

Each fall Medford Junior Service league invites a small group of young women to become members of the organization, and they are introduced at a Founders' day luncheon. This fall's event was held recently at Tally Ho restaurant near Talent, and introduced as new members were (left to right) Mrs. Roger Sterton, Mrs. Donald Root, Mrs. Donald L. Welch,

Mrs. Floyd Hart Jr., Mrs. James C. Hayes, Mrs. M. Donald McGeary and Mrs. Arlon Skinner. Medford Junior Service league is one of the city's most active organizations, both from a civic and a social standpoint, and its major project is maintenance of a kindergarten for hard-of-hearing children.

Couple Weds At Ceremony In Kansas

From Topeka, Kan., comes news of the wedding of Miss Patricia Lee Finnie and Kenneth Roger Wright at St. John's Lutheran church Friday, October 5. The Rev. J. G. Jacobson officiated at the double ring ceremony, held at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Finnie of Topeka. Mr. Wright is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Wright, 2345 Finley lane, Medford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle. The fitted bodice was styled with a scoop neckline edged in deep scallops and the full skirt was fashioned with a gathered panel of lace in the front and back which was formed with a gathered panel of lace and tulle. A cap of lace and seed pearls held her tulle veil and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Karen Christenson was maid of honor for her cousin and she wore a ballerina length gown of pink net over taffeta. Her bouquet was of yellow carnations.

Thomas Kennelos, Syracuse, N. Y., was best man.

G. G. Grete, organist, played the nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Dale Palmer, cousin of the bride, who sang.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Finnie wore a Dior blue dress with dusty pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor.

Mr. Wright, an airman in the United States Air Force, is stationed at Forbes Air Force Base, Kan. The best man, also in the Air Force, is a friend of the bridegroom. Mr. Wright is a graduate of Medford High school and joined the service in 1954.

The newlywed couple are making their home at 302 The Drive, Topeka.

Howard-Haynes Ceremony Held At Bride's Home

Talent—Miss Lyda E. Haynes became the bride of H. J. Howard, Ashland, in a ceremony held Friday, October 5, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Robertson in Talent at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Rev. Ed Harmon officiated at the candlelight ceremony attended by friends and relatives.

Given in marriage by her uncle, I. F. Koenig of Bakersfield, Calif., the bride wore a gold crystalline ballerina length dress with brown accessories. Her headdress was of gold lace and trimmed in lilies of the valley and small white roses. She carried a bouquet of golden spider chrysanthemums.

Mrs. James E. Smith was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a dress of changeable rose colored taffeta and carried bronze chrysanthemums. H. W. McCarley of Ashland served as best man.

The house was decorated with autumn flowers. Tall gold lighted candles were on the fireplace.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Robertson wore a blue knit suit with pink rose corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held.

After a wedding trip to Nevada the newlywed couple will make their home in Ashland.

SOC Faculty Members Wed In Roseburg

Ashland — Miss Flora Jane Schuster and Dr. Elliott Bolte MacCracken, both on the faculty of Southern Oregon college, were married October 6 in a ceremony held at St. George's Episcopal church, Roseburg.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Alfred S. Tyson. The newlyweds made a trip to the Oregon coast and are living at 262 Hargadine street in Ashland.

For the wedding the bride wore a gown of powder blue lace with full skirt and three-quarter length sleeves. She carried white carnations on her mother's white prayer book.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom from Roseburg, attended the couple.

Mrs. MacCracken wore a toast-colored wool sheath dress and corsage of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

Candles and bouquets of autumn leaves decorated the church altar.

A family party at the Gordon MacCracken home followed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Schuster who lived in Corvallis for 35 years. The bridegroom's family the late Dr. and Mrs. Gordon MacCracken lived in Ashland for 40 years.

The bride, a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, and of Mortar Board, received her bachelor's and master's degree from Oregon State college and instructs in secretarial science. Dr. MacCracken holds a bachelor's degree from Oregon State college, a master's degree from Columbia university and his doctorate from Stanford university. He is an associate professor of science at SOC.
