

Hedrick 9th Scores First Grid Victory

Hedrick Junior high ninth graders, on the short end of the score in their three previous games this season, came through with their first football victory of 1956 here Friday. The Hornets defeated the Crater freshmen 20 to 0.

The Medford eleven was in front 7 to 0 at the half and 13 to 0 after three stanzas.

Hedrick played ahead up game and was strong on defense during the afternoon. Blocking and tackling was much sharper than the Hornets have shown in earlier engagements.

Doug Kliever set up the first touchdowns with a fumble recovery on the Crater 25-yard line. Paul Moore made the last 10 yards to the goal and Don Cranston went over for theobonus.

Cranston went the last five on a drive for the second TD. For the last score Cal Summers went five yards after a pass for 30 yards. Jerry Anderson to Gary McGill, had been the big gainer on the push. Anderson sneaked the extra point.

OTI TRIPS SOC 27-20 ON 3RD PERIOD SURGE

Klamath Falls—Oregon Technical institute turned a close game into a rout Saturday afternoon by scoring three touchdowns in the third period in a 27 to 20 decision over Southern Oregon college footballers here.

The clubs were tied at 7-all at halftime. OTI's scoring splurge, while the Red Raiders went scoreless in the third quarter made it 27 to 7 when that canto ended. SOC came back with too little too late in the final chucker.

Belton Ollison countered for the Owls in the first period with a three-yard punch which wound up a 66-yard drive. Wally Woods kicked the conversion. Chuck Crandall went 22 yards for a TD on a statue of liberty play for Southern Oregon in the second quarter and John Garrett converted.

Crater Thumps Ashlanders 32-12 in District 6 Fray

The Comet 19 after Jim Witte had recovered a fumble. But Crater came back with an 81-yard surge to the goal in nine plays. Wayne Allen sneaked the last yard and Jerome McQuade kicked the extra point.

Pass Sets Up

The Grizzlies got their second quarter TD after Witte fell on another fumble on the Comet 45. It took eight plays with Ken Dye making the last yard. The score was set up by a 2-yard pass. Ron Mickle to Al South, putting the ball on the seven.

Crater got down to the Ashland 15 before the end of the half but lost back to the 19 and Harvey Sorenson intercepted an Allen pass.

From the opening third quarter kick-off Crater marched 68 yards in eight plays with George Juveland going the last five to make it 13 to 6.

Later in the period, South recovered a fumble for Ashland on the Crater eight. Bob Davis plunged to the five but Bob Murray lost to the seven and Al McKinnis to the 13. A Mickle pass was intercepted by Juveland, giving Crater the ball on the eight.

On the next scrimmage play Don Goyette broke through and scooped 92 yards down the left sideline to score. McKinnis made last chance lunging tackle try and missed.

Pass Goes 43

Next opportunity for the Central Point school came when Ashland gambled on fourth down in the last quarter and failed to make needed yardage. Crater took over on the Grizzly 36 and six players later had a TD. Juveland took a pitch and went the last 11 yards. A short pass, Allen to Juveland, got the extra point for 26 to 6.

Crater got the ball on the Ashland 43 after another Grizzly fourth down loss. A short toss from Allen was hauled in by Juveland who fought on to the goal.

Ashland got touchdown No. 2 on a 37-yard pass play, Mickle to South.

The Comets were supreme on the ground and Ashland strongest in the air during the night. Crater had 349 yards rushing and 52 passing for 401 total. Ashland netted only 38 yards on the ground, 27 in the first half and 11 in the second but had 201 in the air for a 239 tabulation.

Jerome McQuade, Crater back, suffered a head injury in the tangle and was kept overnight at Ashland General hospital.

Stanford Still Choice For Bowl, Whips Ducks

By HOWARD APPEGATE
United Press Sports Writer
Eugene, Ore. — (U.P.) — Stanford maintained its favored role for a Pacific Coast conference Rose Bowl bid Saturday by handing the Oregon Webfoots a 21-7 wallop on the razor sharp passing of John Brodie and the hard running of fullback Lou Valli.

Brodie, who went into the game leading the nation's college passers, completed 11 out of 21 in the three quarters that he played, one for a touchdown. Valli, who packed the ball 17 times, picked up two touchdowns on short bursts and a total of 106 yards from rushing.

