Ashland Woman Sorority Hostess

Beta Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Selby, 140 Union street, Ashland. Mrs. Jack Canon assisted as co-hostess.

The cultural program for the evening was presented by Mrs. DeVon Wray on "Her Crowning Glory". A graceful carriage, a fine figure and skin are what all women strive for, but topping them all is woman's "crowning glory", her hair, the speaker said. Hair styles go from long to short and back again, she added. In 1928 we had the "wind blown look", in 1932 the glamour bob, 1936 saw the page boy, 1940 the pompadour, 1945 the feather bob and 1954 the Italian boy cut.

The hair plays an important part in every woman's life, the speaker said, and is an indication of personality.

Mrs. Wray's hair had been styled and set for the evening by Mr. Larry of Craterian Beauty salon.

A dinner dance was planned by Beta Upsilon, the silver anniversary chapter here, to celebrate its first anniversary. It is set for October 26, at 8 p.m. at Mon Desir.

October 28, at 2 p.m. a preferential tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Scott Davis, 1914 East Main street. This is in honor of rushees who have been invited to become members of Beta Upsilon chapter. All members of the chapter will be hostesses for the tea.

A formal pledge ceremony will be held October 30th for new members, with a formal reception to follow in their honor.
