Speaker Says County Dental Health "Terrific Problem"

The dental health problem in this county is "terrific," according to Dr. Milo Kubalek, who spoke to a meeting of Lincoln Parent Teacher association last week. He stated that dental caries is the most prevalent disease known to man and added that proper dental health was closely related to a child's mental, emotional and nutritional growth.

Dr. Kubalek presented a film entitled "Drop in the Bucket" which showed how one community dealt with its dental problem. This was followed by a lively question and answer period.

John Weber introduced the committees working in the unit this year. They are hospitality, Mrs. Don Moser; historian, Mrs. Virgil Stickley; legislation, Mrs. Sam Bailey; magazine, Mrs. John Lusk; membership, Mrs. Jim Loegel; ways and means, Mrs. Austin Caldwell; welfare, Mrs. Orval Schwartz; program, Mrs. H. H. Morris; safety, Mrs. Jimenez; publicity, Mrs. Kenneth Bramhall; summer roundup and guest book, Mrs. Walter McMahan.

PTA officers are Mr. Weber, president; Mrs. H. H. Morris, vice president; Mrs. Eric de Place, secretary and Mrs. Joe Jones, treasurer.

Roy Gilbertson introduced the teachers and commented on several projects of improvement made at the school during the summer.

The budget for the school year was adopted. The membership committee stressed PTA enrollment month, October.

Refreshments were served just prior to the meeting under the direction of Mrs. Don Moser. Serving were room mothers of the sixth grade, Mrs. Glandy Delbec, Mrs. Herbert Fields, Mrs. Wilbur Scolberg and Mrs. Hugh Shellabarger. Others serving as room mothers this year are

Guardian Visits Here

Mrs. Conrad Schild, grand guardian of Oregon and past guardian of Bethel 41 in Portland, made her official visit to Bethel 55, Order of Jobs Daughters, at a meeting October 9 in the Knights of Pythias hall.

Mrs. C. D. Elhart, Medford, past guardian for Oregon and past guardian of Bethel 22, Ashland, was also present. Other dignitaries introduced were Lem Manning, past associate guardian of Bethel 55 and Bethel 14; Mrs. Wendell Spence, past guardian of Bethel 14; Mrs. Paul Selby, grand librarian of Oregon; Miss Margaret Selby, grand bethel marshal of Oregon; and Allen Rogers, associate guardian of Bethel 56, Shady Cove.

During the meeting, two new members, Misses Patricia Farrell and Alexia Owens, were initiated. It was announced that Bethel 55 will hold a cooked food sale November 3 at the Home Appliance store on East Main street.

Friendship night will be November 23 and all members of Bethel 55 will visit Bethel 22 in Ashland that evening. "Go to church Sunday" will be November 4 and all members will attend First Presbyterian church together that day.

Theme of table decorations at Tuesday's meeting was "Fall Official Visit."

Post, Auxiliary Announce Dinner

Crater Lake post and auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold a potluck dinner and short business meeting Tuesday, October 16 at 6:30 p.m. in the VFW hall, 42 North Front street.

A rummage and plant sale is planned between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., October 19 and 20, at the VFW hall. Plans for a Halloween party, to be held sometime later this month, are also under way.

Twenty-one auxiliary members attended a potluck luncheon October 11 at the home of the president, Mrs. Ralph Pitcock, 1015 West 10th street.

On October 6, two auxiliary members, Mrs. Ben Allison and Mrs. Amy Randie, attended a department council meeting at Eugene. The meeting honored Mrs. Paul H. Kveton, Dallas, Tex., national VFW auxiliary president. Accompanying the auxiliary members were Mrs. Harry Birch, Camp White hospital chairman, and Mrs. G. A. Hubble of the Steelhead auxiliary, Shady Cove.