More UO Fumbles

Oregon, a victim of fumbleitis in its last two games, had the same trouble Saturday. The game was less than two minutes old when halfback Jack Brown fumbled and Troy Barber of Stanford pounced on the ball on the Webfoot 30. A few minutes later, Valli pounced across his first touchdown as Stanford went 33 yards in five plays. A 32 punt return by halfback Gordy Young set it up.

A crowd of 14,800 watched disappointed as Oregon, after a 43-yard punt return by LeRoy Phelps, drove to the Stanford 10 where Phelps fumbled and Jack Taylor recovered for Stanford.

Then Brodie, mixing his plays beautifully, marched the Indians

90 yards in 17 plays. Brodie hit his favorite target, halfback Paul Camera, from 20 yards out for the touchdown. Late in the third period, Brodie and Valli got the Indians rolling again. Passes from Brodie to Carl Isaacs and Camera and runs of 17 and 11 yards by Valli moved Stanford downfield.

The Indians made it 21-0 when Valli, 176 pounds of punch from San Jose, punched over from the two.

UO Hits Reserves

Oregon didn't manage to score until only 28 seconds were left and the touchdown came against Stanford reserves. Roger Daniels, a third string quarterback hit sub halfback Charlie Tourville for 41 yards late in the game. Taylor was there to intercept a pass on the five but Oregon got a Stanford fumble on the 22 when the alert Daniels grabbed the rolling ball.

Daniels hit Tourville for 22 yards for the Webfoot score and Jack Morris converted. Mike Raftery converted twice and Douglas Dick once for Stanford.

It was the third straight loss for Oregon and was a body blow to any Rose Bowl hopes. The Ducks might have held the

OSC Ground Attack Overpowers Cougars

By RUSSELL NIELSEN
United Press Sports Writer
Pullman, Wash. — (U.P.) — Oregon State college, moving steadily behind a crunching ground attack, rolled to an easy 21 to 0 victory over fumbling Washington State college Saturday in a Pacific coast conference football game.

Oregon State showed power for short but consistent yardage throughout the game to garner its first victory here in 10 years and keep the Beavers' Rose Bowl hopes alive.

Durden Stars

With sophomore speedster Earnel Durden leading the way, Oregon State scored in the first, third and fourth periods. Meanwhile, the vaunted Washington

State aerial circus was contained in WSC territory nearly all day.

The Beavers iced its victory early in the first period. They recovered the opening kickoff, were stopped on the Washington State one, then marched for a touchdown. Durden scored on a five-yard dash around left end. End Paul Clarke kicked the first of three conversions.

Midway in the third period, Oregon State recovered another fumble on the OSC 42, one of the few times Washington State managed to cross midfield. Durden scampered for 20 yards and moments later, sprinted 28 more for the score.

With 4:30 played in the fourth period, Durden ran 40 yards out of punt formation to the Washington State 22. Four plays later, fullback Nub Beamer plunged over from the four.

After Oregon State's first touchdown, sophomore quarterback Bob Newman took to the air to move Washington State to the OSC 5, but a fourth down pass failed. Another WSC drive faltered in the fourth period when fullback Jim Frankson fumbled in the Oregon State end zone and OSC recovered.

End Bill Steiger, a converted halfback, was the Washington State defensive star of the game. He broke through the Oregon State line three times in the first half to throw ball carriers for losses. The first breakthrough halted an OSC drive which had penetrated to the Washington State one.

Solon Club To Stay in Washington

Washington — (U.P.) — A touch of sentiment and the weight of President Eisenhower's wishes combined today to keep the nation's capital on the major league baseball map.

The Washington Senators will be back at the old stand next year—but with new hope that they'll show improvement at the League standings.

Griffith, jubilant over the outcome of the show-down meeting, said the board had attractive offers from Los Angeles, Minneapolis, San Francisco and Louisville but added, "the most attractive was from Washington."

Actually, all the evidence indicated that the Senators had walked to the brink of a shift and then backed away in deference to the memory of Clark Griffith and the announced wish of Mr. Eisenhower.

Utah State Wins, 46-7

Logan, Utah. — (U.P.) — Utah State stayed in the running for the Skyline conference crown here Saturday with a resounding 46-7 win over Hapless Colorado A & M in a league encounter played before 5,500 fans in Romney stadium.

The Aggies of Logan put on their best offensive show of the season to swamp the Rams and move into a second place tie with Utah. Both teams have 3-1 records in league play.

