

APPLIGATE-JACKSONVILLE Highway Work Being Done

By HELGA MITCHELL
Applegate - Jacksonville — One mile of Highway 238 is under construction west of Ruch, where the Applegate river poured over its banks last winter. The road has been raised approximately seven feet, curves have been eliminated, the irrigation ditch has been rerouted, and equipment is in the process of removing a hill. The highway, which is expected to be completed by the middle of November, will have an asphalt finish.

Approximately 20 people attended the informal meeting held at the Ruch school gym last Friday, honoring Rep. Harris Ellsworth. Ellsworth expressed his personal ideas of President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon and said they were persons of integrity, void of any superficiality. Mike Loftus and Mrs. Marcel LePinec assisted in planning this meeting. Mrs. Gail Buffington, Mrs. Rolland Smith, and Mrs. Mike Loftus were at the serving committee.

The 4-H Ruchettes met at the home of Donna Williams last Wednesday, and the following officers were elected: Donna Williams, leader; Diane Winingham, president; Sharon Snopl, vice-president; Karen Gettling, secretary; Mary Ann Conrall, treasurer; Lona Buffington, reporter; and Mary Ann Barker, song leader. At this meeting, Donna Williams received a surprise handkerchief shower from last year's 4-H members in appreciation of her work in the past year. The next meeting will be held at the home of Lona Buffington on Nov. 14. The club will be open for new members.

Raymond Dick, a former resident of Jacksonville, who has been in the navy for the past four years, was in southern Oregon on a 13 day leave and visited many friends in the Applegate valley. Dick will be out of the navy in December and plans to attend Oregon State college.

Three weeks ago, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Buckley and family moved to 630 South Holly, in Medford, and their new phone number is 2-4689. Their son, James, is attending St. Mary's academy.

Mrs. Ins (Nelson) Purcell, of Ruch, is presently occupied as a substitute teacher at the Phoenix and Jacksonville schools.

Recent visitors at the Al Pawlowski residence were Mr. and Mrs. Mac McCloud of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Lena DeShazo came home from Sacred Heart hospital last Monday. It was the second time she had been there in the past month. From her conversation it was learned that she left several patients, figuratively and literally, in "stitches". Mrs. DeShazo also informed us that she had been in Los Angeles this past summer.

Miss Sonja Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith, is attending Southern Oregon college and living at the dormitory. Miss Smith is majoring in home economics.

Donald Lewis and Monty Hicks, of Modesto, spent three days visiting at the Gail Buffington residence recently. Lewis is the son-in-law of Gail Buffington.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim DeVos, of Sterling creek, have placed their four acres and house for sale.

John A. Johnson and son, Theodore, of Seaside, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. David Herd Jr., and family, of Oregon City, recently spent four days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Winingham, Johnson, Theodore, and Mrs. Herd are respectively, father, brother, and sister of Mrs. Winingham.

The Home Economics club of Upper Applegate Grange met at the home of the chairman, Mrs. John Sutton, last Tuesday. The hostess and Mrs. Gail Buffington, head of the losing team in a recent contest, served a chicken dinner to the club members. Mrs. Sutton, who is returning to southern California to live was presented with a gift. During the business session, final details were completed for the Grange anniversary dinner at the Ruch school, Oct. 12.

Mrs. Gail Buffington's brother, Alfred Dore of Fresno, Calif., stayed several days at the Buffington residence last week. Dore is a foreman at the North American Aviation plant in Fresno.

Mrs. John Byrne returned Tuesday from a trip to Portland with her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Williams, of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pearson and Anne attended the October meeting of the Rogue River Jersey Cattle club held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hopewell, near Camp White, last Sunday.

The business session was preceded by a potluck luncheon.

The Rev. and Mrs. Earl Best moved into the new parsonage at Ruch, which formerly was occupied by Mrs. Lee Port. The Best's phone number has not been changed, and they may be reached by phoning 9-8551.

Services at the Ruch Community church will include Sunday school at 10 a.m., worship service, 11 a.m. and Bible study, 8 p.m.

There will be a potluck dinner on Sunday, Oct. 14, at the Ruch Community church parsonage, according to Mrs. Earl Best, and everyone is invited.

Mrs. Lee Port has vacated her home and returned to Eugene to be with her daughter, Mrs. Harlan Clark.

Dale Duval, of Portland, arrived last week and took his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duval, on a hunting trip to Ely, Nev., and to visit his uncle, Walter Duval.

W. A. Durbin and Darrell Monk left last Monday for work in the potato harvest at Tule Lake.

The Forest Service has taken six men, laid off at the mill, to pile brush and burn it, when weather conditions permit, in preparation for tree planting.

Five-year-old Anne Pearson recently had a birthday, and celebrated it at the Medford Congregational church by sharing her birthday cake with members of the church. Anne's cocker spaniel, "Goldilocks" presented her with a birthday present consisting of 5 puppies.

Singing and guitar playing can be heard once again at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Milam. Their son, Edward, came home last week on a 14 day leave from the navy in San Diego, Calif. After his furlough, he will report at San Francisco.

