Hollis Doe Found Guilty by Jury
Pendleton — (U.P.) — Hollis Doe was convicted of manslaughter late Friday by a jury of eight men and four women. Doe was convicted of the slaying of William Manzanarez Jr. last month near the Eastern Oregon state hospital here, reportedly in a fight over a woman.

The verdict was found to be unanimous when defense attorney Ralph Curran polled the jury. Curran said he had not given thought as yet to an appeal.

Umatilla County Circuit Judge William W. Wells said sentence would be pronounced Wednesday, Oct. 24, at 9 a.m.

Weather Break Eases Vancouver Flood Threat
Vancouver, B. C. — (U.P.) — Skies cleared over British Columbia's drenched lower mainland Saturday and the sun broke through to dissipate persistent fog after 48 hours of pelting rain that spawned a major flood threat on Vancouver's north shore.

The sudden break in the weather forestalled any evacuations, at least temporarily. But residents along the banks of roaring Mosquito Creek were on the alert.

600 Expected at OESA Annual Convention
Salem — (U.P.) — About 600 members of the Oregon Elementary School Principals association were expected to attend the annual convention here Oct. 28-30.

Miss Levina Wilson, association president and principal of Dunn elementary school in Eugene, said the main speaker will be Dr. Herbert F. Spitzer, director of elementary education at the University of Iowa.
