HENDRICK JUNIOR HIGH
On Thursday, Oct. 4, Hendrick Junior High School elected student body officers. They are president, John Frohnmayer; vice president, Nancy Becken; secretary, Danny Sieg; treasurer, Larry Brown; historian, Molly Barker; reporter, Mary Milne; sergeant at arms, John Lacy; varsity yell queen, Joy Olson; and yell leaders, Judy Lambert, Barbara Budge, Jackie Mee, and Sue Brennan.

Primaries were held on Sept. 27, at which time candidates were reduced to two for each office. Nominations were made by petition.

All student dances are to be sponsored by the student council this year.

McLOUGHLIN JUNIOR HIGH
Members of the Journalism club have selected editors for the year's first issue of the Junior Quill. They are chief, Dan Ryn; exchange, Sandra Powers; club, Mary Frohnmayer; sports, Elgan Cook; humor, Jim Kubalek; scholastic, Dennis McGee; news, Kathie McCoy; photo, Deanna Russell. Other members of the club will serve as reporters.

The Student Body Association held the primary election for school officers Oct. 4. Successful candidates for student body president were Lynn Knight and Richard Dopkins, vice president, Pat McLaughlin and Robert Hamilton; secretary, Carole Newland and Roberta Willett; treasurer, Bob Quinney and Jackie White; reporter, Jerry Piland and Bill Allen. Student council members have been elected in the home rooms. The general election will be held Oct. 11. Each student is required to present his student body card to the election clerk in order to obtain a ballot to vote.

The McLoughlin band majorities and Booster club appeared in the half time ceremonies at the Medford-Crater game Friday night.

Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini of the Daughters of the American Revolution, presented a plaque to the school Oct. 5. The first plaque presented by the DAR had been filled with the names of outstanding students of American history. The new plaque will be started this spring after the history tests have been given.

Officer Merle Stevens of the city police department spoke to the assembly Oct. 5. He stressed the need for cooperation in safety practices, and discussed bicycle riding and licensing.

The pep team presented a skit Oct. 5, in honor of the Crater-McLoughlin game. Designed as a TV sports program, the skit was entitled "Let's Kick It Out." Amusing commercials added to the humor of the stunt.

TALENT SCHOOL
Talent — Sam Knudsen was elected president of the Talent elementary school student body at elections Sept. 27 school officials have announced.

Vice president of the student body is Tommy Johnson; secretary, Linda Faye Turley; and treasurer, Mary Hampton. The officers will serve during the 1956-57 school year.

Nominations meeting was held Sept. 25, with a two-day campaign following. Campaign speeches were presented in a student body assembly.

Plans are under way for several student body parties and money raising projects. The group is under supervision of Merle Atkinson, seventh grade instructor.

Accountants Attend Klamath Falls Meet
Two Medford certified public accountants recently attended a meeting in Klamath Falls of the Southern Oregon chapter, Certified Public accountants.

They were Oliver P. Taylor and Tom Polk. Taylor, along with Adolph Zamsky of Klamath Falls, and Jim Basker of Grants Pass, was a speaker on a panel which discussed CPA procedures for the preparation of income tax returns.

GO-GETTER
Pittsburgh — (UPI) — When a burglary suspect barricaded himself in a third-floor apartment, Detective John James called for an aerial ladder from the fire department. He scaled the ladder unhooked a window screen and cornered the cowering suspect under a bed.

Sixteen 4-H Club Members Named Awards Winners

Sixteen outstanding 4-H club members were named this week as recipients for county medals in the National 4-H Awards program recently completed.

The awards are presented to club members in each of the various contests for outstanding work in 4-H activities. The medals are made available by different sponsoring groups which support the 4-H club program nationally and send the medals to the counties after the recipients are named.

Receiving awards for all-around 4-H achievement from Ford Motor company are Jerry McDonald, Eagle Point, and Romelle Rossen, Jacksonville.

International Harvester company is presenting three medals to David Woolfolk, Eagle Point, Truman Elmore of Applegate, and Phillip Krouse, Applegate, for their general agricultural program.

Sandra Ghelardi of Central Point will receive the county medal as a member of the champion bread baking demonstration team from Standard Brands Inc.

Susan Wright of Medford and Nancy Barnes of Westside will both receive medals for canoeing from the Kerr Glass Manufacturing corporation. For girls who have done an outstanding job in clothing, Coats and Clark, Inc., presented a county medal to Suzanne Palm, Eagle Point, Virginia Martin, Phoenix, and Delores Meyer, Talent.

The Sears Roebuck Foundation will present Rita Milner, Rogue River, with a home improvement medal. Bill Hubbard of Antelope and Sally Mongold, Eagle Point, will receive dairy medals from the Larro Sure Feed division of General Mills.

For outstanding work in food preparation Joanna Malloroy, Eagle Point, and Jeannett Nougier, Southwest Medford, will receive a county medal from the Kelvinator division of American Motors corporation.

All the club members have done outstanding work in 4-H projects and will receive the medals at achievement programs.

