

Vic Milnes Attending Eugene Conference

Vic Milnes, president of Fortune Stations, Inc., and secretary of the Oregon Gasoline Dealers' association, will leave Thursday for Eugene and Salem to attend meetings on the "gas war" situation.

A conference of Oregon's key gasoline dealers has been called for Thursday noon in Salem. They will discuss the "gas war," reported existing in Eugene and threatening to develop in other parts of the state, and will investigate possibilities of eliminating "gas wars" in Oregon.

Prior to the Salem meeting, Milnes will attend a breakfast session of gasoline dealers Thursday morning in Eugene. A proposed city ordinance to outlaw large poster type gasoline price signs will be considered. Portland now has such an ordinance and similar legislation is being considered in several other cities in Oregon.

Cancer Society Here Active During Year

(Editor's note: This is another in a series of articles concerning agencies which are served by contributions to the United Medford Crusade.)

The Jackson county committee of the American Cancer Society is active throughout the year in work to combat the disease.

Part of the work is educational in nature, but in addition there are other tasks, such as making bandages. Funds for this work come from the United Medford Crusade.

Medical Research
Donations to the UMC which are turned over to the cancer society are largely for medical research and for educational purposes regarding the nation's number two killing disease. In addition, during the past several years many Jackson county residents suffering from cancer have received financial help and medical guidance through the work made possible through the United Medford Crusade.

Cancer is slowly being conquered, but the program is being measured in the lives of children and of the millions of others stricken by the disease.

Research is the slow, methodical testing of theories, the gradual combination of information, the experimental use of new drugs, new methods of surgery, and new applications of radiation techniques.

Deaths Resulted
Last year 80,000 deaths resulted from cancer. Today cancer frequently can be cured by early detection and prompt treatment.

The American Cancer Society has urged all adults to have an annual checkup, and women

SOC Faculty Member Plans New York Trip

Ashland—Miss Irene Hollenbeck, vice president of the National Association of Biology Teachers, and assistant professor of science at Southern Oregon college, will preside during the group's annual conference, Dec. 26-30, in New York City during the general sessions.

During the Saturday morning session, Miss Hollenbeck will be chairman of a panel, "Interest-getting Devices," which will feature a number of speakers and demonstrations.

TV Station to Start Educational Programs

An experiment in educational television will start in southern Oregon Sunday, Oct. 14, at 11 p.m., when the first in a 13-week series of programs will be telecast by station KBES-TV.

The first program opens a series for adults entitled "Spotlight on Opera." It will feature Dr. Jan Popper, professor of music at the University of California and lecturer in symphony and opera.

The six weekly programs will be followed by seven entitled "The Painter," during which the audience will observe an artist, Siegfried Reinhardt, instructor of art at Washington university, as he creates a painting.

"The Finder," for children 9 to 12 years old, will be seen at 3:30 p.m., beginning Saturday, Oct. 20. The program follows Sunny Fox, a curious imaginative announcer, as he discovers new things of interest through books, films and studio interviews throughout the world. The show was produced by the education television station in St. Louis, KETC.

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS

New York—Righthander Johnny Kucks after pitching the Yanks to a 9-0 win over the Dodgers in the deciding game of the World Series:

"No matter what, it's going to last me a long, long time."

En Route With Nixon—Vice President Nixon praising Adlai Stevenson as a man with "rare ability with words to get across an idea."

"I may disagree violently with his ideas. But since I am such a plain talker, I admire a fellow who can use good words."

Walpole, Mass.—Deputy Warden Perley Vance of the state prison here on the eight Brinks' bandits who will serve their life sentences under him:

"I knew most of them at the old Charlestown State Prison. They'll be all right. They're real pros, not punks."

Higginsville, Mo.—Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson on the progress of farm income:

"For the first time in over five years, the prices of farm products are looking up . . . with the prospect of getting better instead of worse."

Milwaukee—A spokesman for the Milwaukee Pops Orchestra replying to temperance advocates who popped off about stuff stronger than pop being served at concerts:

"We do not expect anyone will get drunk."

