

REVEAL WEDDING PLANS—Comedian Jimmy Durante, 63, and 35-year-old actress Margie Little disclosed at the opening of the Paradise Valley Racquet Club in Phoenix, Ariz., that they plan to be married "sometime next year." "Jimmy won't set the date exactly," Miss Little said, "but it will be sometime next year."

Ike, Truman Avoid Face-to-Face Clash

Pittsburg—(U.P.)—President Eisenhower and former President Truman occupied suites at the same hotel here Tuesday, but the political rivals easily avoided a face-to-face encounter in the lobby. Mr. Truman checked into the 1600-room Penn Sheraton Hotel Monday night and Tuesday morning left the city on a barnstorming tour of mill towns in the Pittsburg area. When President Eisenhower moved into the five-room presidential suite at 5 p.m., Mr. Truman was miles out of town in neighboring Westmoreland County.

Commission Hopes To Stop Mooching

Portland—(U.P.)—The Oregon Fish Commission, meeting here yesterday, explored means of improving the lot of the commercial fisherman on the Oregon coast and eliminating "mooching" by sport fishermen who sell their ocean-caught fish. No conclusions were reached by the commercial fishing agency but they agreed to make a further study of license fees and poundage tax schedules to see if the answer might lie there. O. H. Hinsdale, commission member most critical of the growing trend of sport fishermen to operate as commercial fishermen, contended that prohibition of the use of heering bait by sport fishermen would stop

9-Year-Old Boy and Man are Found Safe

Vale—(U.P.)—A nine-year-old boy and a 65-year-old man were found safe today after being reported missing from separate hunting parties. Joel Brian Bristol, Portland, became separated from his father in the Westfall area about 70 miles from here yesterday afternoon. A short wave radio message to the sheriff's office this morning said the lad had been found safe, although cold and exhausted. George Sweet, 65, Nyssa, became lost in the same general area and was the object of an all night search. He was reported found about 8 a.m. today.

Kefauver Charges Ike's Advisors Took Check From Oil Man

Syracuse, N. Y.—(U.P.)—Sen. Estes Kefauver charged today that President Eisenhower's "advisors" accepted a $5,000 check from the same Texas oil man whose rejected $2,500 campaign gift later sparked the Senate lobbying investigation. In a speech prepared for delivery at a Press Club luncheon here, the Democratic vice presidential nominee cited the incident as a "new example of influence" to support "corruption" charges against the Eisenhower administration. He said he hopes the Senate's Committee on Lobbying will investigate.

Nixon Claims Small Businesses Better Under Eisenhower

En Route With Nixon—(U.P.)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon said today small business will fare better under four more years of the Eisenhower administration than it would under the Democrats. Nixon barnstormed four cities in his native California in the second day of a 10,000-mile flying campaign tour. He replied to Democratic charges that the Republicans favor big business over small enterprises. "It should be the responsibility of government to see to it that small business does not suffer in the hands of either big business or big government," Nixon said.

"I have here the photostatic copy of a check. It is dated Houston, Texas, Jan. 10, 1956. It is drawn on the City National Bank of Houston, Texas. It is made out to the United Republican Dinner Committee. It is in the amount of $5,000. And it is signed 'H. B. Keck'." Kefauver said. Personal Fund—Kefauver identified Keck as the president of the Superior Oil Co. of California. Keck testified before a special Senate committee that the $2,500 campaign contribution rejected by Sen. Francis Case (R-S.D.) during Senate debate on the controversial natural gas bill came from his "personal" funds. Kefauver said the Justice Department "must have known" about the $5,000 check. He asked whether Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall did not also know that Houston oil man H. B. Keck was the source of the funds. Case's disclosure of the rejected gift prompted the preliminary inquiry by a special Senate committee which found "irresponsibility... run riot" in the Case matter and declared that Keck must share responsibility with two subordinates.

The vice president flew into the San Francisco Bay area with speeches on his schedule in Stockton, Oakland, San Jose and San Francisco — after wooing Democrats across 1,000 miles of Texas. At GOP rallies in Fort Worth, San Antonio and El Paso, he urged Texas Democrats to swing their state to President Eisenhower again as they did in 1952. He predicted "thousands" of Texas Democrats would support the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket again Nov. 6. The GOP carried Texas by 133,550 votes in 1952. Nixon conceded to newsmen that the race would be closer this time but said he was hopeful of capturing the state's 24 electoral votes.