Several readers of the Applegate - Jacksonville column have participated in the friendly debate we had with William Ziegler over the question of whether goat meat, sold commercially, is called "chevron". George Distell, the Medford Mail Tribune proofreader, offered the following information: "In France, a goat is called 'chevre', in Latin it's 'copra', and in the U.S. we call a sergeant's stripes, 'chevrons', because the Sgt. is always the 'goat' when something goes haywire." Al Pawlowski presented us with several dairy goat journals which contain numerous recipes called 'chevon steaks', 'chevon roast', and 'chevon chops'. (We were proven wrong by the letter "r".) We are grateful for these and other enlightenments, but the question still remains, "Is goat meat officially named 'chevon'? If so, when and by whom?"

Recent visitors at the Glen Smith residence were his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith of Redland, Calif. The latter Smiths were here on business, but managed to squeeze in a little pleasure also.

The Little Applegate Knitting club meets at the home of Mrs. Frank Mitchell on Top o' the Hill Tuesday, Oct. 16.

Mrs. Harry Helms recently returned from Oakland, Calif., where she visited her daughter and a family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morris, and attended the fall flower show.

Mario Bortolazzo, and family, left this area last Sunday to return to Weed, Calif., where he is employed at his old job in the Longbell mill. The Bortolazzos were given a farewell party by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Learning of Shady Cove. Guests attending this event were Mr. and Mrs. Gene House, Mr. and Mrs. Buz Weltman and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Waltz, all of Shady Cove, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn France. Potluck supper was served at

