United Nations, Camp Fire Girls To Collect Coins on Halloween

"The Trick is to Treat the World's Children."

The coming Halloween season will again provide Medford children an opportunity to help less fortunate youngsters. For the third consecutive year Camp Fire Girls of Medford and nearby towns and cities will collect money to buy food and medicine for children in underprivileged countries, and this movement is being supported by Medford chapter, Oregon United Nations' association.

Children, supervised by adults, will call at the doors of their friends and neighbors but instead of asking for candy and doughnuts, will ask for coins to buy milk and medicine for children in Africa, Korea or Costa Rica. They will be provided with milk cartons bearing the UNICEF insignia.

In 1954, the first year of the special Halloween project, $1,781 was collected in Oregon. In 1955 almost $10,000 was brought in, and this year it is hoped to make the figure much larger.

In addition to Camp Fire Girls and UN workers, the project is being aided by the Christian World's Relations Department of the United Council of Church Women in Oregon, by Sunday school teachers and public school teachers, it is stated.

Grandparents Day To Be Observed By Jackson PTA

"Grandparents Day" will be the theme of a Jackson Parent-Teacher association meeting to be held Thursday, October 19, in the school gymnasium. Parents and particularly grandparents are especially invited to attend the meeting, which will start at 2:40 p.m.

Principal speaker will be Miss Louise Basford, director of special education, whose topic will be, "Teaching of Mental Health in the Medford school."

An educational film, entitled "The First Lesson" will also be shown. Miss Mary Vandenberg, social worker for Southern Oregon Child Guidance clinic, will discuss the film and answer questions from the audience.

Robert L. Buceus, principal of Jackson school, will report on the results of the questionnaire recently sent to parents concerning PTA and school activities.

On the lighter side, a group of mothers will present a short skit entitled, "Now When I Went to School." Following the meeting, refreshments will be served by mothers of children in the fifth grade.

Halloween Party Given for Members of Medford Club

Past noble grands of Olive Rebekah lodge dressed in Halloween attire for a party recently at the home of Mrs. Minnie Bryant.

Mrs. James Wicker entertained the group with humorous readings and told the origin of Halloween. Mrs. Bryant was in charge of the entertainment. A guest for the evening was Mrs. C. F. Wallace, formerly of Phoenix, Ariz., who with her family is now making her home in Medford.

During the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Margaret Davis, president of the club, plans were started for a rummage sale to be held in November.

Refreshment committee for the evening included Mrs. Irene Shirley, chairman, Mrs. Buford Kight, Mrs. Eber Jo Weed and Mrs. Virgie Garner.

Next meeting will be November 8 at the home of Mrs. Frank Chapman.

Honduras Topic For Last Session Of Medford Union

Mrs. Leonard York, wife of a missionary to British Honduras, spoke at the last meeting of Woman's Christian Temperance union. The session was held Thursday at the Salvation Army annex.

Mrs. York spoke of the people of Honduras, explaining differences between their way of life and that of the United States. She stated that they do not enjoy religious freedom as do citizens of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. York are spending a year in this country, and Mr. York is now in Pennsylvania visiting Nazarene churches of that state. Mrs. York and her child are living in Phoenix with her father, Charles Cummins.

Miss Elizabeth Burr, Mrs. Ernest Santo and Mrs. Guy Cox presented a skit, "Could This Be You?"

Mrs. Ernest Santo, who introduced the speaker, spoke concerning her recent trip to St. Louis, Mo., and Evanston, Ill.

Mrs. Minnie Bryant reported that Mrs. Fred Tooze, Portland, president of the Oregon WCTU, was recently elected corresponding secretary of the national union. Because Mrs. Tooze will now move to Evanston to carry on her national work, a special state WCTU executive meeting will be held to select a new president.

The Rev. Loyce Carver, new pastor of the Apostolic church, gave the devotions. Mrs. Roy Robinson sang.

Miss Elizabeth Burr reported on her project of contacting Medford schools to promote use of the book, "Alcohol at the Wheel." It is already in use at some schools, it was said.

Mrs. Edna Pursell, Mrs. Fred Reich, Mrs. Lucy Lyman and Mrs. Robert Taylor served refreshments.

The November meeting will be devoted to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis which the union helps to support.

Decorator Talks For Meeting of West Side Club

Jack Raapke spoke for a meeting of West Side Mothers club Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Allyn A. Monroe, Old Stage road. Mr. Raapke gave a talk based on the history and development of periods and styles of furnishings and the modern trends of interior decorating.

