Jones-Schroeder Wedding Service Held in Medford

Central Point—Miss Shirley Marie Schroeder became the bride of Jack Turner Jones in a ceremony held Thursday, September 26, at 8:30 o'clock in the evening at the Church of the Brethren in Medford.

The Rev. Escl Hiser officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by close friends and relatives of the couple.

Miss Schroeder is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schroeder, Route 2, Box 163, Central Point, and has been making her home at 119 1/2 Portland avenue in Medford. Mr. Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Jones of Granite, Okla. He has been living at Route 1, Box 299, Medford.

The bride chose a black suit for her wedding, accented with white accessories.

Attending the couple were Miss Emily Johnson and Gene Bowling, friends of the couple. Miss Johnson wore a black suit with black accessories.

Following the service a reception was given by Miss Wilda Music at the church. Cake and coffee were served.

Miss Schroeder attended schools in Central Point and Portland and is employed by Central Point Cleaners. Mr. Jones attended Granite schools and is employed by the Crater Lake Motors in Medford.

The newlywed couple are making their home at Walker apartments in Central Point.

Williams-Faler Rites Read In Ashland Assembly Church

Ashland—Baskets of white and pink gladioli and lighted candelabra decorated the Assembly of God church in Ashland, Wednesday, September 26, for the wedding of Miss Donna Lee Faler to James N. Williams. The Rev. Perry Johnson officiated at the single ring candlelight service at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Faler, Route 1, Box 176, Talent. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Williams, Route 1, Box 82, Ashland.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length dress of white net and lace over taffeta. She carried a white Bible with pink roses and wore similar flowers in her hair.

Miss Barbara Williams, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant. She wore an aquamarine taffeta dress styled along princess line, with square neckline. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow daisies.

Candlelighters were Miss Joyce Irwin, Butte Falls, cousin of the bride, and Donald Loper, Talent, nephew of the bridegroom.

Oren R. Edwards Jr., brother-in-law of the bride, served as best man and Jerry Loper, nephew of the bridegroom and Gerald Dorin, ushered.

Mrs. Sherleen Evans played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Alton Kirby, soloist.

Following the ceremony a reception was given by the bridegroom's parents at their home on Valley View, Mrs. R. L. Irwin, cousin of the bride, cut and served the cake; Mrs. M. G. King Hill, Calif., aunt of the bride, served the punch; and Miss Barbara Williams was at the gift table.

The newlywed couple are now at home at Route 1, Box 176, Talent, after a wedding trip to eastern Oregon.

The bride is a student at Ash-

New Toastmasters Organized Here

A second Toastmasters' group has been formed for Medford and will meet weekly, beginning Monday, October 8, at 8:30 a.m. for breakfasts at the Jackson hotel. Formation of the new club was announced at the now existing Monday evening group meeting.

Larry Horton will direct the organization until a permanent chairman is selected. Doug Roach and Glen Knox will present speeches on "Toastmasters" at the first meeting.

A regular meeting is planned with topics and a few speeches. Temporary officers and a name for the club will be selected. Anyone interested in speech training and self improvement is invited to join the group.

The Monday evening group, Medford Toastmasters No. 67, installed its new president, Murray Dumas; secretary, John Austbo; and sergeant-at-arms, Glen Jennings at its regular meeting October 1. The first vice-president, Ron Cordon, and the educational vice-president, Ralph Hibbs, were not present. The ceremony was under the direction of Cliff Ouellette.