Conference Scheduled at Ashland This Week By SOC

Ashland—Dr. Gertrude Noar, writer, lecturer, and national educational leader, will speak on the topic, "Human Relations in Curriculum," at the Lincoln school auditorium at 4:00 p.m., Oct. 12, as the leadoff event for the conference of the Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development for Southern Oregon.

Sponsored by Southern Oregon college, this year's conference has as its theme, "New Horizons in Curriculum," and will convene Oct. 12 and 13. Miss Bertha Stephens, regional conference chairman, and associate professor of education at SOC, announced.

Following Dr. Noar's address Friday afternoon before an audience composed of the Ashland Teachers association, Parent Teachers association, Future Teachers of America, ASCD members, teachers and administrators of Jackson, Josephine, Lake and Klamath counties, conferees will attend a dinner at Susanne Homes hall at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Noar will deliver a short address at 8:30 p.m., "Teaching in the Modern School," and the campus chapter of FTA will hold its annual initiation. Saturday at 7:30 a.m. conference leaders and recorders will attend a planning breakfast at the Plaza cafe in downtown Ashland, with registration scheduled for 9:00 a.m. at the Lincoln school.

Miss Irene Hallberg, executive secretary of the Oregon ASCD, will discuss matters relevant to the state organization at a convocation in the Lincoln school auditorium and will be followed by the keynote address, "The Challenges of 1956," by Dr. Noar, a coffee break at 10:25 a.m., and group discussions at 10:40 a.m.

After a luncheon at 12:30 p.m. in the Lincoln cafeteria, the conference will be brought to a close by a summation of group discussions led by Dr. Noar.

Seven Staff Members Named to SOC Council

Ashland — Seven Southern Oregon college staff members have been elected by the faculty to serve in an advisory capacity to the administration. Dr. Elmo N. Stevenson, president, has announced.

Known as the faculty council, the group will cooperate with the administrative officers in the study and solution of problems of the institution; offer counsel and support to the administrative officers in determining and implementing policy; and represent the faculty in matters concerning professional welfare.

Council members will serve staggered terms of three years. Dr. Stevenson said, with approximately one-third retiring each year. No more than two may be elected from each of the humanities, social science, education, and science-mathematics divisions.

Council members are Mrs. Betty Lou Dunlop, Dr. Eugene Bowman, Dr. Marshall Woodell, Dr. Arthur Kreisman, Dr. Alvin Fellers, Dr. Roy McNeal, and Dr. Bill Sampson. Dr. McNeal was elected chairman for the coming year.

Around Hollywood

By ALINE MOSBY United Press Correspondent

Hollywood — (UP)—Producer Mike Todd is a changed man. Since becoming top man in the life of Elizabeth Taylor, he's given up cigars. And he also is planning a subdued, dignified premiere of his first motion picture.

This news may be unsettling to the Broadway cronies of the busy, fast-talking maker of "Around the World in 80 Days." For more years than they remember, Todd had been puffing away on 15 cigars a day (at $1 each). And his promotion and showmanship for his Broadway stage productions have been splashy.

But never underestimate the power of a woman. Todd now calls himself "a dignified-type man."

Smoking Stopped
"I've stopped smoking cigars. Some women don't like them," said Todd with a happy grin during an interview before he and the beautiful Liz took off by plane for New York.

She'll be on his arm for the world opening Oct. 17 of "Around the World in 80 Days."

one of this year's epics that advance word predicts will be a boxoffice blockbuster. But most of the fireworks will be on the screen, he said.

"No klieg lights," said Todd in his rapid-fire delivery. "They will be conspicuous by their absence. Only what happens on the screen will be important. No parade."

Balloon Rumor
"There was a rumor the balloon we used in the picture might be floating above the theater but that's not true. It might be in the Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York, where it belongs."

"This is not a movie, but a show that happens to be on film. We're on the drama pages, not the movie pages, and our ads are the size of those for plays."

"All that ballyhoo at premieres—the Play's the Thing! The movie starts at 7 o'clock. I don't care if Marilyn Monroe and Diana Dors are doing headstands in the lobby, the show goes on at 7."

Todd even dares to discuss the budget for his extravaganza that was filmed in 14 countries.

Chicago—UP—An elite dairy herd, worth some $4 million, is producing only grade B milk at the International dairy show.