The new central library, being organized under the supervision and assistance of Mrs. Precia Medley, Jackson school, will be ready for the students in the very near future, according to Ernst Ludwig, principal of West Side school.

Funds raised by the students at the football jamboree held recently at the school, will be used for the library or for the new band class.

Mrs. P. G. Humphreys, president conducted the meeting and hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Harry D. Crofoot, Mrs. E. D. Davis and Mrs. Eston B. Humphrey.

The November meeting will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. Humphreys, Ross Lane, November 14, at 8 p.m.

Members of the group are asked to remember the rummage sale to be held November 7 and 8.

Luncheon Given For Miss Huskey

Miss Dorothy Huskey was honored at a farewell luncheon given Friday by women members and former members of the board of directors of the Jackson County Public Health association.

Miss Huskey has been health educator with the Jackson County Health department for the past five years and is leaving shortly to complete her work for a degree in doctor of philosophy at the school of public health at the University of Michigan. The growth of public health in Jackson county has been the subject for her research project for her doctorate and it is felt the theses will be helpful to this and other communities in establishing future public health programs.

An initiated brief case was presented to Miss Huskey by members of the board of directors of the health association in appreciation for her help during the past five years.

A good dish for fall's first nippy day would be pork chops cooked with prunes and pineapple chunks. Accompany them with baked large dry lima.

Guild Announces Symposium Tonight

A symposium on "Christian obligations to work for a world of mutual understanding" will feature a meeting of Ruth Estler Wesleyan Service guild set for tonight at 7:30 p.m. at First Methodist church. Mrs. Charles R. Adamson will moderate the discussion, to be conducted under four sub-titles.

Mrs. Mamie Bloomfield will speak on "All people are born free and equal." "Everyone has a right to freedom of opinion and expression," and "Every child has a right to a good world" will be the topics of Mrs. George Watson, Miss June Weston will speak on "Resources for meeting our needs for world understanding."

Guild officers state that all employed women are invited to attend the meetings.

Rogue River—"Roots in Happiness," a film recently purchased by the Southern Oregon Child Guidance Clinic association, was shown Wednesday night at a meeting of the Rogue River Parent Teacher association.

Miss Mary Vandenberg, representative of the clinic association, showed the film and led discussion later. Miss Vandenberg was introduced by Mrs. Phil B. Engle.

A "buzz session," previously scheduled for the program, was cancelled when discussion of the film extended beyond its scheduled time.

Also appearing at the program was John B. Harr, superintendent of the Rogue River schools, who explained two proposals relating to education which will appear on the November 6 ballot. He urged their support and gave a brief resume of some proposed legislation to be considered at the next state legislative session.

Executive committee members were introduced to the 85 PTA members present. The committee includes Mrs. Orvis A. Reeter, budget chairman; Mrs. Frank E. Birkman, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Richard W. Shontz, magazine chairman; Mrs. Harold W. Salter, membership chairman; Mrs. Freda Palmer, publicity chairman; Loran W. Casebier, parliamentary; Mrs. Yvonne Pugh, room representative chairman; Mrs. Rolland Jones and Mrs. Morris Jones, co-chairmen of refreshments; and Mrs. John Chiamulera, ways and means chairman.

Mrs. Dana McBarron, PTA president, conducted the meeting. Boy Scouts of Pack 37 presented the colors and Mrs. John A. Dixon led the group in the PTA prayer.

Delegates Attend Scout Conference

Mrs. Tom R. Lytle of Medford, first vice president of Rogue Valley Area Girl Scout council who headed this community's delegation to the three-day regional Girl Scout conference at Spokane, Wash., returned home last week and reported on the conference proceedings.

The conference, Mrs. Lytle said, was attended by over two hundred Girl Scout adults and one hundred Senior Scouts from Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Alaska. Among the major problems discussed were the need for more Girl Scout volunteers to serve as troop leaders and assistants, and to take on other "behind the scene" jobs in Girl Scouting; and ways to improve the Girl Scout program so that it will provide more opportunities and challenges for girls, she reported.

Among the speakers who addressed the conference were Mrs. Roy F. Layton, national president, and Mrs. Oileda Schrotky, member of field department, Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. One of the speakers pointed out that since 1912 Girl Scouting has been a valuable experience for millions of American girls.

