Martha Bishop, Lillas Banks, Bessie Aldridge and guest, Sylvia Lehman, of Grants Pass, were assisted by local Cooties Al Young, Robert Myers, and Henry Williams.

The VFW auxiliary ward visitation Friday afternoon was cancelled because of the funeral for Mrs. Claude E. Close of Trail. Patsy Close had long been an active member and ardent worker.

On The Side

By E. V. Durling (Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Rotterdam — The good ship Nieuw Amsterdam arrived at Rotterdam right on time. Six o'clock on a bright sunny morning. Rotterdam is the largest seaport in Europe. It looked it. I have never seen so much activity in a harbor at one time. Tugboats of all sizes, Passenger liners, freighters, oil tankers, yachts, motor boats, tenders and scows. All moving as rapidly as possible.

We disembarked and moved through the customs smoothly and speedily. We have 12 pieces of baggage, mostly small size. Not difficult to handle except for constantly counting same. Have never had much difficulty with baggage on European trips except once at Havre when it was placed in the wrong car on the boat train. That was a real rugged experience. Especially as it happened on our first trip abroad.

Traveler's Aid Bureau Helps Over Million

Chicago—(AP)—More than a million persons were helped last year by the 108 bureaus maintained by the National Travelers Aid Association.

In a recent study to determine who uses the services offered by the organization, it was found that travelers from 7,270 American cities from Abbeville, Ala., to Zwille, La., had asked for help. Also victims from 89 foreign countries had registered with the society.

Illinois, with two bureaus, topped the other states by giving aid to 123,000 persons. California, with seven offices, served 99,303 tourists.

Ralph Collins, executive secretary of the Chicago office, said that the basic problems handled were simple ones such as giving directions. However, he explained that 23 per cent of the people had more complex troubles which required the service of professionally trained case workers.

The VAVS group to be honored on the display plaque this week is Daughters of Union Veterans, Ricker has announced.

New Officers Elected For Professors Group

Ashland — New officers were elected by the Southern Oregon college members of the American Association of University Professors recently.

Replacing Oscar G. Bjorlie as president, Dr. Alvin Fellers, former vice president of the organization, was succeeded in the latter office by Dennis Hannan.

Dr. Dorothy Stolp was elected secretary, her predecessor in office being Mrs. Elinor C. Saltus. Mrs. Saltus is now on the staff at Arizona State college in Tucson. Miss Beverly Bennett succeeded Miss Myrtle Funkhouser as treasurer.

Please Note

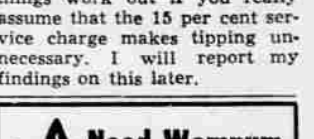

Gasoline is 52 cents a gallon in Holland. That's cheap for a European country. Most of the cars are small. There is a city speed limit, but nobody pays any attention to it. The cyclists also ride at top speed. You really have to be an experienced traffic dodger to avoid being knocked over in a Holland city. The fact is, Holland has a higher percentage of traffic accidents than any other country in Europe.

Smokers The Dutch are great smokers. There are about two tobacconists on every block. Cigars are preferred. Those smoked are practically all of Dutch manufacture. Havana cigars are very expensive. Only the diplomats who live at the luxurious Hotel Indes can afford to smoke them. However, cigarettes have many followers. Never saw so many different brands before. One small shop I visited had over 200 different brands of cigarettes in stock! Haven't seen many pipe smokers. That surprised me. Because Dutchmen are usually portrayed smoking a pipe.

Breakfast There is one thing I definitely have in common with the Dutch. That is a liking for a hearty breakfast. Even so, the Dutch morning meal is a little too hearty for me. It includes fruit, cereal, ham or bacon and eggs, several varieties of bread, cheese and coffee.

Tips Restaurants and hotels in The Hague add a 15 per cent "service charge." That takes care of the tips. Or so it is alleged. In any event it is going to take care of my tips. I want to see how
