

Dental Health PTA Topic

William Duhaime was the guest speaker at the first fall meeting of Roosevelt Parent-Teacher association. Mr. Duhaime showed a film on "Dental Health" followed by a question and answer period.

John Childers, principal, introduced the teachers and the room count was won by Mrs. Georgianne Beier in the lower grades and Mrs. Gertrude Lorton in the upper grades. New teachers at Roosevelt this year are Mrs. Marian Montgomery, Robert Wobbe and Mrs. Lois Seitz.

The date for the annual carnival was announced for Thursday, November 15.

Hostesses for the afternoon were members of the executive committee, headed by Mrs. Don Wood, hospitality chairman. Other officers and committee chairmen of Roosevelt PTA for the coming year are: Mrs. Jerry Adfinger, president; Mrs. Ross A. Minnici, vice-president; Mrs. Nick R. DeWitt, secretary; Mrs. Charles Lewis, treasurer; Mrs. William Myers, room representative; Mrs. Robert Little, program; Mrs. Emerson Anderson and Mrs. Robert Reynolds, ways and means; Mrs. Harvey Field, music; Mrs. Lucian Van Gordon, legislative and by-laws; Mrs. Stewart Milne, historian; Mrs. LeRoy Smith, Girl Scouts; Mrs. Ray Sorenson, parliamentarian; Mrs. W. O. Blackledge, newcomers; Mrs. A. K. Morse, promotion; Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer, radio-TV; Mrs. John J. McCann, membership; Mrs. Jerold Poulos, magazine; Mrs. Roy Stein, health; Mrs. Edward P. Barnett, publicity; Mrs. Howard Bush, visual education; Mrs. Stuart McQueen, round-up; Mrs. William Seibert, welfare and child guidance; John Childers, safety and faculty advisor.

Salem — (U.P.) — Attorney General Robert Y. Thornton said that a corporation withholding an employee's funds for use by the corporation and paying interest on the funds, was not engaged in the banking business. The opinion was requested by the state superintendent of banks.

League Members To Hear Talk by National Officer

Three members of Medford League of Women will travel to Eugene Thursday to meet Mrs. John G. Lee, president of the League of Women Voters of the United States. In the group will be Mrs. Robert Hiatt, president of the Medford league, Mrs. John Ousterhout and Mrs. Ogen Kellogg, Gold Hill. They will return Friday.

Mrs. Lee, who is from Farmington, Conn., will be honored at a dinner Thursday night and later will speak at an open meeting. This will be followed by a discussion period during which league members will submit their local problems. League officers and members from several Oregon cities will attend.

Friday Mrs. Lee will grant personal conferences to any league member. Mrs. Lee was elected president of the League of Women Voters of the United States in 1950 and reelected in 1952, 1954 and 1956. She has served on the national board since 1944, with one term as director and two as second vice-president. She was president of the League of Women Voters of Connecticut for eight years.

Under Mrs. Lee's leadership, the organization has grown from 740 local Leagues to over 1000 in 48 states, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, and Alaska. Individual membership, now 126,000, is more than two-and-a-half times that of 1944.

Mrs. Lee is a member of the college advisory committee of the Ford Foundation, served for a year on the group acting as liaison between the public and the Foreign Operations administration, is a trustee of Connecticut college and the American Heritage Foundation. She is also a trustee of Putney school, from which her two daughters and her younger son graduated.

Officer Stresses Sale Importance

"Because the discovery of a vaccine for tuberculosis seems to be near, it is more important than ever that we should have a good Christmas seal sale," Mrs. Henry Padgham, president of the Jackson County Public Health association, stated recently at a luncheon for the county chairman of the seal sale.

Discussion among the chairmen centered around the mailing of the seals which are scheduled to arrive at county homes November 15. Chairmen present at the luncheon at the Rogue Valley Country club were Mrs. Bruce Pingle, Butte Falls; Mrs. Marvin A. Kocks, Ashland; Mrs. Chamberlain, Central Point; Mrs. Melvin Burnett, Gold Hill; Mrs. Roy Martin and Mrs. John Keavney, Jacksonville; Mrs. Ted Hoffman, Eagle Point; Mrs. Stanley Parrish, Central Point; Mrs. Frank Tamney, Medford; Mrs. E. G. Taylor, Talent; Mrs. Marcus Dey, Prospect, and Mrs. M.

Medford Students In School News

Four Medford students are working in Varsity Varieties, student-produced and directed variety show to be a feature of Parents' Week End at Willamette university October 19-20.

The cast, entirely made up from talent at the school, is directed by Ted Primrose, Oregon City, and Miss Connie Clark, Medford. Miss Clark is a daughter of Mrs. Jack Hartley, 59 Rose avenue.

In the cast are Tom Gail, son of Mr. and Mrs. Budd Gail, Bidle road; Miss Sonja Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Peterson, 2574 Jacksonville high-

O. Grove, chairman of the county.

Mrs. Grove spoke at length on the various problems connected with the distribution of the seals and Mrs. Frank Tamney demonstrated various ways in which seals could be used in packaging and on Christmas cards.