As a result of the conference, the Rogue Valley Area Girl Scout council is planning to hear reports at the next council meeting, November 14, at St. Mark's Guild hall at the morning session. The meeting will be from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

In addition to Mrs. Lytle, other Girl Scouts from this area who attended the conference were Mrs. Harold Ricks, Medford, Brownie leader of Griffin Creek school; Mrs. Calvin Ross, Ashland district chairman; Mrs. Monte Polk, Ashland, neighborhood chairman; and two Senior Scouts, Nancy Stevenson, Troop 2, and Mary Friend, Troop 75, both of Medford.

Many new program ideas were presented to the delegates and these will be included in their reports.

Fall Flower Show Planned by Club

Medford Garden club will hold a fall flower show and tea Thursday, October 18, in the Courthouse auditorium from 12 to 8 p.m.

Arrangements can be floral, driftwood, dried material, leaves or sedums; house plants will also be shown. Other garden clubs are invited to participate or anyone interested in showing their fall flowers. The arrangements must be in by 11 o'clock, as well as the specimens to be shown. The display will be open to the public.

Further information may be obtained from Mrs. E. M. Wallin, 2-5716.

Mrs. Moore Hostess For Reese Creek Unit

The next regular meeting of the Reese Creek Extension unit will be November 10 at the home of Mrs. C. H. Moore on Ball road. Mrs. Ralph Lacy and Mrs. Ronald Nelson will demonstrate how to make sofa cushions.

At the meeting held October 2 it was decided that the women pay $2.50 for child care each meeting this year. The mothers will pay 50c for the day and provide a sack lunch for the child.

Mrs. Merle McGraw was appointed program planning observer upon the resignation of Mrs. Ronald Nelson.

Seven members of the unit attended a lesson on family business and the law in Central Point October 5.

FFA Chapters Attend Milk Producers Meet

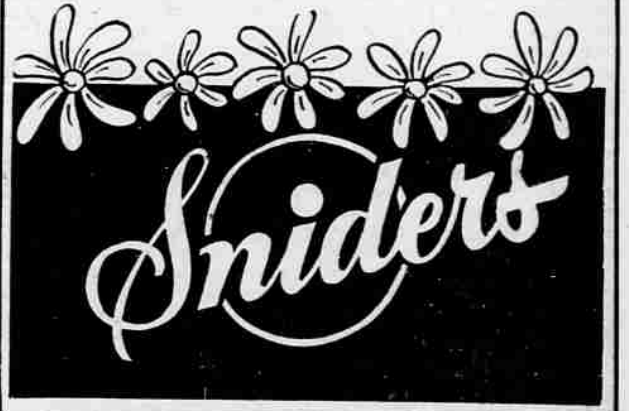

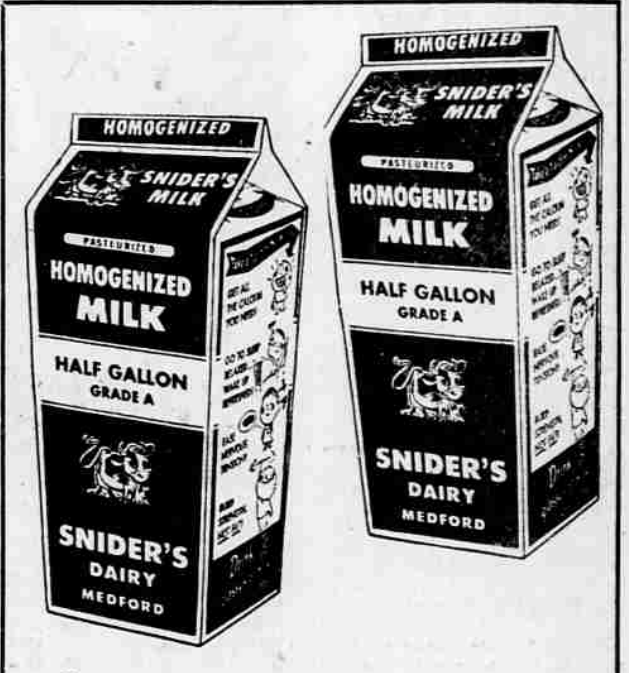

Future Farmers of America were guests Friday of the Jackson County Milk Producers league at a business meeting and banquet in the Jackson hotel.

Advisers and officers of Phoenix, Eagle Point and Central Point FFA chapters were in attendance. Carl Hoover, public relations chairman of the league, introduced Future Farmers and league board members.
