rites Held At Medford Catholic Church

An event of last Saturday, September 29, was the wedding of Miss Sharron Callahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Callahan, 607 South Holly street, to James Francis Moore Jr. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Moore, formerly lived in Medford and now make their home in Seattle.

The bride's gown was of blush pink nylon tulle designed by Cahill and fashioned with scalloped neckline and very full skirt with insets of imported lace. Her veil was held by a crown of shell pink sequins and pearls and she carried a mother-of-pearl prayer book edged with gold, and a white orchid and stephanotis. The pearl necklace she wore is an heirloom in the Callahan family, for "something new" she carried a handkerchief which was a gift from Mrs. Marie LaComb and the traditional "something blue" was a garter loaned by Miss Peggy Brunkow, Portland.

Miss Jeryl Lynn Callahan was her sister's honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Sandra Montgomery, Medford, and Miss Brunkow. They wore Cahill frocks of rose taffeta with head-dresses of rose-colored feathers and jeweled veils. Their bouquets were pink carnations.

Flower girls and ring bearers were Kathy and Keith Jensen, twins. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, and best man for Mr. Moore was Stanley Purcell, Medford. Ushers were Charles Ashpole, Medford, and James Harms, Corvallis.

Soloists were Miss Frances Thrun and Mrs. William G. Reed, and Bruno Pellegrini was organist. Bouquets of gladiolus and pom pom chrysanthemums decorated the church. Gladiolus and pink baby roses were used for the reception decorations, and fresh pink roses encircled the wedding cake. Mrs. Earl Lawson and Mrs. Kenneth Brown cut the wedding cake and pouring were Mrs. Austin Laymar, Mrs. A. A. Seekatz, Mrs. Robert Montgomery and Miss Linda Montgomery. Mrs. Ronald R. DeVore took charge of the guest book.

Music for the reception was provided by Miss Thrun, Mrs. Reed, and the Misses Colleen and Rosemary Barr and Sue Hall.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a gown of slate blue taffeta embroidered in white with blue accessories and a white rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a jade green gown with gold accessories and her flowers were yellow roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore were hosts for the rehearsal dinner, given at the club Friday night for members of the families and the wedding party.

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon the bride was wearing a gray wool suit with red accessories. They will be at home at 2807 Orchard street, Corvallis, upon their return. The bride is a graduate of the University of Portland and St. Vincent's College of Nursing and the bridegroom is enrolled at Oregon State college where he is studying for a master's degree in geology. He expects to complete his course in December.

The bride is a member of Beta Beta and Alpha Tau Delta honor societies and is listed in the 1956 "Who's Who in American Colleges." She received the Thomas M. Joyce Memorial award at graduation. Mr. Moore is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa social fraternity.

Miss Taylor, Harold Wiest Married in Church Service

The wedding of Miss Margaret Lucille Taylor to Harold C. Wiest was an event of September 22 in First Methodist church here. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Laura Thomas Taylor, 520 1/2 South Fir street, Medford, and Jesse Taylor, Prospect, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Chris Jessen, 524 Mae street, Medford.

The Rev. Raymond Balcomb performed the double-ring service, and the bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white satin, ballerina style, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Her veil was held by a small white cap.

Miss Vera Stearns, Medford, attended the bride. Her gown was of pink crystalline and she carried pink carnations. Karen Stevens, flower girl, wore a dress of royal blue taffeta and carried a basket of flowers.

Luther Wiest came from Valley City, N.D., to serve as best man for his brother. The candles were lighted by Miss Rosemary Jones and Miss Marthanne Goodwin, Applegate. Ushers were Glen Williams and Richard Bottjer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Taylor wore a Navy blue dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a blue dress with white accessories and her bouquet was also pink carnations.

Tall baskets of chrysanthemums and stock decorated the church. The reception was held in the church parlor. Mrs. Glenn Williams, Mrs. J. S. Goodwin and Mrs. Russel Baxter, Aberdeen, S.D., sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake. Pouring coffee was Mrs. Ed Goodwin and Mrs. Aubrey Taylor poured punch. Mrs. Don Russell, sister of the bridegroom, from Aberdeen, took charge of the guest book.

After a honeymoon spent in San Francisco the newlyweds are living at 520 1/2 South Fir street. Here for the wedding were Mrs. Joseph Morcom, Corvallis, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Kenneth Sims, the former Etta Morcom, cousin of the bride from Lebanon, Ore.; Mrs. Margaret Morcom Watkins, Corvallis, cousin of the bride, and all formerly of Jacksonville.

Couple Attends Wedding, Party During Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Fasel have returned to their home, 117 Ashland avenue, after a trip to southern California.

September 23 the couple attended a large reception which observed the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. Fasel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Fasel, Turlock, Calif. On September 25 they were attendants for the wedding of Mrs. Geri Thomas, Mr. Fasel's daughter, to Eldon Nelson, the rites taking place at Virginia City, Nev. Both are from Reno.

Later the Fasels stopped in Woodland, Calif., to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Materie and daughter, Nancy, Medford, who are patients at Woodland clinic as the result of an automobile accident. Mr. Materie is manager of Montgomery Ward and company here.

After the Eastern Star session Mrs. Note will return to Ohio to attend the national convention of Blue Star Mothers of America. She is national conductress for this patriotic group.

En route home Mrs. Note will stop in San Francisco October 19 to visit her daughter, Mrs. Edward Davies, and will arrive home October 21.