But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

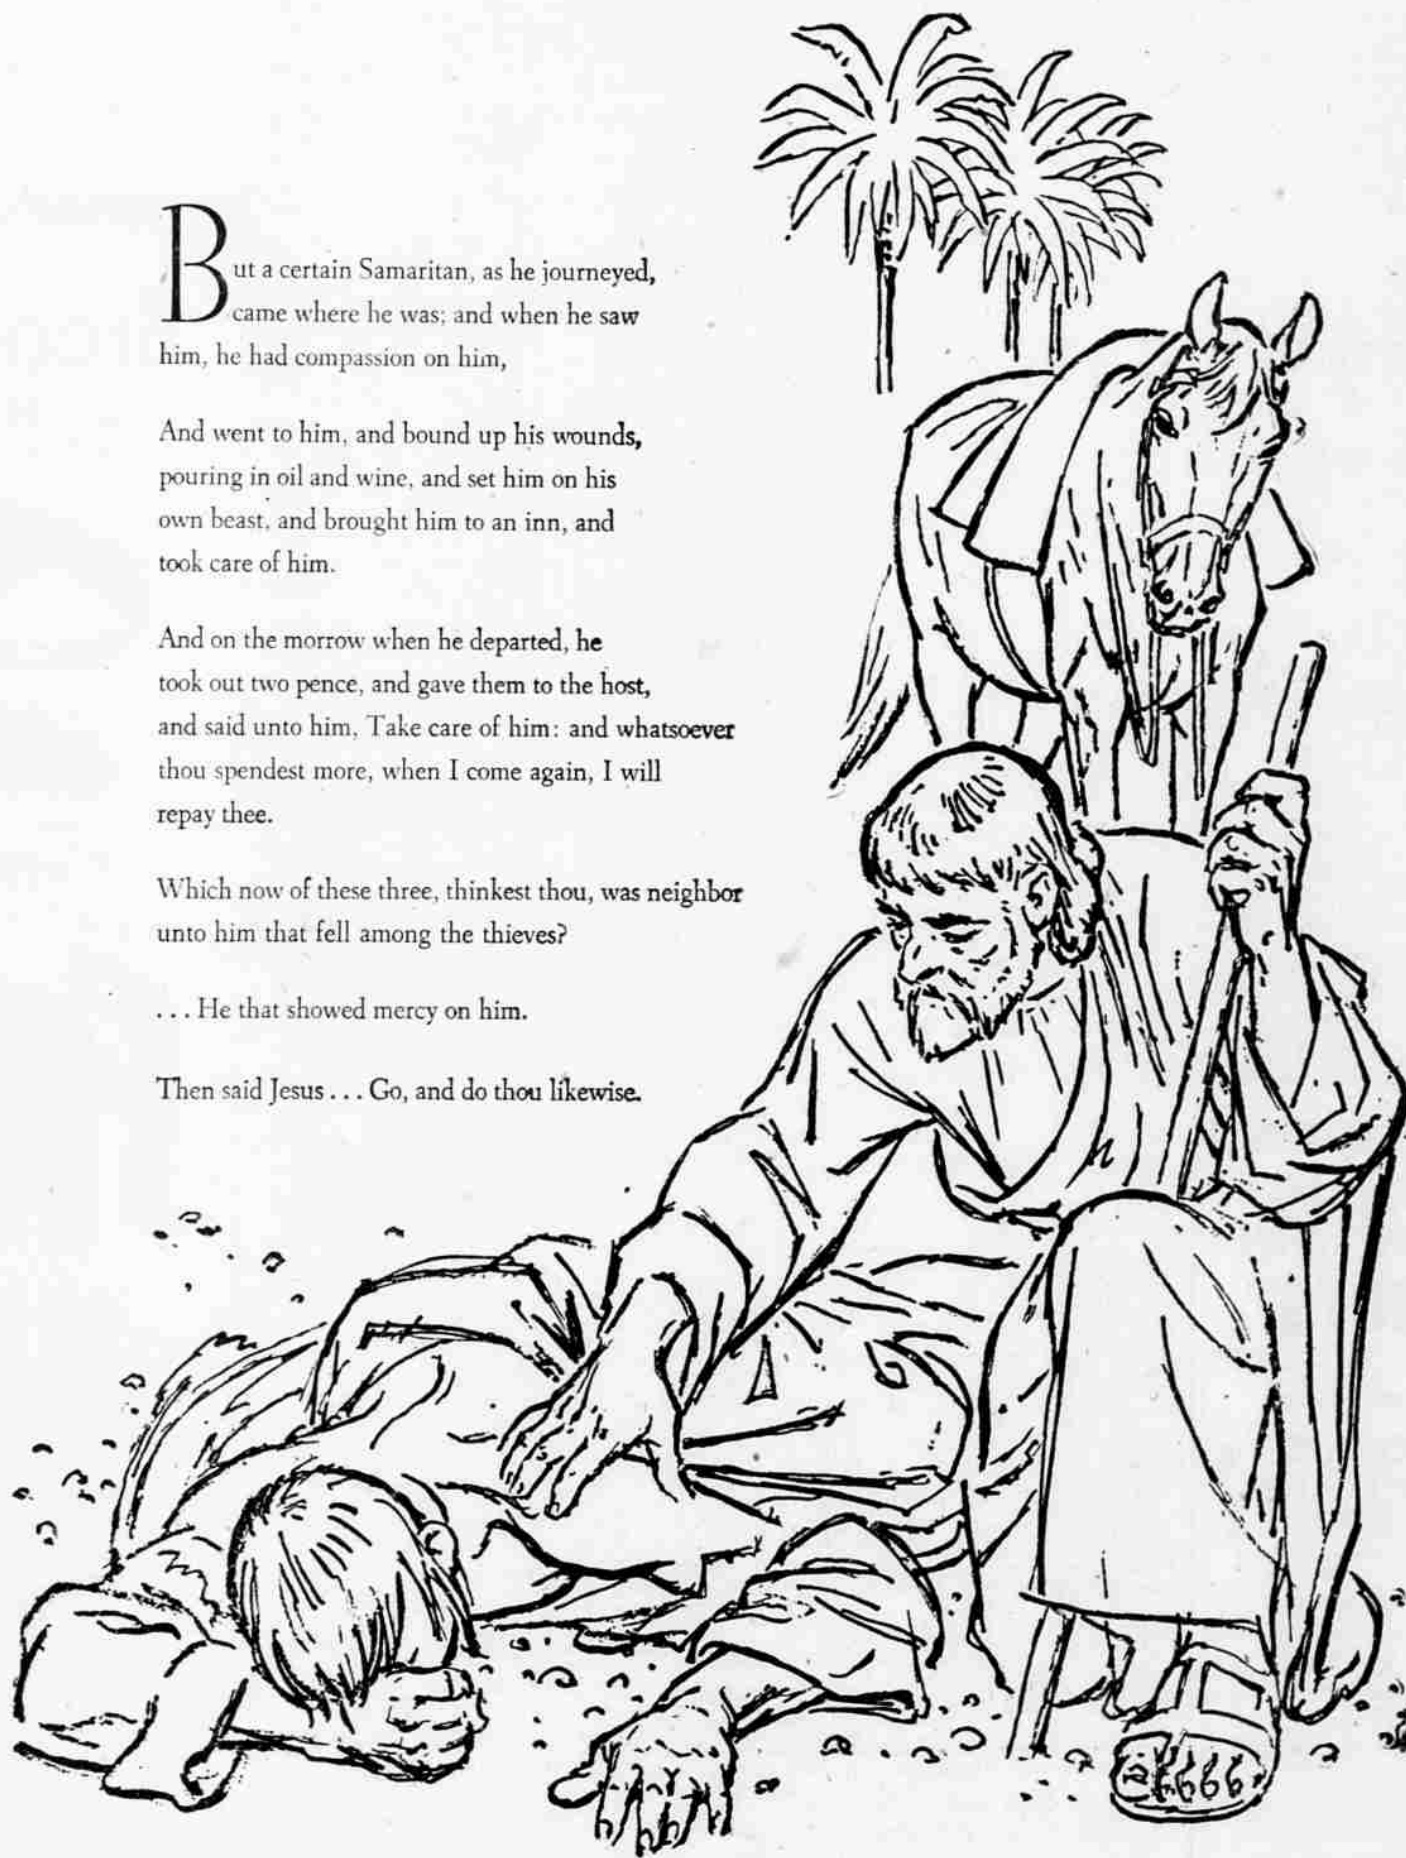

And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him: and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbor unto him that fell among the thieves?

... He that showed mercy on him.

Then said Jesus . . . Go, and do thou likewise.
