Benefit Program Given in Phoenix

Phoenix—Acorn squash "Flowers," dried weeds, plow discs and flowers of all varieties were among features shown for the "What's New in Flower Arrangement" program presented by Mrs. J. T. Weahunt and Mrs. G. P. Bennett recently. A group of 200 members and friends of Siskiyou district garden clubs enjoyed the afternoon of flower arranging in the Phoenix Community club.

Helen Stevenson Makes Comment on Affairs of State

By GAY PAULEY
United Press Correspondent

New York—Helen Stevenson, who dates one of the nation's eligible bachelor-politicians, says people should be as interested in affairs of state as in affairs of the heart.

"We'd have a better democracy if this were the case," said Miss Stevenson, who recently switched her interests from airlines to political lines.

The 28-year-old beauty, a distant cousin of the Democratic candidate for president, dates New Jersey's Gov. Robert Meyner.

Wedding Rumors Persist

She said in an interview that she and the governor are "good friends." But she refused to say whether that friendship was blossoming into a love that could make her one of the nation's youngest first ladies in the governor's mansion.

The rumors persist, however, that she will wed the 48-year-old Meyner.

Miss Stevenson has dark, curly hair and a statuesque figure. "I'm five eight... a monster," she said with a laugh.

A native of New York, she was educated at Bearley school and Colorado college, Colorado Springs, where she majored in history. After graduation in 1950, she joined the American Red Cross and spent nearly two years at the Korean War front.

Two and one-half years ago, she went to work for Trans World Airlines as head of their women's travel service.

Helping Cousin

She said she has been interested in politics since college days. Nine months ago she took a leave of absence from the airline to join the Stevenson forces. At present she is administrative assistant in the volunteer division of the New York headquarters for Stevenson.

"The governor had nothing to do with my decision," she said. Meyner also is campaigning actively for Stevenson.

She met Meyner last May when he was chief speaker at Oberlin college, Oberlin, O. Her father, William Stevenson, has been the college president for 12 years.

"The governor and I have been good friends since," she said, "but no further comment."

"We have little time to see each other," she added. "Even to talk by telephone. He's a very busy man."

Style Show Presented By Chapter

Alpha Rho chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held a model meeting and fashion show for rushees at the home of Mrs. Richard Henselman, 333 Ardmore avenue, October 11. This meeting was to acquaint rushees with Beta Sigma Phi and how Alpha Rho chapter is conducted.

Raths of Medford held the fashion show showing a wardrobe to carry a young woman through the entire day, from rising to an important night out. Mrs. Rath introduced the models and described each outfit modeled. Shoes worn with the outfits were provided by Buster Browns of Medford. Modeling this wardrobe were Mrs. Larry Allen, Mrs. William Tyler, Mrs. Herman Schroeder, Mrs. Bob Norris and Mrs. Jonathan Middleton, all members of Alpha Rho. Background music was provided for the show by Swems. Afterwards Mr. Rath answered questions.

The cultural program was presented by Mrs. Donald Lue and Mrs. Raymond Morton. "Her Crowning Glory" was their topic and they explained the different styles women and men have worn, down through the centuries, and wore examples themselves. Mrs. Mortons was a Gibson Girl style and Mrs. Lue's a finger wave. Their styles were done for them by Cooks Beauty shop. They explained that the trend now is for slightly longer hair instead of the bob.

The president, Mrs. Larry Allen, asked all rushees and members to introduce themselves. Mrs. Morton, sorority city council representative, reported the plans for all four chapters in Medford to work together on the Valentines ball to be held in February. She also explained the council for the guests. Mrs. Allen explained that Mrs. Jonathan Middleton had been voted as our chapters Valentine Girl. The reason for the early selection was so the sorority's monthly magazine, The Torch, could carry their pictures in the February issue.

Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. James Chapman, Mrs. William Tyler and Mrs. Richard Riggs.

Mrs. Scott Davis was a guest for the meeting and style show. Mrs. Davis is director for Beta Upsilon chapter. Mrs. M. E. Sleeter, director for Alpha Rho, was also present.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bob Norris, 2368 Crater Lake avenue, October 25. Plans will be discussed for the Halloween party to be held October 27th.

Auxiliary Meeting To Be Here

Medford unit of the American Legion auxiliary will be hostess for a District 13 conference on October 27. The first item of the days program will be the auxiliary's orientation and indoctrination course for volunteer hospital workers, conducted by Mrs. Earl B. Bigalow, director of volunteer hospital workers for the department of Oregon, and assisted by Mrs. Leo William, hospital representative for Camp White. The class will be held at 3:30 p.m. at the American Legion home on South riverside.

A no-host dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel followed by the conference with Miss Laura York, District 13 president, conducting the meeting. Members are urged to attend both the hospital school and the conference. New programs are available and more volunteer workers are needed to participate in the activities at Camp White.

At a recent meeting, Mrs. Williams reported that 340,000 American Legion memorial poppies will be made at Camp White. This program provides income for hospitalized veterans and supplies the flowers which will be worn by the public on Memorial Day, in memory of the war dead. Mrs. Williams also announced that the auxiliary will again sponsor a concession at the Camp White carnival on the evening of October 31. Volunteers are invited to participate in the event.

Mrs. Merle Jarmin, Americanism chairman, reported that flags have been ordered to present to Girl Scout troops.

Mrs. Ross Minnece, president, announced that the rummage sale has been postponed and will be held on October 18 and 19 at the American Legion home.

Prior to the meeting the American Legion and auxiliary viewed a colored film showing the auxiliary wheel chair parade which is an annual program at the Veterans Hospital in Portland. This program is the brainchild of Eda Zolezto, auxiliary hospital representative in Portland. Many volunteers participate in this parade of wheel chairs which are decorated with artificial flowers made by auxiliary units of Oregon.