Bob Winters, one of the nation's outstanding passers, showed fans he could also run as he led the farmers to victory with two touchdowns. In addition to directing other Aggie scoring drives, Substitute quarterback Will Souza also figured prominently in the win with a fine display of leadership in the final quarter.

Landy Fails To Decide On Olympics

Melbourne, Australia—(U.P.)—John Landy, Australia's miler king failed to decide Saturday whether he will compete in the Olympic games, saying he needed another week before he could make up his mind.

"My injured leg feels better," he revealed to newsmen at the Australian Olympic track and field trials. "I have done no running in two weeks. I'll train for one week and then decide my Olympic future. I'll tell the selectors in one week's time, how my leg reacts to severe training," he added.

Montana Gets First Win

Missoula, Mont. — (U.P.) — Montana university registered its first victory in five starts Saturday by defeating Brigham Young university 21-14 before 6,000 fans in a Skyline conference football game here.

A tight defensive game was cracked open in an airminded final quarter with both teams scoring twice.

The Grizzlies had moved in front 7-0 in the second period but saw the count tied with a BYU pass interception as the fourth quarter opened. The Grizzlies moved back in front two minutes later the same way—running an intercepted pass for the score.

UCLA Beats Cal, 34-20

Berkeley, Calif. — (U.P.) — The UCLA Bruins, parlayed passes, penalties and pass interceptions into five touchdowns Saturday as they walloped hapless California 34-20 in a Pacific Coast conference game before 48,000 fans.

Spotted two touchdowns in the first four minutes, 43 seconds of play, UCLA let Cal catch up once, then rolled on to victory with some sensational performances by ends Pete O'Garro and Dick Wallen.

It was the sixth consecutive win for UCLA over Cal.

Seven Footer Views Drills

Lawrence, Kan. — (U.P.) — Wilt The Stitt Chamberlain, the already fabulous seven-foot University of Kansas sophomore basketball player has been watching K.U. practice from the sidelines.

He's to undergo surgery next week to determine the nature of a growth on his vocal cords and has been instructed not to talk much or exercise.

Dr. Killbjorn Jensen, physician for K.U. athletes, said Friday a specialist thinks Wilt has a "singer's node" on his vocal cords.

Hoop Referees Clinic Wednesday

An Oregon School Activities association basketball clinic will be held at Medford Senior High school on Wednesday, Oct. 24.

The session is set for 7:30 p.m. in Room 4 of the school. A. Odgen Hawes, assistant secretary-treasurer of the OSSA, will be in charge.

The film, "Better Basketball," will be shown. There will be a discussion of rule changes and a general summary of all rules and the mechanics of officiating. Tests for certification of referees will be available.

Bobcats Assured Of Title Share

Bozeman, Mont. — (U.P.) — The Montana State college Bobcats assured themselves of at least a share in the Rocky Mountain conference title Saturday by downing Idaho State college 26-6 here.

It was the sixth straight victory of the season for the Bobcats and their fourth consecutive conference win.

The Bobcats dominated play during the first three quarters and the visiting Bengals' only score came in the final period against Montana State reserves.

Joe Giambra Nips Turner

New York — (U.P.) — Middleweight, contender Joe Giambra, whose strong finish earned a split decision over rejuvenated Gil Turner, said, "That hard fight made me real sharp for the first time since I got out of the Army, and now I'm ready for any one, preferably the champion."

Because of Joey's fifth straight victory since his Army discharge, the 10th-ranking contender will get another television bout at Madison Square Garden in November or December, probably against Ralph Tiger Jones, number three, or Spider Webb, number 7.

Meanwhile, Turner of Philadelphia — who weighed only 150½ pounds — to Giambra's 158 as he suffered his fourth straight defeat Friday night at the Garden — will fight no more middleweights, but will campaign for the welter-weight 147-pound title.

Out-weighted and out-gunned, 26-year-old Gil — the 3-1 underdog whom many had considered to be "washed up"—turned in an inspired fight. He was inspired by the recent reconciliation with his wife Esther, who was at the ringside rooting for him.

POMPEY OFFERED BOUT

London—(U.P.)—Yolande Pompey of Trinidad has been offered a bout in Montevideo, Uruguay, sometime in mid-winter, his manager disclosed. The manager wired that he would accept any match against a reasonable opponent.
