

HANDY GUY—Quarterback John Brodie (above) of Stanford University has passed his way to top offensive honors for college football players. Brodie has piled up 748 yards in four games, all but 16 yards on passes. He has completed 61 of 102 attempts and has thrown seven touchdown passes.

TORNADO PLAYS EUREKA TONIGHT; FRONT WALL SAID LOGGER WEAKNESS

Information on the Eureka High school Logger arrived in the morning mail from Al Tostado, sports editor of the Humboldt Times.

Medford's unbeaten, once tied Black Tornado plays the Eureka football aggregation in the California city tonight.

Tostado regards the Tornado a three-touchdown favorite but says that "Eureka could pick this one as a heck of a time to jell and come through with an upset." He stated that the Logger backs make hometown fans hope but that the line makes them "know better." He then says, "But I think it only fair to warn you that our Big Four conference elevens have not lost a prep inter-sectional as yet this year."

The Loggers have had an in-and-out season. Despite the fact it's felt the Eureka line is its major weakness, the bright spots for the Californians this year are in the forward wall. Ron Moore at guard and Bill Nichols at tackle have stood out in their play on the right side of the wall. Both were all-conference last year. Rest of the line, Tostado says, is not up to Logger standards of previous seasons.

Weak at Quarter

Eureka's backfield has good speed but is weak at quarter-back, an important spot in split T offensive. Dennis Giuntini and Jack McHenry share the chores. Halfback Ron Peterson is a good straight ahead runner and has speed.

Erol Scott at fullback is reported as overweight and without the speed and power he had as an all-loop performer in 1955. Halfback Larry Sullivan has speed and power and does some passing but may miss action because of a knee bruise. Jerry Olsen, a good runner from half and full, is a tough line-backer.

The Loggers also could spring Jerry Long, a 128-pound senior, on the Tornado.

Medford takes the field tonight aiming to uphold prestige as Oregon's No. 2 ranked club.

Berra Honored At Home on Hill

St. Louis — (U.P.) — New York Yankees' catcher Yogi Berra, a World Series hero, returned to his home on "The Hill" here Thursday clasped with "three great Italians"—Columbus, Marconi and Berra.

The Professional and Businessmen's club of the Hill, representing the locale from whence the stubby catcher came, presented Berra with a scroll and only its second honorary membership.

Yogi accepted the honors graciously and answered questions about his and other Yankees heroics in the Series.

ST. MARY'S GRIDDERS TAKE ON TALENT HIGH IN IMPORTANT TUSSLE

Talent High school's Bulldogs will go all out tonight for a title clinching football victory while St. Mary's of Medford will be scrapping to keep in the running for its third consecutive Jackson County B league championship.

The two schools collide at 8 p.m. at the Medford Senior high stadium. A Talent triumph gives it the B loop toga with an undefeated record. A St. Mary's win would leave the Crusaders the lone unmarried club in the circuit but the Bulldogs would remain in contention of the title.

Tonight's game winds up the regular conference schedule for Talent but St. Mary's still has Rogue River to play. Both schools take forfeit wins from Prospect which dropped from the loop after meeting only Rogue River and Jacksonville. Both Met Jacksonville.

St. Mary's and Talent have met only one common rival so far this season. The Crusaders of Medford thumped Jacksonville 33 to 0 and Talent topped the Redskins 26 to 0.

The scores are an indication of close battle in the crucial game with morale possibly being the deciding factor.

Talent is reportedly without its regular tailback, Phil Combs, who hurt a knee in the Jacksonville fray last week. For St. Mary's fullback Jim Darland may see only limited service because of a deep knife wound in his arm.

The B schools provide the football at the local stadium for this week end since Medford high, after Friday appearances six weeks in a row, plays at Eureka, Calif., tonight.

Turf Growing on Jacksonville Athletic Field; Lights Planned

Jacksonville—A thick turf is in the process of growing on a new Jacksonville High school athletic field and residents of the district have begun a program to develop lighting for the plant.

The grounds are behind the new elementary school building. This area was leveled and furnished with an aluminum pipe sprinkling system. Seed and fertilizer were applied about three weeks ago. At present the field is very green.

Program for lighting the field calls for sale of $5 bonds to many individuals. People can purchase as many of these bonds as they are able. It is hoped that sufficient funds will be received to permit lighting for baseball and track as well as football.

Aim is to have the grounds ready for next school year's athletic contests. For the past several years, a number of "home" games have been played at Central Point or Medford. Students here are enthusiastic about the prospect of having an up to date facility of their own.

Owners Discuss Nashua Future

Lexington, Ky.—(U.P.)—The future of the great stallion Nashua was discussed here today by the three top shareholders in the syndicate that purchased the thoroughbred from the estate of the late William Woodward Jr. for $1,251,200 last year.

Leslie Combs II, head of the syndicate, and his week end guests at Spendthrift, New Yorkers John Hanes and Christopher J. Devine, together own a controlling 18 shares in Nashua.

Combs' personal plans called for the breeding of his Myrtlewood mares to the big bay, son of imported Nasrullah. He owns 16 mares from that family.

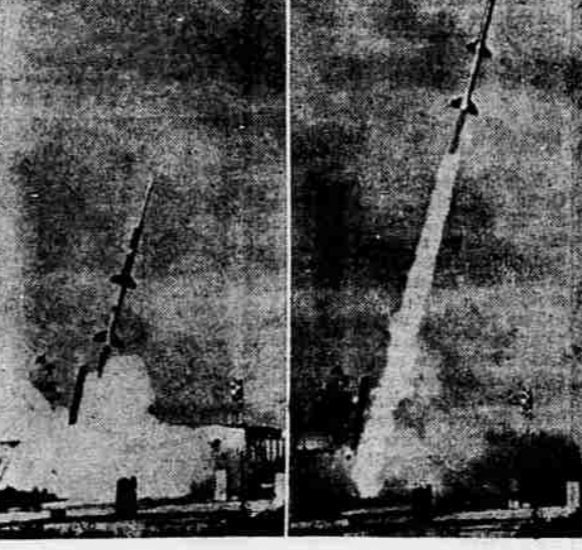

Nashua was retired to stud in a brief ceremony at Keeneland Race Course here Thursday after some 15,000 racing fans cheered his final workout over the Keeneland oval with veteran jockey Eddie Arcaro aboard.

HUNTER JOINS BROWNS

Cleveland — (U.P.) — Former Notre Dame tackle Art Hunter, who has been serving in the Army for the last two years, joined the Cleveland Browns today but is not expected to play much until next season. Hunter was obtained by the Browns from the Green Bay Packers in 1955.

PIN TOURNAY SET

New York — (U.P.) — U.S. match game champion Bill Lillard of Chicago and masters champion Dick Hoover of Akron, Ohio, head an all-star list of kegglers who will compete in the first annual Madison Square Garden Invitation Bowling tournament on Nov. 13.

WHOOSHI!—An apparent world speed record of at least 6864 miles per hour has been reached by rocket-powered research missiles launched over the Atlantic from Langley Field, Va., the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics announced in Washington. Shown above is the launching of the four-stage rocket which set the new record.