JACKSONVILLE First PTA Meeting Oct. 10

By MRS. S. S. HOSKINS
Jacksonville—The first Parent Teacher association meeting of this school term will be held Oct. 10 at 8 p.m. at the new elementary school on Hueners Lane.

New teachers to be introduced at the meeting are John J. Crabb, superintendent and high school principal; Glen Shireman, boys physical education and driver training; Florence J. Hanson, home economics; Audrey A. Clark, third grade; Enid L. Maurer, fourth grade; Jeannette W. Thompson, second grade; Fred W. Buehling, sixth grade; and Vida McCarley, seventh grade.

Presiding over the meeting are the new PTA officers, Warren Davis, president; Lee Harter, vice president; Mrs. Ruth Goldschmidt, secretary and Mrs. Ruth Goldschmidt, secretary and Mrs. Kathleen Guiry, treasurer. Refreshments will be served by the executive committee.

Two out of town visitors last week and former residents of the Jacksonville area were: Mrs. Mary Bell Griffin and her daughter, Mrs. Frank Cooper of Sacramento, Calif. Mrs. Griffin was born in 1870 at the old Bellingier home on Bellingier Lane and related several very intriguing stories of Jacksonville in its pioneer days. She recalled that Masonic lodge meetings here were not held on any special date or evening, they were held at the full of the moon in order to provide 'light' to travel by. The mode of travel she referred to was horse and buggy and quite often horseback. Members were picked up all along the way and attending a session was quite an accomplishment requiring advance planning with much depending on the weather.

Another amusing story she told was how the local brewery in those days poured their waste down over a convenient hillside which bordered on a nice errand pasture. Neighbors found it necessary to watch the family cow or she would come home 'tipsy' from indulging in the mash.

Another old time resident visiting in Jacksonville last week was Mrs. Ruby Fox of Portland. She stayed at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Anna Rumley, Mrs. Fox is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Eaton. Mrs. Fox was born and reared in Jacksonville.

Some returning deer hunters last weekend were: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sutherland of third st., Sutherland bagged his buck at Four Mile lake. Others not so lucky were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Revis and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wyatt who hunted on Red mountain in the Dutchman peak area.

A guest at the home of Mrs. Pearl Whitney, on a ten day furlough from the Alameda Naval Airbase, is her grandson Norman Surber. This is his first visit to Jacksonville in two years. He plans to spend some of his time deer hunting.

Recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Carl Garman were: Mr. and Mrs. Marion Clement from Versailles, Mo., Mrs. Gene Wycoff of Weaverville, Calif., and Jim Clemmons of Gold Hill. They are all cousins to Mrs. Garman and the ones from out of state she hadn't seen in 25 years.

Mrs. Laura Albertz of San Joaquin, Calif., was a visitor last week at the home of Mrs. Rose Rippy. Mrs. Albertz, after leaving here, went to Orick, Calif., for a few days visit with her son and then plans to return here again for a short time. She is a former Medford resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Garrett and Mrs. Garrett's mother, Mrs. E. M. Wilson of Medford, recently made an over night trip to Klamath Falls to visit Mr. Garrett's sister, Mrs. Harry Goeller.

Rev. W. B. Turnbull, of the Jacksonville Assembly of God church, announced a month of special activities in the church during October. Assembly of God churches all over the nation will sponsor similar campaign. "Assignment America," has been selected for the theme of this annual Sunday school enlargement program. Friends and neighbors in this community are invited to attend if they do not already have a church home, according to pastor Turnbull. The campaign will be launched with special Sunday school rally day on Sunday, Oct. 7. He also stated that on the last Sunday of October attendance for his assembly will be reported to denomination headquarters in Springfield, Mo. A report of the attendance of all Assembly of God churches will be given over the international broadcast, "Revival Time," on the ABC network at 10:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hamilton left last week end for Seattle, where they will make their home.

Carl S. Hoskins announced this week that he has taken over the management of the Medford IOOF cemetery, working from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Day time telephone calls, 3-1718; evening calls, Jacksonville 9-8209.

Other new residents in Jacksonville are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mitchell of Modesto, Calif. They are making their home at the J. E. Johnson apartments. Mitchell is a brother-in-law to Mrs. Bessie Mitchell of Mitchell's Sanitarium.

A new patient at the Sanitarium is Mrs. Mazie Bates of Ashland, Ore.

A visitor in Jacksonville Thursday was Congressman Harris Ellsworth, dropping in unannounced at the post office, which was in slight disorder due to the installing of new post office boxes. A very flustered clerk, Fay Peters, welcomed the unexpected visitor. Ellsworth also visited the museum.

The Jacksonville teenagers club is planning a halloween party for residents of Jacksonville, young and old alike, to be held Wednesday, Oct. 31. The affair will begin with a masquerade parade, after which participants will be divided into age groups and sent to designated halls for games, prizes and refreshments.

Cannisters in the business houses of Jacksonville will be for collection of funds to buy prizes and refreshments.
