New Club Organized

A second Toastmasters' club for Medford was organized last Monday at a 6:30 a.m. breakfast meeting at the Jackson hotel. L. S. Horton, engineer for the California Oregon Power company, was elected temporary chairman and the Rev. George Trobough, associate minister of First Methodist church, was elected temporary secretary. These offices are temporary until the club obtains its charter in four months.

At this first meeting of the club, Doug Roach spoke on the purposes of Toastmasters, and Galen Knox outlined the educational program which is in the form of 12 speeches from a basic training manual. W. W. Wilson talked about the "Happenings at Home on Lynnwood avenue." Don Hansen informed the club about "National Hire the Handicapped Week."

The club will meet Monday, October 15 at 6:30 a.m. for breakfast at the Jackson hotel to hear Jack Price, Don Hansen, and Arnold Opgrand speak. The Monday evening Toastmasters will be in charge of the meeting with Ron Cordon as toastmaster, Al Bradford as topic master, and Doug Roach as critic. Anyone interested in speaking in public is invited to attend the club meetings.

Rushes Guests At Model Session; Makeup Is Topic

A model meeting for rushes of Beta Upsilon chapter Beta Sigma Phi, was held at the home of Mrs. Wayne Harris, 1516 South Ivy street, October 9. This was an open meeting to give rushes a complete picture of Beta Sigma Phi locally and internationally.

Guests present were Mrs. Gordon Stephen, Mrs. Lawrence E. McConnell, Mrs. Dick Knoll, Mrs. Rae Bostwick, Mrs. Gene McCallister, Mrs. Marvin Lemieux, Mrs. Don Adams and Mrs. Lawrence S. Horton.

Mrs. R. L. Palmer, city council representative, reported that all four chapters in Medford will participate in the Valentine ball to be held in February.

A short talk on the aims, purposes and scope of Beta Sigma Phi was given by Mrs. Arthur Brooks; a resume of the history of the sorority was given by Mrs. R. L. Palmer.

The cultural program was presented by Mrs. John Selby. With "Painting the Person," as her topic, she described the right way to use makeup and colors to choose for different occasions. She explained that the skin changes in color tone with the years and said women should strive for a natural look for daytime wear, but evenings can use brighter lipstick, more eye make-up, and a darker foundation.

"By learning to use the right make up in the right way you can make the most of your good points," the speaker said. "Your face is your passport to the world, the outer symbol of your inner self," she added.

After the cultural program the guests and members introduced themselves and told some little interesting fact about themselves.

Co-hostess for the evening was Mrs. R. L. Palmer.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Selby, 140 Union street, Ashland, at 8 p.m. October 16. Beta Upsilon chapter will celebrate its first anniversary October 26 with a party.
