Red Tape Stalls Boy In Joining Family

Sydney, Australia — (U.P.) — Thirteen-year-old Lynton Band Austin flew to the United States today to rejoin his mother, nine years after she left him behind in Australia because of tangled government red tape.

The boy has never seen his American stepfather and barely remembers his mother, Mrs. Walker E. Austin of San Luis Obispo, Calif.

She married Austin while he was serving with the U. S. armed forces in Australia during World War II.

Lynton is her son by a previous marriage.

Only Two Visas
But when Mrs. Austin sought permission to join her second husband in the United States after the war the U. S. government sent visas for herself and only two of her three children. Believing the mistake would soon be rectified, Lynton's mother left her son in Australia to follow as soon as possible.

It finally took an act of Congress to correct the mistake. It passed a bill last January to waive immigration restrictions and admit the boy to the United States.

"I don't understand it all," Lynton said as he left Sydney, "but I'll be very glad to see my mother again."

Tropical Disturbance Studied Off Bermuda

Miami — (U.P.) — An Air Force plane left Bermuda today to investigate a new tropical disturbance kicking up high winds in the Windward Islands well over 2,000 miles from Florida.

The area was located in a weather bureau bulletin Tuesday night about 1,250 miles east-southeast of San Juan, P.R., at latitude 15.5 north, longitude 48.0 west. The disturbance was moving slowly west-northwest.

A natural gas well costs about $100,000 to drill.

Photog Wins Prize For Clinton Shot

New York — (U.P.) — Coverage of the school desegregation story under difficult circumstances won first prize for staff photographer Jack Young in the October United Press newspaper contest, editor Harold Blumenthal announced today.

The $25 prize went to Young for the all-around excellence of his work on the Clinton, Tenn., story.

An emotion-packed picture of the reunion of a mother with her son whom she had not seen in nine years won $10 prize for UP staff photographer Sam Mikulin of San Francisco. Mikulin's picture, shot across the shoulder of the son, showed Mrs. Bela Banathy's tearful face as she embraced the boy she last had seen in an Austrian refugee camp.

Chicago — (U.P.) — The Siamese twin tropical fish owned by Mrs. Jo Miskinis would probably have plenty to say about navigational hazards if they could talk. Mrs. Miskinis said the fish, which are joined at the stomach facing each other, are "having the darndest time trying to swim, because each has a mind of its own."

Driver Cited After Ashland Accident

Ashland — Vehicles operated by James H. Nunes, Medford, and William A. Porter, 35 Granite st., Ashland, were involved in an accident on Siskiyou boulevard in front of the Assembly of God church early Sunday morning, according to Ashland police.

Police said the Nunes vehicle was struck from behind. Porter was cited for driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, and has posted $200 bond, police said.

Passengers of the Nunes car included Russ Greene, William Burk and Richard L. Farrell, all of Medford, police said. Farrell was taken to Ashland general hospital for possible neck injuries.

Both cars were traveling north at the time of the accident, police said.

Nationalist, Red Chinese Refugees Fight in Camp Riot

Hong Kong — (U.P.) — Two thousand Chinese refugees fought police with bottles and stones today in a resettlement camp riot that started as a quarrel between pro-Nationalist and pro-Communist Chinese.

Two Britons and an unknown number of Chinese were injured in the clash which police broke up by firing tear gas bombs. It was Hong Kong's first political demonstration since 1952.

An official statement said the rioting at the Lichenguk Village resettlement area, near the city of Kowloon across the bay from Hong Kong proper, broke out following a "dispute over some flags." He did not say what the dispute was about.

Reds Tear Down Arches

But Chinese reports said the clashes began when the Communists tried to tear down ceremonial arches put up by the Nationalists to celebrate today's "Double Tenth" anniversary—the 45th anniversary of the founding of the national government by Dr. Sun Yat-sen.

Reports from the battle scene said three persons were killed and two injured when a fire engine ran into the crowd after the driver was stoned. A Chinese resettlement officer, a British police superintendent and at least five other persons were injured in the riot.

Extradition Planned In Silverton Probe

Salem — (U.P.) — Arrangements were being made today to extradite a 25-year-old former Silverton man from California on three charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor in connection with parties in the Silverton area last month.

The man, Don R. French, was arrested in Oakland, Calif., yesterday on a warrant based on a secret Marion county grand jury indictment.

Two other men already have been arrested on morals charges, one of them pleading innocent in Marion county Circuit Court and the other scheduled to enter a plea next Monday.

Oregon Traffic Fatal To 305 So Far This Year

Salem — (U.P.) — Traffic accidents in Oregon have killed 305 persons so far this year, the State Traffic Safety division reported today.

The count includes 36 deaths reported in September.

The nine-month death count is 10 higher than for the same period last year.

Sawmill Operator Defends Donations Of Pay to Morse

Roseburg — (U.P.) — Paul Hult, operator of a Roseburg sawmill, today defended the donation of a half day's pay by several of his employees and the proceeds of the lumber they manufactured during the time to the campaign fund of Sen. Wayne L. Morse.

Hult, of the Hult Lumber company here, said there was nothing illegal about the donations which the men and the mill made from working a half-day of overtime in behalf of Morse.

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) had asked the Senate elections sub-committee to investigate the donations to ascertain whether the mill had deducted federal income and other taxes.

"Goldwater is just sore because it was done by Democrats," Hult asserted. "They don't care when the Republicans do it," he added.

Hult said 31 men had worked the overtime shift and that after deductions, $424 in wages along with the proceeds of the lumber handled, were turned over to Morse's campaign.

The 31 men who worked represented only part of the mill's crew and the work was voluntary, Hult said.

Slogans of Nominees Will Be On Ballots

Salem — (U.P.) — Oregon county clerks have been notified by Secretary of State Earl T. Newbery to place the slogans of nominees for circuit judge after their names on the judicial ballot for the general election.

The action came after Circuit Judge George R. Duncan issued a writ in a mandamus proceeding filed by Circuit Judge Alred P. Dobson of Multnomah county.

Judge Dobson had alleged that Newbery had refused to certify his ballot slogan to the Multnomah county elections registrar.

Newbery explained his refusal by referring to an opinion from Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton that only the names of a nominee for circuit judge should appear on the judicial ballot.

Even the Kitchen Sink Stolen from Vacant House

Detroit — (U.P.) — Three men were held today on charges of breaking into a vacant house and stealing practically everything including the kitchen sink.

Police said the men stole three washbasins, three toilets, 17 radiators, two bath tubs, three medicine chests, 16 venetian blinds, a hot water heater, a stoker, a boiler, three kitchen cabinets and three sinks.
