

Gridiron Fare Opened By Miami, Maryland

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer

Now that the Yankees and Dodgers have followed the Milwaukee Braves off the sports pages and into the record books, college football takes over the center ring of the sports circus this week end with a top-notch program that starts under the lights tonight.

An intersectional game at Miami, Fla., tonight between unbeaten Miami and once-mighty Maryland gets things rolling, and Saturday eight of the nation's top 10 teams will feature a gridiron show designed to make even the Dodgers forget Don Larsen.

In recent seasons, Maryland would have been a solid pick in tonight's "big one," but this year the Terrapins lost star quarterback Frank Tamburello to the draft and have dropped two of their first three games including, last week, the first shutout they've suffered in 70 games. So Miami, victor over South Carolina (hard) and Boston college

SPORTS

(easy) rates as a slight favorite. Richmond Meets Citadel

The Southern conference clash of Richmond and The Citadel is the best of the few other games carded tonight.

Southern California No. 7 is the only team ranked in the top 10 which will be idle on Saturday, and all of the other nine are favored to win. The top clash of the day looms at Ann Arbor, Mich., where 10th-rated Michigan hopes to rebound from its loss to Michigan State by beating 11th-ranked Army for the second straight year. A sellout throng of 100,000 as unbeaten and untested Army, a seven-point underdog, banks on its mighty line to spring an upset.

Top-ranked Oklahoma is a 21-point favorite to make Texas its 33rd straight victim, and second-ranked Michigan State is a 25-point pick to romp over Indiana. Third-ranked Texas Christian also is seen as an easy winner by 21 points over Alabama, but Ohio State, which shares the No. 3 rung, is favored by only 7 as it sends its ground power against speedy Illinois.

Fifth-ranked Georgia Tech is picked by 14 over Louisiana State and sixth-ranked Tennessee is a prohibitive, no-odds choice over Chattanooga. Eighth-ranked Mississippi is favored by 10 over unbeaten Vanderbilt and ninth-ranked Texas A&M is picked by only 7 over Houston.

Football television under the NCAA limited program will be on a regional basis this Saturday, with Holy Cross-Penn State in the East, Ohio State-Illinois in the Midwest, Oklahoma-Texas in the Southwest, and California-Oregon State in the West.

Other Saturday highlights include: Notre Dame-Purdue, in which quarterbacks Paul Hornung and Len Dawson will duel; SMU-Duke, an even-money intersectional; Minnesota-Northwestern, an old rivalry; Navy-Tulane; with the Sailors trying for their first win in the series; and, of course, Princeton-Pennsylvania, in which Penn, free of its 25-game winless streak, risks its shiny "one-game winning streak."

New York — (U.P.) — Stubborn Cus D'Amato, manager of young Floyd Patterson, finally relented today and said he would approve Chicago Stadium as the site for Patterson's proposed heavy-weight title fight with Archie Moore, Nov. 30, "if certain assurances are given me about Chicago."

KICKING UP DUST, Collins is safe on second after clouting two-bagger to scoreboard. Dodger Reese is taking throw after Furillo caught it off scoreboard in sixth game of World Series at Yankee Stadium. (International)

A'S SIGN NEWKIRK

Kansas City — (U.P.) — Dave Newkirk, a young right-hander who won 12 and lost 7 for Shreveport in the Texas league this year, has been signed by the Kansas City Athletics. He will report to the A's at West Palm Beach, Fla., next spring.

VIE IN PRO-AM

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Sixteen of the nation's top touring professionals, including National Open champion Cary Middlecoff, will compete in a special pro-amateur golf tournament at the Apple Valley Calif. Country club, Oct. 16-17, it was announced today.
